integrates legal historical and philosophical materials to illuminate the migration topic and to provide a novel theory of human rights Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2009 Fragmented State Power and Forced Migration Eeva Nykänen, 2012-06-14 The relative decline of state power and the increase in the significance of various non state actors is one of the greatest challenges faced by the legal framework for the international protection of refugees and other forced migrants over previous decades A large number of asylum seekers applying for protection in Europe and other industrialized states originate from countries where the state structure is weak if not non existent and where the threats faced by individuals stem primarily from actors other than the state authorities The legal framework for international protection which rests on a state centric paradigm is struggling with claims for protection arising from such situations Drawing extensively on international and European law international and national case law as well as academic writings this study analyzes the legal obligations that states have towards refugees and other forced migrants facing threats emanating from non state actors exploring the transformative possibilities embedded in the law in this respect Congressional Record , 2009-07-07 The

International Business Christian Campbell, 2023-06-12 The Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business published under the aegis of the Center for International Legal Studies Austria in this 44th volume aims to add to the contemporary discourse by exploring a wide array of challenges faced in the arena of business law It serves to provide insight to business law practitioners and academics on the latest developments The following topics have been discussed How uniformity of the treaties and conventions is compromised after they are subjected to the varied interpretation of domestic law How the contractual laws of different jurisdictions deal with situations such as global health crises The role of the World Trade Organization in enhancing the legitimacy of global economic governance within the scope of the trade laws How the concept of naked licensing in trademark law differs in the United States United Kingdom and India How the best effort clauses operate as a mechanism to deal with unenforceable obligations in pandemic like situations and how it is difficult to implement and comply with the same Whether PRIME Finance is the last link in the global governance of financial institutions on international law making or just a part of the social circle Whether mediation should be made compulsory for all commercial litigation cases or is it time for the new rendition of Halsey v Milton Keynes The legal challenges faced by the adoption of Insurtech in the Fintech Industry How the ex post mechanism of Corporate Insolvency and Bankruptcy laws differs with respect to the rights and position of creditors in the liquidation process in India and Germany How the Corporate Governance Code varies across different jurisdictions such as Mainland China Hong Kong South Korea Singapore Japan and Germany How the international investment law uncovers the inequalities between foreign investors and states developed and developing states and foreign and domestic investors The authors are practitioners and academics from Argentina Australia Belgium China Finland Germany Hong Kong India Singapore South Korea and the United Kingdom They provide a nuanced perspective on a large spectrum of issues witnessed in the arena of business laws

Migrants Before the Law Tobias G. Eule, Lisa Marie Borrelli, Annika Lindberg, Anna Wyss, 2018-11-19 This book traces the practices of migration control and its contestation in the European migration regime in times of intense politicization The collaboratively written work brings together the perspectives of state agents NGOs migrants with precarious legal status and their support networks collected through multi sited fieldwork in eight European states Austria Denmark Germany Italy Latvia Lithuania Sweden and Switzerland The book provides knowledge of how European migration law is implemented used and challenged by different actors and of how it lends and constrains power over migrants journeys and prospects An ethnography of law in action the book contributes to socio legal scholarship on migration control at the margins of the state This book is a major achievement A remarkable and insightful study that through close analysis of the practices of migration control in 8 European countries Austria Denmark Germany Italy Latvia Lithuania Sweden and Switzerland provides powerful new insight into the power of the state at its margins and over those that are marginalised Andrew Geddes Director Migration Policy Centre European University Institute Migrants Before the Law provides a much needed account of the dizzying legal labyrinth that migrants navigate as they seek to survive in Europe Based on multi sited ethnography in detention centres migration offices police stations and non governmental organizations as well as on interviews with key government actors advocates and migrants themselves this book explores the systems of control and forms of migrant precarity that operate along Europe s internal borders in multiple national and transnational contexts Readers will come away with a deepened understanding of the perverse workings of power the ways that the uncertainty and unpredictability of law foster both despair and hope the degree to which the immigration crisis is both manufactured and experienced as real and the ingenuity of migrants themselves in the face of Kafkaesque state practices Susan Bibler Coutin Professor of Criminology Law and Society and Anthropology University of California Irvine USA Migrants Before the Law is an excellent exposition of the dispersed sites of the law and the hinges and junctions through which this apparatus is actualized in the lives of migrants facing deportation contesting their status as illegal migrants or seeking to regularize their precarious position Written with great sensitivity and an eye to minute details this book is also an achievement in furthering the method of collaborative ethnography and new ways of staging comparisons Veena Das Krieger Eisenhower Professor of Anthropology Johns Hopkins University USA

The Europeanization of Citizenship Fiorella Dell'Olio, 2017-05-15 The connection between immigration and citizenship in Europe is an increasingly important issue This timely and informative book investigates three main aspects of the issue the degree to which European citizenship encourages the development of a European identity the impact of European citizenship at the nation state level in Italy and the UK in regard to domestic policy making in the areas of immigration and citizenship and what is needed to make a supranational citizenship work in practice Fiorella Dell'Olio examines changes in laws on citizenship nationality and immigration in Italy and the UK and assesses the relationship between the political conceptualization of European citizenship and the public response as revealed by opinion polls She argues that the establishment of a European citizenship has reinforced the ideology of nationality in both Italy and the UK and that it consequently has failed to forge a European identity

The Law of Humanity Project Ukri Soirila, 2021-07-15 This book provides the first comprehensive introduction to the role of humanity in international law offering a fresh perspective to a discussions with global implications The 1990s and the first decade of the twenty first century witnessed the sporadic emergence of a new vision of global law Although the vision has taken many different forms all instances of it have been uniform in the attempt of radically altering how we understand international law by seeking to posit the human as the primary subject of the international legal order and humanity as its main source of legitimacy Together this book calls these instances the law of humanity project In so doing it also paints a picture of and critically assesses a particular moment in the history of international law a moment which may have already come to a sudden end as a consequence of the current populist backlash in world politics but during which it seemed inevitable that the law of humanity vision would come to play an increasingly important role in world affairs
