some of the most turbulent years of the company's existence      Forty Years with Ford Tractors David Pearson, 2019-10-01 David Pearson spent more than four decades working for Ford's tractor business starting on the production line at the maker's Dagenham factory before moving to the Basildon tractor plant opened in 1964. He went on to become the maker's UK sales manager and earned a reputation among farmers and dealers as the man who knew all there was to know about Ford tractors. Along the way he was involved in the development of some of the most famous machines to bear the blue livery from the Dexta to the 7000 and the FW articulated tractors to the 7810. Edited by agricultural journalist Martin Rickatson, Forty Years with Ford Tractors builds on a series of recollections which originally featured in Classic Tractor magazine and includes additional material to tell David's fascinating story in full. It includes a comprehensive selection of black and white and colour photographs many of which have never before been published and will be of interest to all Ford fans and tractor fans more generally. Trucker Dennis Richardson Rich revels in the laughs and camaraderie of his life on the road. He sets up a transport company North Kent with two pals. Benny is the one with the short fuse. Rich tries to calm him down when he's not winding him up. The irrepressible Chuckles has his own way of dealing with tachographs and then there's the indispensable Jean, the rock on which they rest. The determined team go through humorous and sometimes extreme exploits as they strive to stay afloat. They run legal when they can and cut corners when necessary, gambling on the new Scandinavian trucks that are changing the industry. They are cheated out of their earnings but still come up smiling.      Not All Sunshine and Sand: The Tales of a UK-Middle East Truck Driver Paul Rowlands, 2016-08-19 Recounting his many hair-raising experiences as a truck driver on the Middle East run, some of them humorous, some alarming, Paul Rowlands recalls the camaraderie of the trucking fraternity. This book takes the reader on a ride through foreign lands in the cab of a long-haul lorry, providing an insider's perspective on overland travel. A tremendous tale in which run-ins with the locals, dramatic encounters with foreign drivers and mechanical problems seem the norm for a long-haul lorry driver. Paul Rowlands takes us into his world as a truck driver initially around rural Suffolk and the rest of the UK before embarking on the Middle East run. The long-distance lorry driver deals with life in the raw with many hardships and occasional comforts. Difficulties are tempered by the sheer beauty of mountain passes, lakeside stops and the generous hospitality of the people he meets. Trucking camaraderie has seen Paul through many a crisis and he shares the belief that help is always at hand when a fellow driver is facing a problem. The new edition of this hugely popular book incorporates 72 photographs taken at the time many of which have never been previously published.
