Lost to Desire Wolfgang Lassmann, 2021-11-28 This book covers the work of psychoanalysts in post WWII France with patients beset by somatic problems with little manifest fantasy life and how their concept of opératoire continues to inform the theory and practice of working with patients in crisis The author explores what the new concept has elicited in a community of practitioners close to the cole Psychosomatique de Paris over a period of some sixty years As a skin for thought it facilitated change while preserving coherence gradually beginning to attract further considerations Important themes have included the early groundwork necessary for the configuration of fantasy the importance of a shared imaginary the role of denial and obliterated memories as a bond between people emergency measures of a Me cut off from revitalisation the effects of the rhythms and atmosphere at the workplace on family life and the consequences of a crisis suppressed for lack of a holding frame As psychoanalytic discourse adapted to the challenges the original perspective changed aspect moving from a systematic evaluation of what the patients did not produce to what the analyst had to fill in to make sense of the situation Clashing with the terrain French psychoanalysts raised important problems about psychic anaemia that are stimulating and deserve cross cultural discussion This book will appeal to psychoanalysts in practice and training who wish to learn more about this ground breaking work on memory and trauma and how to apply it to their own practice

La Production Du Corps Maurice Godelier, Michel Panoff, 2022-02-14 Dans quelle mesure le corps fait-il l'identité d'un être humain Et pour combien de temps si quelque chose survit de lui après sa mort ce n'est pas tout fait son corps Dans toutes les cultures il semble que l'humanité sous des formes diverses ait tenté d'imaginer l'être humain comme composé de deux parties une partie périssable et une partie qui continue d'agir bien au-delà de la mort même si elle n'est pas immortelle Ces deux parties ne se réduisent pas nécessairement un corps visible et un animal double invisible mais qui meurt quand l'autre meurt Chez les Maenche de Nouvelle Guinée l'individu a deux mesures même si n'a qu'un seul corps De nombreuses sociétés pensent qu'il faut plus de deux êtres humains pour faire un être humain Il faut que l'esprit d'un ancêtre ou l'action d'un dieu vienne sinon animer ce corps du moins le rendre complet le compléter Chaque personne n'a donc pas tant inscrite en soi formant comme une sorte d'intimité impersonnelle un ensemble d'idées d'images de valeurs par lesquelles l'ordre ou les désordres qui s'impriment dans son corps régnent dans sa société Seize anthropologues et historiens ont exploré ces réalités culturelles dispersées dans l'espace et le temps

Consumer Chronicles David H. Walker, 2011 Since its 19th century beginnings the consumer revolution extending market forces into every area of social and private life has been perceived as a challenge to core elements in French culture such as traditional artisan crafts and small businesses serving local communities Cultural historians and sociologists have charted the increasing commercialisation of everyday life over the 20th century but few have paid systematic attention to the crucial testimony provided by the authors of narrative fiction This book rectifies this omission by means of close readings of a series of novels selected for their authentic portrayal of consumer behaviour and analysed in relation to their social cultural and historical contexts

Andrea Rabbito, 2017-05-30T00:00:00+02:00 The emergence and spread of new images photography film television and audiovisual have brought about an important epistemological revolution that has encouraged contemporary man to have a new attitude of confidence not only towards the image but also to reality The modern knowledge that exploded man's certainties into hundreds of relative truths has been removed The perfect doubling of reality offered by the new media has quietly eliminated doubt about the faithful restitution of reality into images and consequently into the events of the outside world Opposing this credulity this mental breakdown as Joseph Conrad called it we will need to recover the principles and themes of modern thought that came into existence in the Seventeenth century This recovery will serve not only to oppose illusions and deceptions but also to understand the nature of the new images better
