Kzn Nursing College Application Form Kzn:

African Nurse Pioneers in KwaZulu/Natal - 1920-2000 Mazo Sybil T. Buthelezi, 2004 This book is about seven African nurse pioneers in KwaZulu Natal from 1920 to 2000 The author captures the early nursing activities of the 1920s to 1970 and then moves to nurses that entered the health services in the 1950s The author also presents two nurses that worked outside South Africa i e did their pioneering nursing in Saudi Arabia and the United States of America The author does not scoop nursing out of its context but creates a narrative that resonates in lived experiences in a world dominated by the Africanization of poverty the feminization of poverty globalization racism and xenophobia South African Medical Journal, 2000 Women's Mental Health Nazilla Khanlou, F. Beryl Pilkington, 2015-07-23 This book focuses on the social and societal context of women's mental health Drawing from multidisciplinary perspectives and scholarship it pays particular attention to how women's mental health is experienced at the personal level yet it is influenced by their relationships and interacts with the larger societal context such as prevailing gender equality policies income distribution role burden peace and security Specific attention is given to the positive aspects of women's mental health such as agency resilience and how women's personal relations across diverse domains such as family work neighbourhoods are constructed and influenced by and in turn influence broader societal structures policies opportunities A unique feature of this book is that at the end of each chapter there is a Response section written by a non academic such as a community member practitioner or policy maker in which the invited authors respond to the chapter texts in the form of narrative poetry and or prose according to their various backgrounds interests and experiences Pace, 1996 Index Medicus, 2004 Vols for 1963 include as pt 2 of the Jan issue Medical subject headings Disability Studies Dan Goodley, 2024-11-01 What if disability isn't a problem but a resource This updated edition of a classic text in the field of disability studies interrogates the commonly held view that disability is something that needs to be cured or eradicated It shows us how disability can challenge our thinking and help us to imagine a more socially just society offering an engaging introduction to a diverse and globally expanding subject Taking an interdisciplinary approach this text will be of interest to undergraduates graduates and researchers across the social sciences Making the case that disability is much more than just impairment this book uncovers the ways in which disabled people are challenging discrimination and marginalisation Ranging across topics such as health activism and education this book asks questions about the ways in which society tends to understand disability and offers alternative explanations that are more exciting radical and transformative A Bold Profession Leslie Anne Hadfield, 2021-05-11 In rural South African clinics Black nurses were charged with administering life saving health care measures despite a lack of equipment and personnel often while navigating the intersections of traditional African healing practices and changing gender relations A Bold Profession is an homage to their dedication to the well being of their communities Land and Lives Elza Miles, 1997 Land and Lives is the story of pioneer Black artists born in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries up to 1930 in a pre industrial southern Africa This books is divided into two sections Section One Breaking Ground consists of three chapters and looks at the work of those artists who had very little or no schooling in art making but who expressed themselves adequately in drawings paintings sculptures and environmental works of art Section Two Emerging Independence examines the art and lives of those artists who received adequate art training and who had access to fellow artists of professional standing as well as art galleries and books Whereas the African artist always gives the recognition to the older white artists from whose knowledge he benefits the opposite has not been documented Report ,2003 Gardeners' Chronicle ,1955
