Matriarchy Redux The Ins And Outs:

Matriarchy Redux Dov Ivry, 2014-12-29 These are excerpts from the beginning I write books on the Matriarchal Revolution This is my sixth non fiction on that topic It is actually the companion to the fifth book Matriarchy Redux Off The Deep End My thesis is that the wrong sex is running the planet running it into the ground actually and that has to be changed This will take a revolution It won t happen today or tomorrow or for a very long time but if you don t start talking about it it won t happen at all Of the two sexes woman is the only one with a track record of success having brought us from the caves to civilization singlehandedly without violence They ll display the same level of managerial competence in the future New types of societies require new types of people It s a chicken and egg situation but I think it is clear that the egg comes first the stimulus This has happened time and again throughout history Lewis Mumford The human personality may produce an effect out of all proportion to its physical powers just as a tiny seed crystal dropped into a saturate solution may cause the whole mass to assume a similar crystalline form This casts a further light on the means by which a new type of personality Confucian Buddhist Christian Mohammedan Marxist gathers to itself sufficient powers to overcome the normal resistances to wholesale change that every society exhibits At moments of crises where the roads to disintegration or to development separate as on a watershed a single decisive personality or a small group of informed and purposeful men may by a slight push determine the direction and movement of an otherwise uncontrollable mass of conflicting social forces At such moments not a single institution or group but a whole society will be involved in a change far beyond its ordinary capacities for adaptation The point to observe is that what science calls nature or the external world is partly a projection of the human personality Instead of beginning with the nature and eliminating as far as possible the operations of the personality we must begin with the human personality Since the type of people who will make the Matriarchal Revolution do not yet exist I am really writing for no one in particular among the living But that too is par for the course in this kind of enterprise Thomas Carlyle Every new opinion at its starting is precisely a minority of one In one man s head alone there it dwells as yet In promoting revolution you are very much like the guy who sold Jack seeds for a magic beanstalk in return for his cow except that you are not asking anyone for his cow and you can t prove that the seeds will grow the magic beanstalk Leaving aside national uprisings and rebellions of that sort in most cases those promoting fundamental change in society out of the blue are offering rewards to the individual such as a chance to get rich quick or an extended life of ease in another galaxy Upheavals happen but the big picture doesn t change humanity continues its slide to oblivion The only honest offer I can make is the by now prosaic blood sweat and tears You have to appeal to rationality but the issues are anchored in the irrational and language doesn t go there Essentially all you can do with your seeds is pollinate even though you will never see what takes root But as we Canadians learn from a young age you can t score unless you shoot Committed Christians believing Muslims and Orthodox Jews should not proceed into my books on this subject Religion is the enemy and it is in the crosshairs

Matriarchy is based on mother right The society is built to revolve around the needs of mothers Feminism for the past half century has been focused on the slaughter of the unborn Feminists also have nothing to seek here They would not gain admittance to the matriarchal movement      Dixie Redux Raymond Arsenault, Orville Vernon Burton, 2013-10-15 Dixie Redux Essays in Honor of Sheldon Hackney is a collection of original essays written by some of the nation's most distinguished historians Each of the contributors has a personal as well as a professional connection to Sheldon Hackney a distinguished scholar in his own right who has served as Provost of Princeton University president of Tulane University and the University of Pennsylvania and the chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities In a variety of roles teacher mentor colleague administrator writer and friend Sheldon Hackney has been a source of wisdom empowerment and wise counsel during more than four decades of historical and educational achievement His life both inside and outside the academy has focused on issues closely related to civil rights social justice and the vagaries of race class regional culture and national identity Each of the essays in this volume touches upon one or more of these important issues themes that have animated Sheldon Hackney's scholarly and professional life      Feminisms Redux Diane Price Herndl, 2009      Matria Redux Tegan Zimmerman, 2023-06-23 In Matria Redux Caribbean Women Novelize the Past author Tegan Zimmerman contends that there is a need for reading Caribbean women's texts relationally This comprehensive study argues that the writer's turn to maternal histories constitutes the definitive feature of this transcultural and transnational genre Through an array of Caribbean women's historical novels published roughly between 1980 and 2010 this book formulates the theory of matria an imagined maternal space and time as a postcolonial psychoanalytic feminist framework for reading fictions of maternal history written by and about Caribbean women Tracing the development of the historical novel in four periods of the Caribbean past slavery colonialism revolution and decolonization this study argues that a pan Caribbean generation of women writers of varying discursive racialized realities has depicted similar matria constructs and maternal motifs A politicized concept matria functions in the historical novel as a counternarrative to traditional historical and literary discourses Through close readings of the mother daughter plots in contemporary Caribbean women's historical fiction such as Andrea Levy's The Long Song Edwidge Danticat's The Farming of Bones Paule Marshall's Praisesong for the Widow and Marie Elena John's Unburnable Matria Redux considers the concept of matria an important vehicle for postcolonial psychoanalytic feminist literary resistance and political intervention Matria as a psychoanalytic postcolonial strategy therefore envisions by returning to history alternative feminist fictions futures and Caribbeans      The Matriarch Witi Ihimaera, 2013-07-24 In keeping with his commitment to revisit his first five pieces of fiction Witi Ihimaera has reworked the original text of this much loved classic The matriarch is a woman of intelligence wit beauty and ruthlessness and has become a mythical figure through her fight to repossess the land and sustain her people against the ravages wrought by the Pakeha Priestess of the Ringatu faith she has been virtually a law unto herself In his search for the truth behind the legends surrounding the matriarch his grandmother Tama Mahana delves deeper and deeper into Maori history and lore to understand the mysterious sources of her power and ambition Witi Ihimaera's prose is at turns lyrical and spare sensuous and savage Weaving fact with fiction this remarkable odyssey into New Zealand history is a novel of stunning imaginative power Also available as an eBook Winner of the Wattie Book of the Year 1986 Runner up for the Commonwealth Writers Prize 1987 Witi Ihimaera's uncompromising masterwork A profound and spellbinding character study New Zealand Herald

