Francois Berthoud Illustrations Joelle Chariau:

François Berthoud Joelle Chariau, 2015-10-25 François Berthoud is one of the most original fashion illustrators of the late 20th and early 21st century. More than drawing illustrations with pen or pencil, Berthoud likes to sculpt, scrape, scratch, and dig them out of different materials: wood, linoleum, pressed paper, celluloid film. Like a woodcut maker or a goldsmith, he creates matrixes in which he then transfers the figures he has sketched on paper, reducing them to the essential. Hailed by avant-garde designers for his elegant sense of detachment and a sharp sense of irony, Berthoud ennobles things that seem marginal: a glove, a scarf, a high heel, the tip of a boot, by turning them into archetypes. Informed by a visual culture rooted in conceptual art, he produces images of the female form that possess an exacting precision and are imbued with latent eroticism.

100 Years of Fashion Illustration Cally Blackman, 2007-04-19 Suitable for art and fashion professionals, this book offers an overview of the development of fashion.

Drawing Fashion Colin McDowell, Holly Brubach, 2010 This stunning survey reveals the genre of fashion drawing to be an art form in its own right. Drawing Fashion celebrates renowned art dealer Joelle Chariau's unique collection of some of the most remarkable fashion illustrations from the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. These original works define the fine art of illustrating fashion, from Poiret, Chanel, Balenciaga, and Dior to Comme des Garçons, McQueen, and Viktor Rolf. This catalogue, which accompanies the exhibition at the Design Museum in London, showcases fashion illustrators at their creative heights: Lepape at the beginning of the century, Bérard in the 1930s and Forties, Cecil Beaton in the Fifties, Antonio in the Sixties, to the Eighties and current artists Mats Gustafson, François Berthoud, and Aurore de La Morinerie. In their engaging and highly informative essays, Germany's Times Magazine journalist Holly Brubach and London Sunday Times chief fashion writer Colin McDowell reveal how the art of drawing fashion continues to reflect not only the spirit and style of the decades but also the wider social and cultural changes of the past century.

Stylishly Drawn Laird Borrelli, 2000-11 Showcases the work of 29 of the world's top fashion illustrators.

Schick und Schrill Isabella Belting, Wilhelm-Busch-Museum, 2008 This catalog volume focuses on the appearance and reality of fashion through three centuries. On the example of selected fashion artwork, it documents how humans present and define themselves through their clothing and how they are perceived in return. The illustrations also make clear that whoever follows fashion performs a delicate balancing act: mere nuances mark the distinction between stylish and garish.
