Bureau of Naval Personnel,1948 Historical Dictionary of the Korean War Paul M. Edwards,2010-06-10 The Korean War has often been regarded as a forgotten war although that is certainly unfair. It was if anything a rather crucial war within the ambit of the Cold War started by North Korea in 1950 and although the bulk of the fighting was over by 1954 peace has never been concluded and the two sides still face off over the demilitarized zone. On the other side of the zone is South Korea which has since become a very prosperous and democratic country while North Korea has achieved relatively little. So that war is certainly not forgotten by the Koreans. And given the large number of deaths and casualties it is still remembered by many in the United States and other allies as well as China and the Soviet Union. This Historical Dictionary of the Korean War now in its second edition does much to jolt our memory and inform us about the war. This is done first in a lengthy chronology tracking the war but also the path to war and what happened after. The introduction covers the war as a whole trying to make sense of it. The dictionary section provides all of the necessary details on significant persons, places and events, battles and other engagements, military units and material as well as the political, economic and social background. There are also maps and a list of acronyms. This is really the ideal source for information in addition to which it also has an extensive bibliography.

The Korean War Paul Edwards, 2003-01-09. This historical dictionary of the Korean War is designed to provide brief but helpful information about all aspects of the war including units involved, the United Nations' political and military actions, significant sites and operations, and weapons use.

U.S. Leadership in Wartime Spencer C. Tucker, 2009-09-10. A historical study of the relationship between civilian and military leaders in the United States during wartime from the American Revolution to the Iraq War. Now from one of the world's leading publishers of military history comes a breakthrough reference on one of the most important and complex aspects of U.S. national defense. U.S. Leadership in Wartime: Clashes, Controversy, and Compromise offers a comprehensive analysis of the characteristics that constitute effective leadership in war and discusses the often contentious relationships between U.S. civilian and military leadership throughout American history. U.S. Leadership in Wartime focuses on ten conflicts including the Revolutionary War, the Civil War, World Wars I and II, the Vietnam War, the Iraq War, and the war in Afghanistan. Coverage for each conflict focuses on the dynamics of civilian-military relations and their impact on the course, outcome, and perception of each war under discussion. Coverage in each chapter includes an overview essay, sidebars, and detailed treatments of key engagements and battles as well as detailed biographical essays of important figures, not just politicians and generals but also labor leaders, business leaders, journalists, and women.

Party Autonomy in Contractual Choice of Law in China Jieying Liang, 2018-03-22. The principle of party autonomy in contractual choice of law is widely recognised in the law of most jurisdictions. It has been more than 30 years since party autonomy was first accepted in Chinese private international law. However, the legal rules provided in legislation and judicial interpretations concerning the application of the party autonomy principle are abstract and open-ended. Without a critical understanding of the party autonomy principle and appropriate interpretations of the relevant legal rules, judges have not exercised their discretionary power appropriately. The party autonomy principle has been applied in a way that undermines its very purpose that is to protect the legitimate expectations of the parties and promote the predictability of outcomes in transnational commercial litigation Jieying Liang addresses the question of how when and with what limitations parties choice of law clauses in an international commercial contract should be enforced by Chinese courts
