

Mass Communication Chapter1

Communication Definition – “Social Interaction through messages.”

The Four Levels of Communication

Intrapersonal – One’s Self

Interpersonal – One To One

Public Speaking / Group Communication – One To A Group

Definition and Example

Interpersonal – Communication Within The Self. this is how we assign meaning to all the messages and events that surround our life.

Example: “it ranges from the simple act of smiling in response to the smell of a favorite food coming from the kitchen to thinking about whether we really want to share that photo on Snapchat.”

Interpersonal – “Is the intentional or accidental transmission of information through verbal or nonverbal systems to another human being.”

Example: “Interpersonal communication can be a conversation with a friend or a hug that tells your mother you love her.”

Public Speaking / Group Communication – “it’s when a network of people are communicating with each other.”

Example: “there might be a leader who is dominating the communication in the group such as with a teacher in the classroom students in the class will also have many opportunities to communicate
