Mastro Titta Italian Edition:

The Oxford Edition of Charles Dickens: Pictures from Italy, 2024-10-25 The Oxford Dickens edition of Pictures from Italy puts the spotlight on Dickens's little book describing his travels through Italy in 1844 and 1845. Throughout Dickens offers his withering reviews of Italian masterpieces, his staunch criticism of Catholicism in Rome, tempered with a genuine love and admiration for the people of Italy and the country's rich cultural heritage. This is the first full critical edition of the work with detailed research outlining its composition and form and comparisons made between all editions produced during Dickens's lifetime. First written as personal letters, then printed as newspaper correspondence, then reshaped once more into a single book, the evolution of Pictures from Italy provides a fascinating insight into Dickens's creative and editorial process. Pete Orford's introduction puts the work under the microscope to track the changes made across these several iterations and uncover the story of its genesis and development. Analysis of the few remaining manuscript pages and Orford's own travels through Italy help to unpick several mysteries of the text. Previous editions of the work have been for general readership with critical essays that focus on the time Dickens spent in Italy, 1844-5. This edition offers a different approach, supplementing this familiar story with the lesser-discussed period of 1846 when Dickens, back in London, first turns his various letters into newspaper correspondence, then a monograph whilst battling the pressures of launching a daily newspaper and planning a new novel. Dickens's time in Italy defines the content of the book, but it is his subsequent time in London which defines its shape and structure. This edition reproduces in situ the original illustrations provided by Samuel Palmer for the first edition of 1846, with further illustrations provided for subsequent editions contained in the appendices. Piedmont and Italy, from the Alps to the Tiber, illustrated in a series of views taken on the spot: with a descriptive and historical narrative Dudley Costello, 1861

Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2008-09-29 The Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema provides a better understanding of the role Italian cinema has played in film history through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, appendixes, black and white photos, and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on actors, actresses, movies, producers, organizations, awards, film credits, and terminology.

Italian Prisons in the Age of Positivism, 1861-1914 Mary Gibson, 2019-07-11 During a period dominated by the biological determinism of Cesare Lombroso, Italy constructed a new prison system that sought to reconcile criminology with nation building and new definitions of citizenship. Italian Prisons in the Age of Positivism, 1861-1914 examines this second wave of global prison reform between Italian Unification and World War I, providing fascinating insights into the relationship between changing modes of punishment and the development of the modern Italian state. Mary Gibson focuses on the correlation between the birth of the prison and the establishment of a liberal government, showing how rehabilitation through work in humanitarian conditions played a key role in the development of a new secular national identity. She also highlights the importance of age and gender for constructing a nuanced chronology of the birth of the prison, demonstrating that whilst imprisonment emerged first as a punishment for women and children they were often denied negative rights such as equality in penal law and the right to a secular form of punishment Employing a wealth of hitherto neglected primary sources such as yearly prison statistics this cutting edge study also provides glimpses into the everyday life of inmates in both the new capital of Rome and the nation as a whole Italian Prisons in the Age of Positivism 1861 1914 is a vital study for understanding the birth of the prison in modern Italy and beyond Lonely Planet Italy Lonely Planet, The A to Z of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2009-10-12 The Italian cinema is regarded as one of the great pillars of world cinema Films like Ladri di biciclette 1948 La dolce vita 1960 and Nuovo cinema Paradiso 1988 attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation which only continue to grow Italian cinema has produced such acting legends as Sophia Loren and Roberto Benigni as well as world renowned filmmakers like Federico Fellini Sergio Leone Mario Bava Dario Argento and Lina Wertmüller the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award The A to Z of Italian Cinema provides a better understanding of the role Italian cinema has played in film history through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology Tiber Bruce Ware Allen, 2019 A natural and social history of the great river of Rome
