In Other Words A Coursebook On Translation:

In Other Words Mona Baker, 2011-01-25 In Other Words is the definitive coursebook for anyone studying translation. Assuming no knowledge of foreign languages, it offers both a practical and theoretical guide to translation studies and provides an important foundation for training professional translators. Drawing on modern linguistic theory, this best-selling text provides a solid base to inform and guide the many key decisions trainee translators have to make. Each chapter offers an explanation of key concepts, identifies potential sources of translation difficulties related to those concepts, and illustrates various strategies for resolving these difficulties. Authentic examples of translated texts from a wide variety of languages are examined, and practical exercises and further reading are included at the end of each chapter. The second edition has been fully revised to reflect recent developments in the field, and new features include a new chapter that addresses issues of ethics and ideology in response to increased pressures on translators and interpreters to demonstrate accountability and awareness of the social impact of their decisions. Examples and exercises from new genres such as audiovisual translation, scientific translation, oral interpreting, website translation, and news media translation. New project-driven exercises designed to support MA dissertation work. Updated references and further reading. A companion website featuring further examples and tasks. Written by Mona Baker, a leading international figure in the field, this key text is the essential coursebook for any student of translation studies.

In Other Words Mona Baker, 2018 In Other Words Mona Baker, 2018-04-09 In Other Words has been the definitive coursebook for students studying translation for nearly three decades. Assuming no knowledge of foreign languages, it offers a practical guide based on extensive research in areas as varied as lexis, grammar, pragmatics, semiotics, and ethics. It thus provides a solid basis for training a new generation of well-informed critical students of translation. Drawing on linguistic theory and social semiotics, the third edition of this best-selling text guides trainee translators through the variety of decisions they will have to make throughout their career. Each chapter offers an explanation of key concepts, identifies potential sources of translation difficulties related to those concepts, and illustrates various strategies for resolving these difficulties. Authentic examples of translated texts from a wide variety of languages and genres are examined, and practical exercises and further reading are included at the end of each chapter. The third edition has been fully revised to reflect recent developments in the field and includes a new chapter that engages with the interplay between verbal and visual elements in genres as varied as children's literature, comics, film, poetry, and advertisements. This key text remains the essential coursebook for any student of translation studies.

In Other Words MONA. BAKER, Henry Jones, 2026-01-08 In Other Words, the definitive translation coursebook for three decades, offers practical guidance based on linguistic research. The fourth edition by Baker and Jones covers digital platforms, neural machine translation, and ethics of care for modern translation practice.

Text Typology and Translation Anna Trosborg, 1997-01-01 This book breaks new ground in translation theory and practice The central question is In what ways are translations affected by text types The two main areas of investigation are A What are the advantages of focusing on text types when trying to understand the process of translation How do translators tackle different text types in their daily practice B To what extent and in what areas are text types identical across languages and cultures What similarities and dissimilarities can be observed in text types of original and translated texts Part I deals with methodological aspects and offers a typology of translations both as product and as process Part II is devoted to domain specific texts in a cross cultural perspective while Part III is concerned with terminology and lexicon as well as the constraints of mode and medium involving dubbing and subtitling as translation methods Sonnets sagas fairy tales novels and feature films sermons political speeches international treaties instruction leaflets business letters academic lectures academic articles medical research articles technical brochures and legal documents are but some of the texts under investigation In sum this volume provides a theoretical overview of major problems and possibilities as well as investigations into a variety of text types with practical suggestions that deserve to be weighted by anyone considering the relation between text typology and translation The volume is indispensable for the translator in his her efforts to become a competent text aware professional

Bible Translating as a Loyal Activity Tobias J. Houston, 2025-04-15 How can Bible translations remain faithful to the original text while deeply respecting the cultural and religious contexts of their audiences This book introduces the concept of Loyal Bible Translation a nuanced framework inspired by the Hebrew concept of hesed sometimes translated as covenant loyalty and steadfast love Rooted in the idea of unswerving commitment this approach to Bible translation balances loyalty to the source text with loyalty toward the needs of its audience Drawing on modern translation studies and guided by the Beaded Necklace model this book weaves together historical cultural linguistic and religious dynamics to ensure Bible translations resonate authentically with their audiences while maintaining loyalty to the source text The author draws insights from his Majority World experience in Mozambique with this approach addressing the challenges of Bible translation among diverse audiences that are shaped by dominant faith traditions like Islam and in contexts characterized by orality By introducing the idea of the Translation Covenant it offers a hopeful and relational path forward in the complex art of Bible translation in the Majority World

Gender Representations in Commercials – Original and Translation Stavroula (Stave) Vergopoulou, 2024-07-26 Within the interdisciplinary framework of gender translation and advertising this study investigates gender representations of fictional characters in original and translated audiovisual advertisements Stavroula Stave Vergopoulou discusses various manifestations of sexism on verbal and or nonverbal levels She also explores the ways in which translators can reduce or mitigate linguistic sexism in advertising translation to foster

gender fair language use Her research draws on sociocultural linguistics and particularly on a social constructionist approach to gender identities The exploration of the relationship s of gender and advertising and the discussion of the key concept of translation form the theoretical basis for the empirical research work For this English and German commercials from 2017 to 2020 have been examined along with their English German and Greek target texts
