The History of Music Production Richard James Burgess, 2014 The History of Music Production offers an authoritative concise and accessible overview of nearly 140 years of production of recorded music It describes what role the music producer has played in shaping the creation perception propagation business and use of music and discusses the future of the music production industry

The Chinese Constitution of Central Asia N. Godehardt, 2014-03-21 China's commitments in Central Asia illustrate how regional foreign policy works and how long standing principles of Chinese foreign policy might be revised in the near future China's rise has moved Asia which is why it seems that what we have traditionally regarded as the geographic and political scope of Asia might actually considerably change in the near future Nadine Godehardt gives crucial insights into the Chinese expert discourse on Central Asia analyzing how Chinese experts define Central Asia when they talk and write about policy issues related to China's immediate Western neighbourhood In this context she gives an inside perspective on Chinese voices whose meanings are rarely examined in Chinese International Relations studies

Islamic Development in Palestine Stephen Royle, 2016-10-04 This book assesses the capabilities of an Islamic approach in aiding self organisation by examining the case of the occupied Palestinian territories in conjunction with a comparative analysis of four other nations Three main mechanisms of Islamic development are explored finance microfinance and charity Identifying the need to recognise the non linear nature of societal interaction at the individual community and state levels the book uses complexity theory to better understand development It assesses the role of Islamic development at macro and micro levels and identifies issues with rigid and hierarchical policy making

The World-Literary System and the Atlantic SORCHA GUNNE, Neil Lazarus, 2020-12-30 The World Literary System and the Atlantic grapples with key questions about how American studies and the Atlantic region in general engages with new considerations of literary comparativism international literary space and the world literary system The edited collection furthers these discussions by placing them into a relationship with the theory of combined and uneven development a theory that has a long pedigree in Marxist sociology and political economy and that continues to stimulate debate across the social sciences but whose implications for culture have received less attention Drawing on the comparative modes concepts and methods being developed in the new world literary studies the essays cover a diverse range of topics such as the periodization of world literature racism and the world system singular modernity critical realism commodity frontiers semi peripherality and world ecology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Atlantic Studies

Fluid Modernity Gilberto Conde, 2022-10-31 Fluid Modernity offers an innovative encompassing historical grasp of the politics of water in the Middle East in the context of modern capitalism and world politics Drawing upon conceptions of power by Foucault and Agamben it examines how water through its modern capitalist production is transformed into a water apparatus that binds people to power In trans boundary watercourses states get involved in the formation of international governmentalities The book revisits the history of fluid modernity in the Middle East from late Ottoman times to the present. It focuses on water conflict and cooperation between states Israel and Arab states and Turkey Syria and Iraq on state policies towards subaltern subjects Israel and Turkey in relation to Palestinians and Kurds respectively and on the water politics of rebellious movements. After a conceptual chapter discussing fluid modernity the book traces water politics in the region in a diachronic perspective. It explores how water diplomacy infrastructure loans reservoir construction discourses of sovereignty and conflict have weighed on the development of governance and governmentality in the region. Fluid Modernity will be of great interest to postgraduates researchers academics and intellectuals interested in Middle East Studies Hydropolitics Water and Society Geopolitics Political Theory Resistance as well as to NGOs dealing with water.

Geopolitics and Development Marcus Power, 2019-01-25 Geopolitics and Development examines the historical emergence of development as a form of governmentality from the end of empire to the Cold War and the War on Terror. It illustrates the various ways in which the meanings and relations of development as a discourse an apparatus and an aspiration have been geopolitically imagined and enframed. The book traces some of the multiple historical associations between development and diplomacy and seeks to underline the centrality of questions of territory security statehood and sovereignty to the pursuit of development along with its enrolment in various bordering practices. In making a case for greater attention to the evolving nexus between geopolitics and development and with particular reference to Africa the book explores the historical and contemporary geopolitics of foreign aid the interconnections between development and counterinsurgency the role of the state and social movements in reimagining development the rise of re-emerging donors like China India and Brazil and the growing significance of South-South flows of investment trade and development cooperation. Drawing on postcolonial and postdevelopment approaches and on some of the author's own original empirical research this is an essential critical and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex and dynamic political geographies of global development. Primarily intended for scholars and postgraduate students in development studies human geography African studies and international relations this book provides an engaging invaluable and up-to-date resource for making sense of the complex entanglement between geopolitics and development past and present.

Innovations in Urban and Regional Systems Jean-Claude Thill, 2020-05-11 This book presents cutting-edge research on urban and regional systems applying modern spatial analytical techniques of Geographic Information Science Technologies GIS T spatial statistics and location modeling. The contributions written by leading scholars from around the globe adopt a spatially explicit analytical perspective and highlight methodological innovations and substantive breakthroughs on many facets of the socioeconomic and environmental reality of urban and regional contexts. The book is divided into three parts. The first part offers an introduction to the research field while the second part discusses critical issues in urban growth and urban management presenting case studies on city and urban environments their growth data infrastructures and spatial and management issues. The third part then broadens the analysis to the regional scale addressing growth convergence and adaptation to new economic and information based realities This book appeals to scholars of spatial and regional sciences as well as to policy decision makers interested in advanced methods of spatial analysis location modeling and GIS T Survival October-November 2020: Pandemics and politics The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS),2023-04-21 Survival the IISS s bimonthly journal challenges conventional wisdom and brings fresh often controversial perspectives on strategic issues of the moment In this issue Adam Roberts explores pandemics and politics through the ages arguing that trust in leadership is essential in the struggle against infectious diseases Rebecca Barber and Sarah Teitt contend that ASEAN should take a more activist approach to the Rohingya crisis to salvage its credibility Greg Austin assesses the strategic implications of China s weak cyber defences ystein Tunsj casts doubt on the prospect of the Arctic becoming a theatre of great power conflict And eight more thought provoking pieces as well as our regular book reviews and Noteworthy column

Fabricating Lureland Julia Winckler,2021-12-06 Through the analysis of surviving archival traces this book constructs a history of the imagination and memory of the town of Peacehaven Built as a speculative development atop iconic chalk cliffs on the Sussex Coast and marketed as a garden city by the sea the estate quickly attracted adverse publicity Influential voices such as the Bloomsbury group s Virginia and Leonard Woolf architect and writer Clough Williams Ellis and the Campaign for the Protection of Rural England soon began to criticise it as a blot on the rolling pastoral downland Instead of reading and appraising Peacehaven s story in a polarized way this book breaks new ground by critically interpreting visual representations and commissioned photographs of the Estate and re evaluating propositions from its inception which aspired to secure improved public health and home ownership in direct response to the negative impact of industrialization and WWI Focusing on the interwar period and tracing mutating agendas the book investigates contested marketing and construction narratives through Histoire Crois e methodology and its intercrossings with memory and the imagination By combining visual and creative research methods with oral history multi layered narratives of place come into focus The study tracks the visual programme of the developer s in house magazine Peacehaven Post alongside previously underexplored blueprints photographs postcards and promotional guidebooks and considers the garden city narrative as a form of social Utopia Garden city ideals are once again evoked in debates as a potential solution to the ongoing national housing shortage giving this research additional urgency as new large scale redevelopment erases many of the few and fast disappearing original landmarks

The European Union and the Geopolitics of the Arctic Andreas Raspotnik,2018-01-26 The Arctic is a region that has seen exponential growth as a space of geopolitical interest over the past decade This insightful book is the first to analyse the European Union s Arctic policy endeavours of the early 21st Century from a critical geopolitical perspective
