[Re]Gained in Translation, Volume 1-2 Sabine Dievenkorn, Shaul Levin, 2024-02-26 Volume 1 Translations of the Bible take place in the midst of tension between politics ideology and power With the theological authority of the book as God's Word not focusing on the process of translating is stating the obvious Inclinations fluency and zeitgeist play as serious a role as translators' person faith and worldview as do their vocabulary poetics and linguistic capacity History has seen countless retranslations of the Bible What are the considerations according to which Biblical retranslations are being produced in current 21st century contexts From retranslations of the Hebrew Bible to those of the Old and New Testaments to mutual influences of Christian and Jewish translational traditions the papers collected here all deal with the question of what is to be re gained with the production of a new translation where at times many a previous one has already existed Volume 2 Times are changing and with them the norms and notions of correctness Despite a wide spread belief that the Bible as a sacred original only allows one translation if any new translations are constantly produced and published for all kinds of audiences and purposes The various paradigms marked by the theological political and historical correctness of the time group and identity and bound to certain ethics and axiomatic norms are reflected in almost every current translation project Like its predecessor the current volume brings together scholars working at the intersection of Translation Studies Bible Studies and Theology all of which share a special point of interest concerning the status of the Scriptures as texts fundamentally based on the act of translation and its recurring character It aims to breathe new life into Bible translation studies unlock new perspectives and vistas of the field and present a bigger picture of how Bible re translation works in society today

English as a Medium of Instruction in Postcolonial Contexts Lizzi O. Milligan, Leon Tikly, 2018-10-16 Almost all low and middle income postcolonial countries now use English or another dominant language as the medium of instruction for some if not all of the basic education cycle Much of the literature about language in education in such countries has focused on the instrumentalist value of English on one side and the rights of learners to high quality mother tongue based education on the other The polarised nature of the debate has tended to leave issues related to the processes of learning in English as a Medium Instruction EMI classrooms under researched This book aims to provide a greater understanding of the existing challenges for learners and educators and potential strategies that can support more effective teaching and learning in EMI classrooms Contributions illustrate the impact that learning in English has on learners in a range of regional national and local contexts and put forward theoretical and empirical analyses to support more relevant and inclusive educational policies This volume was originally published as a special issue of Comparative Education

Names Fashioned by Gender Thenjiwe Meyiwa,Madoda Cekiso,2023-12-01 Names are very powerful and significant especially in the African context Across societies there is a universal albeit taken for granted fact that all human beings have names Names Fashioned by Gender is a collection of essays on onomastics a linguistics field of study focusing on the origin form history and use of proper names The study of naming potentially provides significant evidence about the role of gender in the assimilation and or enculturation processes as personal names evoke insight into the construction of gender and personhood in African societies The book takes intellectual course from the idea that how names are viewed and used is heavily context dependent and gendered It demonstrates that personal names are narratives derived from different contexts within various cultures and circumstances subsequently imposing different identities on name bearers Through persuasive essays this book elucidates that naming is an activity that needs to be conducted cautiously because names tend to determine the destiny and character of an individual Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa

Grade 1setswana Mid Year Sample : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Grade 1setswana Mid Year Sample : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Grade 1setswana Mid Year Sample : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
