Integrating Technology in Nursing Education Kathleen Mastrian, 2011 Designed for nursing educators and students interested in the field of nursing education Integrating Technology in Nursing Education Tools for the Knowledge Era provides valuable easy to use strategies on incorporating technology into the classroom The text examines the increased role of technology in healthcare and its transformational impact on that field allowing nurses to understand current and future trends and thus integrate technology into nursing education in order to effectively prepare students for a new technologically driven healthcare environment Also featured are topics on learning theories the instructional design process changes in higher education and variations in learning environments Using case studies critical thinking exercises weblinks and more the text challenges nurses to think critically and formulate compelling teaching strategies Written by a renowned nursing educator instructional designer informaticist and simulation expert Integrating Technology in Nursing Education Tools for the Knowledge Era gives nurses the tools they need to step boldly into the technology era Computer-Assisted Language Learning: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-01-04 In a diverse society the ability to cross communication barriers is critical to the success of any individual personally professionally and academically With the constant acceleration of course programs and technology educators are continually being challenged to develop and implement creative methods for engaging English speaking and non English speaking learners Computer Assisted Language Learning Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is a vital reference source that examines the relationship between language education and technology and the potential for curriculum enhancements through the use of mobile technologies flipped instruction and language learning software This multi volume book is geared toward educators researchers academics linguists and upper level students seeking relevant research on the improvement of language education through the use of technology Theorizing Teaching and Learning in Asia and Europe John Chi-Kin Lee, Kerry J. Kennedy, 2017-03-27 There has been much debate in recent times between the Anglo American tradition of curriculum studies and the Continental and North European tradition of didactics Didaktik As important as such debate has been this book seeks to add new voices to the debate representing ideas and traditions from a different part of the world The focus is on Chinese curriculum thinking that has passed through a number of stages and currently represents a blend of some aspects of the American tradition and Chinese cultural traditions How does Chinese thinking about curriculum teaching and learning resonate with European didactic traditions and what are the implications for theorizing an expanded field of curriculum studies This book deliberately transcends borders and cultures to explore new territory to provide a platform for open dialogue and to open up new areas of investigation Chapters include Curriculum Reform and Research in China A Social Historical Perspective What Mathematics Did Teachers Learn Comparison of the School and the Pre Service Teacher Mathematics Curricula in Germany and Taiwan Living in Parallel Worlds A Transatlantic Dialogue between General Didactics and Instructional Design Instructional Design Bruce R. Ledford, Phillip J. Sleeman, 2001-04-01 The purpose of this book is to provide a superstructure within which one can design effective and efficient instruction a system in which predictable and validatable learning will occur a system in which one will be able to direct the learner s activities toward a mutual goal in an environment of positive relationships The purpose of this chapter is to provide an over view of the field of instructional technology with specific focus on instructional design The overview is eclectic it presents views commonly held by instructional designers that have been synthesized from the research and literature This book differs from most books on instructional design in that it describes a process that is internally consistent that is it embraces a specific approach which makes it possible and easier for the designer to achieve closure on a process Most books on instructional design describe several processes without adequately providing an opportunity for closure As a result many designers go away confused owning bits and pieces of a process that it is impossible or at least difficult to implement in a coherent fashion The 30-second Encyclopedia of Learning and Performance David H. Miles, 2003 Learning professionals may love those 500 page textbooks but they re not exactly light reading Trainers on the go crave a portable reference packed with bite sized self contained topics conveniently arranged for quick access and adaptable to a myriad of instructional situations They ll be thankful for The 30 Second Encyclopedia of Learning and Performance which presents hundreds of terms processes and methodologies in one place Readers can instantly locate any subject in the book then read the brief but thorough entry in 30 seconds to three minutes Or read Part One start to finish for an overview of the performance improvement process then dive back in as necessary The author lists additional books and online sources offers rapid histories of each subject s evolution and its noteworthy gurus and writes in refreshing plain English for rookies and experienced practitioners alike
