Gattaca Movie Questions:

Plato and Popcorn William G. Smith, 2015-09-18 Many believe there is nothing like seeing a good movie one that is enjoyable both in itself and for the thought processes it stimulates From The Usual Suspects and When Harry Met Sally to Gandhi and The Color Purple this handbook functions as a guide to watching and reflecting upon 75 great films The author a philosophy instructor presents a text designed to lead readers through a series of intellectual gymnastics to help strengthen critical thinking abilities and to inspire exciting and philosophical thoughts and discussions Civil Disobedience Death Fate and Determinism War Sexism and Women's Issues Gay Rights The Greatest Happiness Principle Anxiety and Inauthenticity and The Holocaust are examples of the 18 different categories into which the films are divided Each chapter includes the author's introductory comments to be read prior to watching movies along with a section of Questions to Ponder to be considered afterward Photographs of many movie scenes are included throughout the text Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Classic Questions and Contemporary Film Dean A.

Kowalski, 2015-08-26 Featuring significant revisions and updates Classic Questions and Contemporary Film An Introduction to Philosophy 2nd Edition uses popular movies as a highly accessible framework for introducing key philosophical concepts Explores 28 films with 18 new to this edition including Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Hotel Rwanda V for Vendetta and Memento Discusses numerous philosophical issues not covered in the first edition including a new chapter covering issues of personal identity the meaningfulness of life and death and existentialism Offers a rich pedagogical framework comprised of key classic readings chapter learning outcomes jargon free argument analysis critical thinking and trivia questions a glossary of terms and textboxes with notes on the movies discussed Revised to be even more accessible to beginning philosophers The Influence of Imagination Lee Easton, Randy Schroeder, 2008-01-23 This collection of essays examines the potential connections between speculative fiction and actual social change Through a variety of approaches the contributors explore whether consumers of science fiction and fantasy narratives can experience a real shift in their worldviews as a result of that consumption Topics include the utopian vision of California in Ursula K LeGuin's Always Coming Home the changing role of women in science fiction pulp magazines and the representation of progress and social change in popular graphic novels Making Sense of Nature Noel Castree, 2013-08-15 We listen to a cacophony of voices instructing us how to think and feel about nature including our own bodies The news media wildlife documentaries science magazines and environmental NGOs are among those clamouring for our attention But are we empowered by all this knowledge or is our dependence on various communities allowing our thoughts sentiments and activities to be unduly governed by others Making Sense of Nature shows that what we call nature is made sense of for us in ways that make it central to social order social change and social dissent By utilising insights and extended examples from anthropology cultural studies human geography philosophy politics sociology science studies this interdisciplinary text asks whether we can better make sense of nature for ourselves and thus participate more meaningfully in momentous decisions about the future of life human and non human on the planet This book shows how nature can be made sense of without presuming its naturalness The challenge is not so much to rid ourselves of the idea of nature and its collateral concepts such as genes but instead we need to be more alert to how why and with what effects ideas about nature get fashioned and deployed in specific situations Among other things the book deals with science and scientists the mass media and journalists ecotourism literature and cinema environmentalists advertising and big business This innovative text contains numerous case studies and examples from daily life to put theory and subject matter into context as well as study tasks a glossary and suggested further reading The case studies cover a range of topics range from forestry in Canada and Guinea to bestiality in Washington State to how human genetics is reported in Western newspapers to participatory science experiments in the UK Making Sense of Nature will empower readers from a wide range of fields across the social sciences humanities and physical sciences

Lights in the Darkness Phillip M. Thompson, 2017-07-21 Americans currently spend on average more than ten hours a day in front of a screen Some of that time can now be a source of profound ethical reflections and spiritual insights thanks to this refreshing book The primary goal of Lights in the Darkness is to explore the themes of grace redemption pilgrimage conscience justice faith and reason the common good sacramentality and wisdom in twelve award winning films In addition to unpacking these themes each chapter provides background information on the relevant historical moment and explores the development of the film Questions at the end of each chapter helps to connect the themes in each film to the lives of the reader Film is a powerful and unique artistic medium and now you have a resource to connect its wonders to your faith by reading this book and watching these films

Hollywood Science Sidney Perkowitz, 2010-02-22 In this book a scientist and dedicated film enthusiast discusses the portrayal of science in more than one hundred films including science fiction scientific biographies and documentaries Beginning with early films like Voyage to the Moon and Metropolis and concluding with more recent offerings like The Matrix War of the Worlds A Beautiful Mind and An Inconvenient Truth Sidney Perkowitz questions how much faith we can put into Hollywood's depiction of scientists and their work how accurately these films capture scientific fact and theory whether cataclysms like our collision with a comet can actually happen and to what extent these films influence public opinion about science and the future Bringing together history scientific theory and humorous observation Hollywood Science features dozens of film stills and a list of the all time best and worst science fiction movies

