Admiralty,1915 THE GREAT WALL OF POPAT Melisa Mel,2013-07-31 At a time when most women my age are planning for retirement and maybe taking up hobbies that are a little less aggressive I decided to go into law enforcement Okay so doing what is expected of me is not my pattern of life I enjoy adventures and the more impossible that they seem the harder I will tackle them Basically it boiled down to the fact that years before I had missed my window of opportunity to join the military I had been a military brat and so joining the service would have been my wish but I had been a young mother and had to start work at a young age I would never change the life I had with my four wonderful children However now I was 42 years old and they were all grown up I had just found out through a turn of events that there was no age limit for joining the police department As long as one could keep up with the physical and academic requirements then they were welcome to join Additionally I had felt that I was living on borrowed time since I was 15 years old when I d come as close to facing the vulnerability of being human as one can do without passing over to the non living side Soon after surviving I had to face my own decision of moving on or finishing myself off I made a choice and it was to live and to be happy I wanted my days to count I wanted to serve others who had gone through similar experiences I wanted to lead a life with my head up At the time that I applied for the academy I was a special education teacher working with young adults who had aggressive and severe disabilities I was running an after school Gay Straight Alliance diversity club and was a mentor to many students I had devoted all my life to children and youth I had been a troubled child for a variety of reasons I knew the pains that could come with childhood many pains to which children should never have to be exposed I had always felt that I had to give back and try to be there for kids and others who could not speak up for themselves Doing this was a priority to me In addition to my full
