The Humble Essay Roy K. Humble, 2023-04-01 The Humble Essay is so much more than a writing textbook It gives you tools tips and tricks that actually explain what a writer does It doesn't sugarcoat the process or dumb down the very real challenges that entering a college writing space requires This book is more like a friend It's the kind of friend that will coach you through a tough time and encourage you and it will make you laugh while you go through it It's the kind of friend who holds your hair back when you're sick of writing and gives you the courage to try again Roy K Humble is the kind of writing teacher who understands the struggle of learning how to write like a college student and doesn't just tell you what you want to hear His lessons here are profound but in the sense that they are delivered by someone who wants you to feel included in the conversation about what good college writing should be He writes to students in language they can understand without becoming English majors and with just enough humor to keep them reading He writes for faculty moving step by step through the unadorned guiding principles of effective formal writing so that faculty have a great framework on which to build their classes Perhaps most importantly Humble understands that the price of a book matters to students so his books are affordable From every perspective Humble gets it The Humble Essay has students covered on these important topics Understanding the college essay as an idea Grasping the stages of the writing process Organizing the college essay around cohesive paragraphs Thinking for yourself as a college student Gathering and synthesizing sources and information Guiding readers through a thoughtful college essay

A Rhetoric of Reflection Kathleen Yancey, 2016-08-15 Reflection in writing studies is now entering a third generation Dating from the 1970s the first generation of reflection focused on identifying and describing internal cognitive processes assumed to be part of composing The second generation operating in both classroom and assessment scenes in the 1990s developed mechanisms for externalizing reflection making it visible and thus explicitly available to help writers Now a third generation of work in reflection is emerging As mapped by the contributors to A Rhetoric of Reflection this iteration of research and practice is taking up new questions in new sites of activity and with new theories It comprises attention to transfer of writing knowledge and practice teaching and assessment portfolios linguistic and cultural difference and various media including print and digital It conceptualizes conversation as a primary reflective medium both inside and outside the classroom and for individuals and collectives and articulates the role that different genres play in hosting reflection Perhaps most important in the work of this third generation is the identification and increasing appreciation of the epistemic value of reflection of its ability to help make new meanings and of its rhetorical power for both scholars and students Contributors Anne Beaufort Kara Taczak Liane Robertson Michael Neal Heather Ostman Cathy Leaker Bruce Horner Asao B Inoue Tyler Richmond J Elizabeth Clark Naomi Silver Christina Russell McDonald Pamela Flash Kevin Roozen Jeff Sommers Doug Hesse
