Chapter One Introduction

Purpose of the Study

The first part of the introduction should clearly state the purpose of the study.

There should be a concise statement of purpose provided in this section.

Statement of the Hypothesis or Research Question

A clear statement(s) that identifies the precise research question should be included. Each specific measurement to be conducted should be identified.

Significance of the Study

As part of the purpose of the study, there should be justification for conducting the project. This section should exhibit a clear understanding of what makes your study significant and why it should be conducted.

Definitions

A simple list of definitions of terms that directly pertain to this study should be provided. The list should include definitions of terms that might be unclear to the reader.

Delimitations, Limitations, and Assumptions

A brief statement identifying the delimitations, limitations, and assumptions associated with your study should be provided.

Delimitations – factors that were controlled by the researcher

Limitations – factors that were not under the control of the researcher

Assumptions – factors that the researcher assumes were taken into consideration.

Chapter Two Literature Review

The author should provide a breakdown of sub-topics influencing the processes of the research project. Each sub-topic should contain a thorough examination of the literature that influences or is representative of current research on that sub-topic. The literature review should collectively support the process and purpose of the study. A theoretical framework as applicable to the field of study may be included here.
