Learn To Live 3 No Scoreboard Watching; The Book of Romans By Faith in Christ Alone William Reid,2019-07-15 We have learned to keep score on just about everything Therefore we unwittingly carry that same ethic over into our spiritual lives If we have to work hard and dedicate ourselves to achieving success then we end up thinking that we have to keep score on achieving righteousness Paul s emphasis is one that runs throughout the Bible we are losers and sinners All have sinned and come short of the glory of God We cannot lift ourselves by our own bootstraps Personal works and effort count for nothing It takes a while for this to get past our ego and pride Paul kept it simple righteousness is by faith in Jesus Christ alone No scoreboard watching

Taylor](#),2011-09-22 Paul offers believers the earliest written words we have about Jesus He ranks after Jesus himself as the premier interpreter of the good news No one explains it with more intellectual depth and earnestness than he That is why to penetrate the Apostle's mind as he writes about Jesus's saving value is not a simple task But Father Taylor offers here a clear and understandable commentary on his letters which is accessible to the layman and scholar alike The book reflective of the latest in Pauline scholarship is easy to read throughout and throws considerable light on what Paul has to say about Jesus born of a woman born under the Law and about the role his self emptying his Kenosis played in bringing about the world's salvation As an inspirational model Jesus shows in Paul the paradoxical nature of our life as human beings made in the image and likeness of God that it is in giving that we receive in pardoning that we are pardoned and in dying that we are born to eternal life Readers in their pursuit of Paul's understanding of Jesus will find in this volume on his letters his message and his heritage much that will be most helpful to them in their lives as Christians *Salvation by Jesus Christ alone ... agreeable to the rules of reason, and to the laws of justice. Over forty million people have left the church in the past twenty five years in the United States This is not merely people walking away from the faith Many Christians have dechurched as well The local church is seen as an optional club and gathering with other Christians is a sort of side issue in the real business of following Jesus This short book seeks to push against the cultural tide It musters together an argument biblically historically and practically on behalf of the church The church does not sit on the periphery of the Christian life it belongs smack dab in the center The church is our means of grace to corporate worship Christian fellowship and the Great Commission Read and reimagine what the church could look like going forward Brief and winsome this resource draws on Scripture pastoral experience and wisdom from the global church to present a thoughtful and practical argument intended to help readers understand the call upon the Christian to commit and serve the church
