Research Writing Rewired Dawn Reed,Troy Hicks,2015-10-22 Our students are online constantly and yet research shows that only half of teachers say digital tools make writing instruction easier Research Writing Rewired seeks to turn that statistic upside down Or rather upside right If we want to ready students for a globalized world 100% of teachers ought to consider technology an asset to any kind of writing assert authors Dawn Reed and Troy Hicks But the main wiring still has to be the ELA standards and the essential questions at the heart of each content area To that end the authors show you how to use digital tools within a multi week inquiry unit to increase students engagement as they write to learn and share knowledge Their book a clear model for tech rich research writing that will inform your own inquiry driven units Guiding components include An inquiry based technology rich unit on identity and culture that provides learners with opportunities to engage with the very same issues that are written about and discussed by citizens of a global society 28 model lessons and a framework including extensions tech tips and activities that blend print image apps and video so students build multi literacy skills day by day Recurring use of best practices like formative assessment close reading think alouds and teaching key skills including analyzing and synthesizing annotating checking credibility of sources discussion and writing about reading Dozens of lessons and activities built around students favorite technology tools and online destinations including Citelighter Smore ThingLink Padlet and Cazles Animoto Mural ly and getLoupe Genius and Lit Genius Now Comment You Voices QR codes that take you to video clips on a companion website so you can see the teaching techniques and digital tools in action It s up to us to make the digital learning in school a lot more like the digital learning we all do in life Research Writing Rewired shows us how to channel students passion for digital communication into meeting ELA goals Plurilingual Pedagogies for

Multilingual Writing Classrooms Kay M. Losey,Gail Shuck,2021-12-29 A much needed resource on plurilingual pedagogies this book counters the common dominant English only approach found in writing and composition classrooms by identifying practices and pedagogies that support multilingual students Providing a window into a range of contexts and classrooms where students full identities are honored contributors offer research grounded strategies and pedagogies that allow students to harness all of their language resources in order to build on their strengths and develop their writing abilities The specific examples in this book drawn from high school and college writing contexts demonstrate the value of embracing linguistic diversity in writing programs Presenting a wide range of models and strategies from top scholars that center students linguistic repertoires as strengths the volume addresses classroom teaching assessment curriculum school administration and more all from an asset based orientation This book is ideal for courses in composition and second language writing pedagogy as well as for students scholars and educators in second language writing language and literacy education and composition studies

Writing as a Learning Activity Perry Klein,Pietro Boscolo,Lori Kirkpatrick,Carmen Gelati,2014-04-10 Writing as a learning activity offers an account of the potentials of writing as a tool for learning Four aspects of writing emerge particularly clearly through the chapters First writing to learn depends on the cognitive strategies of the writer instruction in such strategies contributes significantly to the ability to use writing as a learning tool Secondly strategies for writing and reasoning are largely specific to academic disciplines Thirdly writing is not as traditionally conceived only an individual ability but also an activity that is social It is a collaborative practice facilitated by representational tools books computer notes schemata drawings etc by which knowledge is acquired organized and transformed at various levels of complexity Fourthly writing is a productive activity exemplified by the varied and positive effects of writing on learning different subjects at various educational levels

Writing across Contexts Kathleen Blake Yancy,Liane Robertson,Kara Tacsak,2014-04-15 Addressing how composers transfer both knowledge about and practices of writing Writing across Contexts explores the grounding theory behind a specific composition curriculum called Teaching for Transfer TFT and analyzes the efficacy of the approach Finding that TFT courses aid students in transfer in ways that other kinds of composition courses do not the authors demonstrate that the content of this curriculum including its reflective practice provides a unique set of resources for students to call on and repurpose for new writing tasks The authors provide a brief historical review give attention to current curricular efforts designed to promote such transfer and develop new insights into the role of prior knowledge in students ability to transfer writing knowledge and practice presenting three models of how students respond to and use new knowledge assemblage remix and critical incident A timely and significant contribution to the field Writing across Contexts will be of interest to graduate students composition scholars WAC and writing in the disciplines scholars and writing program administrators
