Hooray4Ray Antony J Stowers, 2019-09-20 In 2006 when I arrived here it was a different geo political world. Blair was British Prime Minister while Gordon waited in the wings like an ambitious understudy eager for the principal to break a leg and across the Channel towering Chirac was President with Shorty Sarko in his shadow. Not that it made much difference to me. I was too busy trying to make a living to give much of a damn about the global picture like most people. After hanging on by my fingertips for the summer it was with relief that I landed myself a part time nine month teaching job assisting in three primary schools in the autumn. I've never looked back. Part self help part memoir this is an accurate record of my time teaching Britain's biggest export its language to our French neighbours. 2006 2016 It's also a tribute to the legendary Raymond Murphy author of world renowned versatile practical and informative teaching books some of which have kept me on constant work for over 10 years.

Colour and colour naming: crosslinguistic approaches João Paulo Silvestre, Esperança Cardeira, Alina Villalva, 2016-09-01 The Colour and Colour Naming conference held in 2015 at the University of Lisbon offered a chance to explore colour naming processes from a cross linguistic approach. The conference was an initiative of the working group Lexicography And Lexicology from a Pan European Perspective itself part of the COST action European Network of Lexicography. The working group investigates the various ways by which vocabularies of European languages can be represented in dictionaries and how existing information from single language dictionaries can be displayed and interlinked to better communicate their common European heritage. The proceedings gather together a selection of studies originally presented at the conference. The first section of the volume outlines a Pan European perspective of colour names the second section is devoted to the categorisation and lexicographic description of colour terms.
