Runways & Racers Terry O'Neil, 2011 Runways and Racers focuses on sports car races held at military installations throughout America in the early 1950s. It was a marriage of convenience for the Sports Car Club of America and the Strategic Air Command, with both parties gaining advantages from the arrangement. It logs the financial and personal cost of racing in the prewar and postwar periods. It tells of how the mighty car company Renault became involved with them in the late 1950s and how Amédée Gordini became known throughout the world as one of the greatest engine tuners of his time.

Vincent Motorcycles Philippe Guyony, Very few motorcycles have carved a mark in history like the Vincent V-twin from its arrival in 1946 and up to the present day. On the road, in club racing, in drag races or competing for land speed records, it dominated the motorcycle world, leading to the famous catchphrase coined by the factory: The World's Fastest Standard Motorcycle. It was a FACT, NOT a slogan. Images such as that of Rollie Free in swimming trunks laying flat on his works modified Black Shadow and taking the American motorcycle land speed record at Bonneville in 1948 have now passed into posterity. In fact, the big Vincent was so ahead of its time that it continued to compete successfully, almost arrogantly, in racing until the mid 1970s against modern bikes. No other motorcycle in the world can claim this kind of achievement. Following the premature ending of Vincent.

production Fritz Egli's 1967 Egli Vincent was the first chassis completely redesigned for a Vincent in 21 years Egli's machine inspired numerous builders for several generations and this book traces holistically the story of all those motorcycles in the broad context of the classic and modern history of the Vincent Understand how the flame of passion still burns brightly today
