How Natives Think:

How Natives Think Lucien Lévy-Bruhl, This classic is organized as follows Introduction Part I Chapter I Collective Representations in Primitives Perceptions and the Mystical Character of Such Chapter II The Law of Participation Chapter III The Functioning of Prelogical Mentality Part II Chapter IV The Mentality of Primitives in Relation to the Languages They Speak Chapter V Prelogical Mentality in Relation to Numeration Part III Chapter VI Institutions in Which Collective Representations Governed by the Law of Participation Are Involved I Chapter VII Institutions in Which Collective Representations Governed by the Law of Participation Are Involved II Chapter VIII Institutions in Which Collective Representations Governed by the Law of Participation Are Involved III Part IV Chapter IX The Transition to the Higher Mental Types How Natives Think ,1966 How "Natives" Think Marshall Sahlins,1996-08-14 When Western scholars write about non Western societies do they inevitably perpetuate the myths of European imperialism Can they ever articulate the meanings and logics of non Western peoples Who has the right to speak for whom Questions such as these are among the most hotly debated in contemporary intellectual life In How Natives Think Marshall Sahlins addresses these issues head on while building a powerful case for the ability of anthropologists working in the Western tradition to understand other cultures In recent years these questions have arisen in debates over the death and deification of Captain James Cook on Hawaii i Island in 1779 Did the Hawaiians truly receive Cook as a manifestation of their own god Lono Or were they too pragmatic too worldly wise to accept the foreigner as a god Moreover can a non native scholar give voice to a native point of view In his 1992 book The Apotheosis of Captain Cook Gananath Obeyesekere used this very issue to attack Sahlins s decades of scholarship on Hawaii Accusing Sahlins of elementary mistakes of fact and logic even of intentional distortion Obeyesekere portrayed Sahlins as accepting a naive ethnocentric idea of superiority of the white man over natives Hawaiian and otherwise Claiming that his own Sri Lankan heritage gave him privileged access to the Polynesian native perspective Obeyesekere contended that Hawaiians were actually pragmatists too rational and sensible to mistake Cook for a god Curiously then as Sahlins shows Obeyesekere turns eighteenth century Hawaiians into twentieth century modern Europeans living up to the highest Western standards of practical rationality By contrast Western scholars are turned into classic custom bound natives endlessly repeating their ancestral traditions of the White man s superiority by insisting Cook was taken for a god But this inverted ethnocentrism can only be supported as Sahlins demonstrates through wholesale fabrications of Hawaiian ethnography and history not to mention Obeyesekere s sustained misrepresentations of Sahlins s own work And in the end although he claims to be speaking on behalf of the natives Obeyesekere by substituting a home made rationality for Hawaiian culture systematically eliminates the voices of Hawaiian people from their own history How Natives Think goes far beyond specialized debates about the alleged superiority of Western traditions The culmination of Sahlins s ethnohistorical research on Hawaii it is a reaffirmation for understanding difference Revival: How Natives

Think (1926) Lucien Lévy-Bruhl, 2018-12-20 Levy Bruhl speculates about what he posited as the two basic mind sets of mankind primitive and Western The primitive mind does not differentiate the supernatural from reality but rather uses mystical participation to manipulate the world Moreover the primitive mind doesn't address contradictions The Western mind by contrast uses speculation and logic How Natives Think IS an accurate and valuable contribution to anthropology How Natives Think, by Lucien Levy-Bruhl Lucien Lévy-Bruhl, 1966 How Natives Think, 1966 How "Natives" Think Marshall Sahlins, 1995 On Captain Cook How natives think, authorized tr Lucien Lévy-Bruhl, Primitive Thinking Nicola Gess, 2022-09-06 This book examines the discourse on primitive thinking in early twentieth century Germany It explores texts from the social sciences writings on art and language and most centrally literary works by Robert Musil Walter Benjamin Gottfried Benn and Robert M. L. Rieu focusing on three figurations of alterity prominent in European primitivism indigenous cultures children and the mentally ill How Natives Think Lucien Levy-Bruhl, 2015-02-23 2015 Reprint of 1926 Edition Full facsimile of the original edition Not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software In this work first published as Les Fonctions Mentales dans les Sociétés Inférieures Levy Bruhl speculated about what he posited as the two basic mindsets of mankind primitive and Western The primitive mind does not differentiate the supernatural from reality but rather uses mystical participation to manipulate the world According to Levy Bruhl moreover the primitive mind doesn't address contradictions The Western mind by contrast uses speculation and logic Like many theorists of his time Levy Bruhl believed in a historical and evolutionary teleology leading from the primitive mind to the Western mind Sociologist Stanislaw Andreski argued that despite its flaws Levy Bruhl's How Natives Think was an accurate and valuable contribution to anthropology perhaps even more so than better known work by Claude Lévi-Strauss How Natives Think Lucien Lévy-Bruhl, 2021-10-27 When Levy Bruhl uses the word primitive this does not in any way reflect a devaluation or labeling as in any way inferiority On the contrary it is Levy Bruhl who portrays the thinking of indigenous peoples as simply different from ours The work of Levy Bruhl also had a strong influence on Lev S. Vygotsky and the development of his concept of culture and history Authors who from today's perspective and in the face of current research were far ahead of their time were often misunderstood or simply ignored by their contemporaries And even if an excerpt from an extensive work is always subjective it still offers a middle ground between subsuming under a catchphrase on the one hand and intensive preoccupation with the author and his work on the other If you want to deal intensively with the work please refer to a reprint How natives think by Prof. Lucien Lévy-Bruhl ... Developing Magical Consciousness Susan Greenwood, 2019-09-30 Offering a new template for future exploration Susan Greenwood examines and develops the notion that the experience of magic is a panhuman orientation of consciousness a form of knowledge largely marginalized in Western societies In this volume she aims to form a bridge of communication between indigenous magical or shamanic worldviews and rationalized Western cultures She outlines an alternative mythological framework for the latter to help develop a magical perception as well as giving practical case studies derived from her own research. The form of magic discussed here is not fantastic or virtual but ecological and sensory. Magical knowledge infiltrates the body in its deepest levels of the subconscious and unconscious as well as conscious awareness; it is felt and understood through the connection with an inspirited world that includes the consciousness of other beings, including those of plant, animal, and the physical environment. This is anthropology from the heart rather than the head, and it engages with the messy area of emotions, an embodiment of the senses and struggles to find a common language of listening to one another across a void of differences. The aim is to provide a non-reductive structure for the creative interplay of both magical and analytical modes of thought. Passion is a motivator for change and a change in attitude to magic as an integrative force of human understanding is the main thread of this work.

