Introduction to gender-sensitive social protection programming to combat rural poverty: Why is it important and what does it mean? – FAO Technical Guide 1 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2018-11-01 Many social protection programmes including cash transfers public works programmes and asset transfers target women as main beneficiaries or recipients of benefits Extending social protection to rural populations has great potential for fostering rural women's economic empowerment. However, to tap into this potential more needs to be done. There is much scope for making social protection policies and programmes more gender sensitive and for better aligning them with agricultural and rural development policies to help address gender inequalities. Recognizing this potential and capitalizing on existing evidence, FAO seeks to enhance the contribution of social protection to gender equality and women's empowerment by providing country level support through capacity development, knowledge generation and programme support. To move forward this agenda, FAO has developed the Technical Guidance Toolkit on Gender sensitive Social Protection Programmes to Combat Rural Poverty and Hunger. The Toolkit is designed to support SP and gender policy makers and practitioners in their efforts to systematically apply a gender lens to SP programmes in ways that are in line with global agreements and FAO commitments to expand inclusive SP systems for rural populations. The Toolkit focuses on the role of SP in reducing gendered social inequalities and rural poverty and hunger.

Global report on infection prevention and control 2024 World Health Organization, 2024-11-28. This global report is an update of the previous edition issued in 2022 and provides a snapshot of the implementation of the WHO recommendations and standards aimed at making health care settings a safe environment through best practices in IPC including water sanitation and hygiene, WASH and waste management. It highlights the burden of health care associated infections, HAIs and antimicrobial resistance, AMR and the related harm to both patients and health workers in care settings. It presents also an updated global situation analysis of the implementation of IPC programmes at the national and health care facility levels including a focus on the WHO regions. Finally, it highlights recent landmark political and implementation documents which indicate directions, actions, indicators and targets for countries and the international IPC community to help them to progress in the implementation and improvement of IPC. The report is primarily aimed at those in charge of making decisions and formulating policies in the field of IPC at national, subnational and facility levels. This includes policy makers, senior managers, administrators who are managing health budgets and IPC focal points at national, ministry of health, public health institutes etc. subnational and health care facility levels.

Medical Family Therapy Jennifer Hodgson, Angela Lamson, Tai Mendenhall, D. Russell Crane, 2014-03-18. High praise to Hodgson, Lamson, Mendenhall and Crane and in creating a seminal work for systemic researchers, educators, supervisors, policy makers and financial experts in health care. The comprehensiveness and innovation explored by every author reflects an in-depth understanding that reveals true pioneers of integrated health care. Medical Family Therapy Advances in Application will lead the way for Medical Family Therapists in areas just now being acknowledged and explored. Tracy Todd PhD LMFT, Executive Director of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. Integrated interdisciplinary health care is growing in stature and gaining in numbers. Systems and payers are facilitating it. Patients and providers are benefitting from it. Research is supporting it and policymakers are demanding it. The emerging field of Medical Family Therapy, MedFT, is contributing greatly to these developments and Medical Family Therapy Advanced Applications examines its implementation in depth. Leading experts describe MedFT as it is practiced today, the continuum of services provided, the necessary competencies for practitioners, and the biological, psychological, social, and spiritual aspects of health that the specialty works to integrate. Data-rich chapters model core concepts such as the practitioner as scientist, the importance of context in health care settings, collaboration with families and communities, and the centrality of the relational perspective in treatment. And the book's wide spectrum coverage takes in research, training, financial, and policy issues among them: Preparing MedFTs for the multiple worlds of health care; Extending platforms on how to build relationships in integrated care; Offering a primer in program evaluation for MedFTs; Ensuring health equity in MedFT research; Identifying where policy and practice collide with ethics and integrated care; Recognizing the cost effectiveness of family therapy in health care. With its sophisticated insights into the current state and the future of healthcare reform, Medical Family Therapy Advanced Applications is essential reading for researchers and practitioners in the fields of clinical psychology, counseling, family therapy, healthcare policy, psychiatric nursing, psychiatry, public health, and social work.