Focus On: 100 Most Popular 1990s Science Fiction Films Wikipedia contributors, Engineering the Human Bert Jaap Koops, Christoph H. Lüthy, Annemiek Nelis, Carla Sieburgh, J.P.M. Jansen, Monika S. Schmid, 2013-02-12 The volume is collection of articles treating the topic of human improvement enhancement from a variety of perspectives philosophical literary medical genetic sociological legal etc The chapters in this volume treat not only those aspects that most immediately come to mind when one thinks of human enhancement such as genetic engineering cloning artificial implants and artificial intelligence etc Somewhat less obvious aspects include evolutionary perspectives in connection with the prolongation of the human lifespan plastic surgery since its beginnings and questions such as whether the distinction between natural and artificial can really be drawn at all and how it has been conceived across the ages or what the legal implications are of recent developments and techniques Many papers make links to the representation of these developments in popular culture from Jules Verne through Aldous Huxley to the movie Gattaca address the hopes and fears that come with them as well as the question how realistic these are While all chapters are written by scientists at the international top of their respective fields all are accessible to a non specialist audience and eminently readable We believe that they represent a state of the art overview of questions that are of interest to a large audience The book thus targets a non specialist audience with an interest in philosophical sociological scientific and legal issues involved in both traditional and recent matters concerning the desire of mankind to improve itself the human body the human mind and the human condition It is unique in that it brings together all these aspects within a coherent and cohesive collection

Surveillance Studies David Lyon, 2007-07-30 The study of surveillance is more relevant than ever before The fast growth of the field of surveillance studies reflects both the urgency of civil liberties and privacy questions in the war on terror era and the classical social science debates over the power of watching and classification from Bentham to Foucault and beyond In this overview David Lyon one of the pioneers of surveillance studies fuses with aplomb classical debates and contemporary examples to provide the most accessible and up to date introduction to surveillance available The book takes in surveillance studies in all its breadth from local face to face oversight through technical developments in closed circuit TV radio frequency identification and biometrics to global trends that integrate surveillance systems internationally Surveillance is understood in its ambiguity from caring to controlling and the role of visibility of the surveilled is taken as seriously as the powers of observing classifying and judging The book draws on international examples and on the insights of several disciplines sociologists political scientists and geographers will recognize key issues from their work here but so will people from media culture organization technology and policy studies This illustrates the diverse strands of thought and critique available while at the same time the book makes its own distinct contribution and offers tools for evaluating both surveillance trends and the theories that explain them This book is the perfect introduction for anyone wanting to understand surveillance as a phenomenon and the tools for analysing it further and will be essential reading for students and scholars alike

The cultural politics of contemporary Hollywood film Chris Beasley, Heather Brook, 2019-01-21 Adopting and developing a cultural politics approach this comprehensive study explores how Hollywood movies generate and reflect political myths about social and personal life that profoundly influence how we understand power relations Instead of looking at genre it employs three broad categories of film Security films present ideas concerning public order and disorder citizen state relations and the politics of fear Relationalities films highlight personal and intimate politics bringing norms about identities gender and sexuality into focus In socially critical films particular issues and ideas are endowed with more overtly political significance The book considers these categories as global political technologies implicated in hegemonic and soft power relations whose reach is both deep and broad Business Ethics and Sustainability Roman Meinhold,2021-11-29 This book equips readers with the knowledge insights and key capabilities to understand and practice business activities from ethical and sustainable vantage points In our interconnected global business environment the impacts of business activities are under increased ethical scrutiny from a wide range of stakeholders Written from an international perspective this book introduces the theory and practice of ethical and sustainable business focusing in particular on eco environmental sustainability intergenerational responsibilities current disruptive technologies and intercultural values of the business community and consumers Written by an expert author who also brings to the fore non Western concepts and themes this book features positive case studies as well as transferrable and applicable key insights from such cases highlights the importance of taking cultural differences into account takes a transdisciplinary approach which considers findings from research fields including conceptual and empirical business ethics behavioral economics ecological economics environmental ethics and the philosophy of culture weaves in pedagogical features throughout including up to date case studies study questions thought experiments links to popular movies and key takeaways Written in an accessible and student friendly manner this book will be of great interest to students of business ethics environmental ethics applied ethics and sustainable development as well as business practitioners striving toward ethical sustainable and responsible business practice
