

Thornton Active Adult Board

The purpose of the Thornton Active Adult Board is to promote and facilitate communications between the Board and City Council in matters impacting the needs and interest of citizens 55 years of age and older, and to better assist the City Council in being responsive and well advised as to issues of particular relevancy to active adults. The Board makes recommendations for the most appropriate and beneficial use of the Thornton Active Adult Center and how to improve and expand citywide services for active adults.

Board Membership and Qualifications

The Board consists of 11 members appointed by City Council, with representation from each ward, the business community, one member recommended by the 55+ Organization, Inc., one member recommended by the Mayor, and four members appointed at large. Nine of the members must be 55 years of age at the time of the appointment. The Thornton Active Adult Board meets the third Wednesday of January, April, and October at 1:30 p.m. and the third Wednesday of July at 4 p.m. at the Active Adult Center unless otherwise scheduled.

the defence the University mounted to preserve its open status in the face of the challenges posed by the Nationalist Government The University's institutional autonomy is highlighted by Yunus Ballim in his preface to the centenary edition of WITS The Open Years He writes The emerging posture of a university willing to rise in defence of academic freedom was important because this was to become infused into the institutional culture of Wits The book looks at the University's role in South Africa's war effort its contribution to the education of ex volunteers after the war its leading role in training job seeking professionals required by a rapidly expanding economy and the rise of research and postgraduate study Students feature prominently through their political activities the flourishing of a student intelligentsia the heyday of the Remember and Give Rag parade rugby intervarsity and the stunning success of Wits sportsmen and women WITS The Open Years paints a vivid picture of the range of personalities who enlivened the campus among them some well known figures in the new South Africa The book includes chapters by Alf Stadler who was Professor of Political Studies at Wits and the author of The Political Economy of Modern South Africa and Jonty Winch former Sports Officer at Wits and the author of Wits Sport

Wilkie Collins, Medicine and the Gothic Laurence Talairach-Vielmas, 2009-09-01 This book examines how Wilkie Collins's interest in medical matters developed in his writing through exploration of his revisions of the late eighteenth century Gothic novel from his first sensation novels to his last novels of the 1880s Throughout his career Collins made changes in the prototypical Gothic scenario The aristocratic villains victimized maidens and medieval castles of classic Gothic tales were reworked and adapted to thrill his Victorian readership With the advances of neuroscience and the development of criminology as a significant backdrop to most of his novels Collins drew upon contemporary anxieties and increasingly used the medical to propel his criminal plots While the prototypical castles were turned into modern medical institutions his heroines no longer feared ghosts but the scientist's knife This study hence underlines the way in which Collins's Gothic revisions increasingly tackled medical questions using the medical terrain to capitalize on the readers fears It also demonstrates how Wilkie Collins's fiction reworks Gothic themes and presents them through the prism of contemporary scientific medical and psychological discourses from debates revolving around mental physiology to those dealing with heredity and transmission The book's structure is chronological covering a selection of texts in each chapter with a balance between discussion of the more canonical of Collins's texts such as The Woman in White The Moonstone and Armada and some of his more neglected writings