How Forests Think Eduardo Kohn, 2013-08-03. Can forests think? Do dogs dream? In this astonishing book, Eduardo Kohn challenges the very foundations of anthropology, calling into question our central assumptions about what it means to be human and thus distinct from all other life forms. Based on four years of fieldwork among the Runa of Ecuador's Upper Amazon, Eduardo Kohn draws on his rich ethnography to explore how Amazonians interact with the many creatures that inhabit one of the world's most complex ecosystems. Whether or not we recognize it, our anthropological tools hinge on those capacities that make us distinctly human. However, when we turn our ethnographic attention to how we relate to other kinds of beings, these tools, which have the effect of divorcing us from the rest of the world, break down. How Forests Think seizes on this breakdown as an opportunity. Avoiding reductionistic solutions and without losing sight of how our lives and those of others are caught up in the moral webs we humans spin, this book skillfully fashions new kinds of conceptual tools from the strange and unexpected properties of the living world itself. In this groundbreaking work, Kohn takes anthropology in a new and exciting direction, one that offers a more capacious way to think about the world we share with other kinds of beings.

The Archaic Paul Bishop, 2011-09-30. The Archaic takes as its major reference points C. G. Jung's classic essay Archaic Man (1930) and Ernesto Grassi's paper on Archaic Theories of History (1990). Moving beyond the confines of a Jungian framework to include other methodological approaches, this book explores the concept of the archaic. Defined as meaning, old-fashioned, primitive, antiquated, the archaic is in fact much more than something very, very old; it is timeless, inasmuch as it is before time itself. Arch, Urgrund, Ungrund, primordial darkness, eternal nothing are names for something essentially nameless, yet whose presence we nevertheless intuit. This book focuses on the reception of myth in the tradition of German Idealism or Romanticism: Creuzer, Schelling, Nietzsche, which not only looked back to earlier thinkers such as Jacob Boehme but also laid down roots for developments in twentieth-century thought. Ludwig Klages, Martin Heidegger. The Archaic also includes studies of the Germanic dimension of the archaic: Charles Bambach, Alan Cardew, a discussion of the mytho-phenomenological approach to the archaic: Robert Josef Kozljani, a series of articles on Jung's understanding of the archaic: Paul Bishop, Susan Rowland, Robert Segal. This book will be of interest to Frédéric Keck, 2024-04-17 This book traces the contributions of the L vy Bruhl family to social and political thought and expertise in 20th century France shaping the anticipation of economic and health crises How French Moderns Think tells the story of the French sociological tradition through four generations of the L vy Bruhl family Lucien who founded the Institute of Ethnology at the University of Paris his son Henri who founded the Institute of Roman Law his grandson Raymond who took part in the creation of the National Institute of Statistics and Economic Studies and his great grandson Daniel a vaccine specialist at the Institute of Public Health This family history casts a new light on the philosophical debates about primitive mentality and the savage mind By drawing on the expert knowledge inherent in this family genealogy the articulation between the logical and the pre logical is not a cognitive question but rather a problem of anticipating unpredictable events By relating L vy Bruhl s engagements from the Dreyfus Affair to the Minister of Armaments during the First World War Keck narrates the confrontation of the socialist ideal of justice and truth with the French colonial experience and its transformations in global technologies preparing for pandemics Intellectual Developments in Greece and China

Raymond W.K. Lau, 2020-03-17 This book presents a study of historical sociology and a comparison of ancient Greece s and ancient China s intellectual developments It provides a special historical sociological theoretical model allowing the exploration of how and why Greece s and China s developments followed two different trajectories This model allows a superior explanation of this phenomenon than previous studies which all employ the outdated methodology of mono causal determinism This work takes the critique of Eurocentric views in comparative studies pioneered by Joseph Needham in Science and Civilization in China to a new level of excellence because in addition to presenting new empirical findings and dispelling previous misunderstandings it also provides a sophisticated theoretical analysis It will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of comparative intellectual studies sinology historical sociology classics and intellectual history
