Punch ,1888 The Black Arts of the Gypsy - A Study Various,2017-09-15 First published in the early 1900s The contents contain many fascinating subject related items in prose and verse gleaned from classical literature folklore history and true gypsy life Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive We are republishing this book now in an affordable high quality modern edition complete with a specially commissioned new introduction on the history of the Romani people GYPSY FOLK TALES BOOK ONE Various,2009-06 This book is a treasure chest of classic Gypsy Folklore and makes fascinating reading for those interested in folklore in general but especially for those interested in the Roma people Francis Hindes Groom collated and prepared this collection making only few changes and remaining true to the original stories so to let the written story enchant us as if it were being presented in the vernacular A percentage of the profit from the sale of this book you will be donated to charities schools or special causes Immoral Brian Freeman,2010-04-01 In a riveting debut thriller Brian Freeman s Immoral weaves obsession sex and revenge into a story that grips the reader with vivid characters and shocking plot twists from the first page to the last Lieutenant Jonathan Stride is suffering from an ugly case of d j vu For the second time in a year a beautiful teenage girl has disappeared off the streets of Duluth Minnesota gone without a trace like a bitter gust off Lake Superior The two victims couldn t be more different First it was Kerry McGrath bubbly sweet sixteen And now Rachel Deese strange sexually charged a wild child The media hounds Stride to catch a serial killer and as the search carries him from the icy stillness of the northern woods to the erotic heat of Las Vegas he must decide which facts are real and which are illusions And Stride finds his own life changed forever by the secrets he uncovers Secrets that stretch across time in a web of lies death and illicit desire Secrets that are chillingly immoral Ballou's Monthly Magazine ,1892 MIGRANT LIFE : STORIES OF REVERIST Omar Faruque Shipon,2020-02-01 Before I came to this foreign soil I took all my love and affection out of the heart and put all of these into archive of my dreams Relative in a Foreign Land Taken together this generous collection of stories offers English readers an unprecedented glimpse into the lives of Bangladeshi migrant workers oscillating Singapore and the mother country home seen through the lens of a twenty first century Bangladeshi Muslim male lens That lens deftly and shifts between Singapore and Bangladesh past and present as co workers hitherto little known recount their often heartbreakingly sad stories One gets the impression that the narrator for the main part is the same in each story a soft hearted administrative worker in the marine sector his dark skin on more than one occasion leading to him being mistaken for a Singaporean of Tamil descent not recognised by his own Bangladeshi countrymen The narrator is ultimately the catalyst or repository for the stories of the varied quotidian workers he encounters While not topographically explicit the stories catch for us up close something of the poetry of conversations between migrant workers often revealing complicated stories of a worker missing his father s funeral far away a mother s sorrow even when her migrant son for whatever reason tries to lie on speakerphone unfairnesses such as being sent home without warning after one infraction Singapore is the backdrop the city and focus of many delusory dreams of fortune loss and homesickness The stories are elliptically poetically recounted A profound tragic beauty flowers out of the migrant quotidian as the speaker encounters a variety of multicultural voices the sad thorny lives contended with that lie behind the hard work done by migrants Stories like Love of Farhan take us to and leave us in discombobulating unexpected places raising more questions than answers As with these story endings there is no easy solution to the dauntingly complicated problems revealed Striking in these stories is the deft economy and perhaps what is not said At times I was reminded of Mikhail Lermontov I was often struck by quotable arrestingly memorable lines religion really has an awesome power to make a stranger a relative and a relative a stranger he smiled like a robot It was nothing like a smile Everyone was bought with money everyone gave in to money and wealth Woman s love makes us happy but family s love gives us satisfaction I was sweating like a cold water bottle the smile was dominated by the helpless tone of his face In a kind of epiphany Bangladeshi migrant workers arriving in Singapore recognise how Bangladeshi brides must feel homesick wives feel insecure Through these stories we in Singapore might begin to constructively appreciate not only the sacrifices of the men who come to work here but also their wives and family left without husbands and fathers for long periods at home So there is a message in these stories but also an evocative beauty in which we encounter a world of Jacobin cuckoos beparis adams betel nuts whether Bengali or Burmese and traditional leaf cigarettes Here are also bittersweet poignant moments of migrant life such as hearing the first cry of your first born son back in a Bangladesh hospital over a handphone 45 or the joy at finding at last a rare Bangladeshi provision shop only to find shortly after the kind owner is ill has passed away Is it wise to be pennywise for years in Singapore as one story suggests or send all your money home for family We expatriates are like cows with milk as one worker reflects but what happens when the milk runs out Workers are often pressured into coming by family community even back home are those sacrifices properly appreciated remembered The book s moral seems to be for us to show empathise demonstrate sympathy for all in this world in a world of pain Figures of ridicule turn out to be objects of sympathy It seems almost everyone is nursing a to be told sad story Every man has a river inside Migrant workers it seems are surviving on happy memories of home and family in Sabri a dead young Singaporean co worker lives through the fond memories and prayers of his co workers from many parts of the world In Room Leader dormitory life is evoked a key telling part of migrant experience This story is also a call to perhaps to listen to the wisdom of the young me in this rapidly evolving world Workers cry over a discarded cigarette a ruined fish dish but really they are crying over something else Only good humour understanding and empathy bring some consolation for real Again and again narrators co workers fail to fathom the depth of others trials But maybe we could all try a little better By reading these stories you enter tragic comic lives you perhaps never realised before and yet perhaps uncannily similar in some ways to your own
