What Is Buddhist Enlightenment? Dale S. Wright, 2016-09-01 What kind of person should I strive to be What ideals should I pursue in my life These basic human questions and others like them are components of the overall question that guides this book What is enlightenment As Dale Wright argues any serious practitioner of human life religious or not confronts the challenge of living an authentic life of overcoming common human disabilities like greed hatred and delusion that give rise to excessive suffering Why then Wright asks is this essential question often avoided even discouraged among Buddhists One reason frequently cited by Buddhists is that pondering a distant goal might be a waste of energy that would be better applied to practice Quiet the flow of obsessive thinking put yourself in a mindful state of presence and let enlightenment take care of itself In this book however Wright contends that pondering this question is meditative practice that attentive inquiry of this kind is essential as the starting point and guide for any mindful practice of life Meditative reflection on the meaning of enlightenment focuses us on our aim and direction in life It guides us in shaping our practices our ideals and the kinds of lives we will live Asking what enlightenment is as a basic form of meditation helps to activate our lives and get transformative practice underway From Wright s perspective there is no more important question to ask than this one What is Buddhist Enlightenment offers a wide ranging exploration of issues that have a bearing on the contemporary meaning of enlightenment including a concluding section with 10 theses that answer the title s question Written by a leading scholar of Buddhism the book balances deep learning and an accessible style offering valuable insights for students scholars and practitioners alike While he takes an examination of what enlightenment has been in past Buddhist traditions as his point of departure Wright s historical considerations yield to the question that our lives press upon us what kinds of lives should we aspire to live here now and into the future

Crossing the Stream, Leaving the Cave Amber D. Carpenter, Pierre-Julien Harter, 2024 Crossing the Stream Leaving the Cave brings philosophers from two of the world s great philosophical traditions Platonic and Indian Buddhist into joint inquiry on topics in metaphysics epistemology mind language and ethics An international team of scholars address selected questions of mutual concern to Buddhist and Platonist How can knowledge of reality transform us Will such transformation leave us speechless or disinterested in the world around us What is cause What is self knowledge And how can dreams shed light on waking cognition What do the paradoxes thrown up by abstract thought about fundamental notions such as being and unity reveal Is it possible to attain unity in ourselves and should we even try Would doing so make us happy and is such happiness consistent with both contemplation of reality and action in the world With close readings of texts by Buddhaghosa Nagarjuna Vasubandhu Dignaga Bhaviveka Santideva by Plato Plotinus Porphyry Olympiodorus and Damascius among others these studies consider not just the different answers Buddhists and Platonists might give to these questions but also the criticisms they might bring to each other s positions the sort of arguments they use and the use they put these arguments to Bringing Platonic and the Buddhist perspectives jointly to bear creates a cosmopolitan philosophical exchange which yields greater conceptual clarity on the questions and the terms in which they are cast reveals unnoticed conceptual connections and opens up new possibilities for addressing central philosophical concerns
