Gods Presence A Contemporary Recapitulation Of:

God's Presence Frances Young, 2013-10-10 In 2011 Frances Young delivered the Bampton Lectures in Oxford to great acclaim She offered a systematic theology with contemporary coherence by engaging in conversation with the fathers of the church those who laid down the parameters of Christian theology and enshrined key concepts in the creeds and exploring how their teachings can be applied today despite the differences in our intellectual and ecclesial environments This book results from a thorough rewriting of those lectures in which Young explores the key topics of Christian doctrine in a way that is neither simply dogmatic nor simply historical She addresses the congruence of head and heart through academic and spiritual engagement with God s gracious accommodation to human limitations Christianity and biblical interpretation are discussed in depth and the book covers key topics including Creation anthropology Christology soteriology spirituality ecclesiology and Mariology making it invaluable to those studying historical and constructive theology Scripture, the Genesis of Doctrine Frances M. Young, 2023-10-19 How did we get from Scripture to creed Historical criticism has revealed a gap between Scripture and the mainstream doctrines that define Christianity today Not the least of these are the Trinity and two natures of Christ widely accepted since the fifth century but unfounded in historical readings of Scripture How did these dogmas become so integral to the faith in the first place Frances M Young tackles this monumental question in a culmination of decades of biblical and patristic research The first of two volumes exploring the emergence of doctrine in the early church Scripture the Genesis of Doctrine reframes the relationship between Scripture and doctrine according to the intellectual context of the first few centuries CE Young situates the early Christians biblical hermeneutic within the context of Greco Roman learning without espousing historical relativism Ultimately Young argues that the scriptural canon and the rule of faith emerged concurrently in the early Church and both were received as apostolic The perceived gap between the two may in fact be the product of our modern assumptions rather than an ancient reality Nuanced and ecumenical Scripture the Genesis of Doctrine explores early Christians biblical hermeneutic with an eye toward how we interpret the Bible today Young s magisterial study holds widespread implications for not only patristics but also exegesis and systematic theology

A Language for the Soul Stuart C. Devenish, 2024-10-24 This volume offers Christian spiritual instructors a language for the soul uncovered from the storehouses of Christianity s ancient living spiritual tradition That language describes the deep soul movements that unfold in the interior life of believers in response to the Divine invitation It presents an accessible language of the soul for use in today s professional educational ministerial and everyday life situations The end product is an experiential dictionary comprised of sixty word concepts which name and explore the inward human reactions to the whispering of God s Spirit Those reactions result from inward desires that lead to the embrace of faith the quest for consecration and the journey of discipleship Nurturing these intra personal choices and commitments is the central task of Christian ministry but many faith instructors remain unaware of these critical inner life processes More than other resources available today this experiential dictionary informs enriches and intensifies the spiritual journeys of genuine disciples and seekers The volume is tailored for seminaries churches schools and community settings It has application to the training of ministry leaders the instruction of believers and in supporting the growing number of secular mystics who are open to merging their journeys of self discovery with the quest for Christ discovery The Palgrave Handbook on the Problem of Animal Suffering in the Philosophy of Religion B. Kyle Keltz,2025-07-28 Atheists argue that animal pain disease suffering and death cause a problem for theism because they believe that an all knowing all powerful and all good God would not use millions of years of animal suffering just to make a world suitable for humans Animal suffering was not a concern for theism through the medieval period but it has been increasingly discussed in philosophy of religion since modern times and there is especially a large and growing amount of literature on this subject that has been published in the last few decades This handbook serves as a guide for those interested in the literature on the problem by bringing together experts in the philosophy of religion theology environmental ethics and the philosophy of animal minds It not only presents major formulations of the problem of animal suffering and major theodicies but it also discusses metaethical issues regarding animal suffering the question of animal consciousness and self awareness and their implications for animal suffering and what implications available theodicies might have for animal ethics I Am With You Kathryn Greene-McCreight,2015-12-03 There are many Lent books published each year but only one chosen by the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby In I Am With You Episcopal priest and theologian Kathryn Greene McCreight examines the biblical portrayal of God s presence among us as light in darkness Close readings of Scripture are woven into a framework patterned on the seven monastic hours of prayer and the seven days of creation God s interaction with us in light comes as address drawing us into relationship with the Creator The resurrection of Easter morning bears the Light that both illumines our darkness refines our dress in its flames and draws us into the presence of God that Light by which we see light With an introduction by the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby I Am With You is a reflective and thought provoking guide to the solemn season of Lent Fragments for Fractured Times Nicola Slee,2020-09-30 Nicola Slee one of the world s leading feminist practical theologians brings together 15 years of papers articles talks and sermons many of them previously unpublished Drawing on a wide and diverse range of her writing Slee demonstrates the richness and variety of feminist practical theological writing Theology in a Suffering World Christopher Southgate,2018-08-30 In this book Christopher Southgate proposes a new way of understanding the glory of God in Christian theology based on glory as sign Working from the roots of the concept in the Hebrew Bible Theology in a Suffering World Glory and Longing shows that glory is not necessarily about beauty or radiance but is better understood as a sign of the unknowable depths of God Southgate goes on to show how John and Paul transform the concept of glory in the light of the cross He then explores where glory may be discerned in the natural world including in situations of pain and suffering In turn glory is explored in the poetry of R S Thomas and the writings of the Jewish mystic Etty Hillesum Finally the book considers what it might mean for Christians to be transformed from one degree of glory to another that might mean becoming a sign of the great sign of God that is Christ and conforming their longing to God's longing for the Kingdom to come Beyond Male and Female? Sam Ashton, 2023-09-21 In this incisive work Sam Ashton provides a compelling consistent and erudite argument for a foundational approach to the matter of sexual difference drawing on biblical and doctrinal material and using resources in their original languages He tracks and traces the sexed body as it moves from creation through the fall to redemption now and final consummation not yet In doing so Ashton presents what is perhaps the strongest case that can be made for male and female He created them Each chapter privileges biblical exegesis drawing upon figures in church history notably Augustine and Aquinas as and when they illumine Scripture By doing so the book considers the difficulty presented to sexual dimorphism by the phenomenon of intersex Ashton seeks to develop an understanding that is generous inclusive and affirming so he works carefully through the writings of Thatcher Song and Cornwall in a way that invites engagement and dialogue With the complete divine drama in view the book offers synthetic judgments about what remains essential for the structure of the sexed body as it travels through history and what may be accidental to the sexed body's direction within a particular theo-dramatic act Ashton concludes by considering ways to transition from dogmatic judgments about intersexuality to the moral pastoral care of concrete intersex individuals briefly thinking about the complex matter of marriage Theology as Retrieval W. David Buschart, Kent Eilers, 2015-04-15 Buschart and Eilers identify six critical areas Scripture theology worship spirituality mission and culture where contemporary Christians are retrieving aspects of our Christian past for life and thought today The result is a fascinating tour and wise reflection on how Christians might receive, employ and transmit the treasures of their past Graced Life John Hughes, 2016-08-02 Graced Life collects together the work of the late John Hughes Dean of Jesus College Cambridge who died in a car crash in 2014 aged 35 John Hughes was a rising star in the Church of England for whom all things could be seen in the light of faith as graced and caught up in the redeeming love of God