The Mediterranean Redux Naor H Ben-Yehoyada, Paul Silverstein, 2022-04-27 This book on historical anthropology remaps the Mediterranean by reframing classical themes from early Mediterraneanist anthropology This edited volume showcases how anthropology can contribute to an understanding of ongoing transnational dynamics and the new wave of scholarship on the Mediterranean The Mediterranean is back as a locus of international anxiety and academic concern It has reemerged in the international news cycle as a space of desperate crossings and tragic endings as the site in which a refugee crisis rivalling that of the Second World War is playing out in real time for a global viewing public The scale of the crisis has called into question Europe's humanitarian principles and internal political union making the Mediterranean into a mirror for long standing tensions between norms of universalism and demands for national security These captivating events have further raised the tide of scholars interest in the Mediterranean How should ethnographers contribute to the new wave of scholarship on the Mediterranean To what extent does the Mediterranean offer alternative forms of political relatedness to those construed from within Europe North Africa and the Middle East In this volume we reframe classical themes from early iterations of Mediterranean anthropology to address these questions in our examinations of changing dynamics across land and sea borders bringing ethnography back to the study of the Mediterranean and the Mediterranean with its Mediterraneanism back to ethnography The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal History and Anthropology

Regent Park Redux Laura Johnson, Robert Johnson, 2017-05-12 Regent Park Redux evaluates one of the biggest experiments in public housing redevelopment from the tenant perspective Built in the 1940s Toronto's Regent Park has experienced common large scale public housing problems Instead of simply tearing down old buildings and scattering inhabitants the city's housing authority came up with a plan for radical transformation In partnership with a private developer the Toronto Community Housing Corporation organized a twenty year billion dollar makeover The reconstituted neighbourhood one of the most diverse in the world will offer a new mix of amenities and social services intended to reknit the urban fabric Regent Park Redux based on a ten year study of 52 households as they moved through stages of displacement and resettlement examines the dreams and hopes residents have for their community and their future Urban planners and designers across the world in cities facing some of the same challenges as Toronto will want to pay attention to this story

African American Life in South Carolina's Upper Piedmont, 1780-1900 W. J.

Megginson, 2022-08-03 A rich portrait of Black life in South Carolina's Upstate Encyclopedic in scope yet intimate in detail

African American Life in South Carolina's Upper Piedmont 1780-1900 delves into the richness of community life in a setting where Black residents were relatively few, notably disadvantaged but remarkably cohesive. W. J. Megginson shifts the conventional study of African Americans in South Carolina from the much examined Lowcountry to a part of the state that offered a quite different existence for people of color. In Anderson, Oconee and Pickens counties, occupying the state's northwest corner, he finds an independent, brave and stable subculture that persevered for more than a century in the face of political and economic inequities. Drawing on little used state and county denominational records, privately held research materials and sources available only in local repositories, Megginson brings to life African American society before, during and after the Civil War. Orville Vernon Burton, Judge Matthew J. Perry Jr., Distinguished Professor of History at Clemson University and University Distinguished Teacher Scholar Emeritus at the University of Illinois, provides a new foreword.

Jackson Rising Redux Kali Akuno, Matt Meyer, 2023-04-11 Mississippi is the poorest state in the US with the highest percentage of Black people and a history of vicious racial terror. Black resistance at a time of global health, economic and climate crisis is the backdrop and context for the drama captured in this new and revised collection of essays. Cooperation Jackson, founded in 2014 in Mississippi's capital, to develop an economically uplifting, democratic solidarity economy, is anchored by a network of worker-owned, self-managed cooperative enterprises. The organization developed in the context of the historic election of radical Mayor Chokwe Lumumba, lifetime human rights attorney. Subsequent to Lumumba's passing, less than one year after assuming office, the network developed projects both inside and outside of the formal political arena. In 2020, Cooperation Jackson became the center for national and international coalition efforts, bringing together progressive peoples from diverse trade union, youth, church and cultural movements. This long anticipated anthology details the foundations behind those successful campaigns. It unveils new and ongoing strategies and methods being pursued by the movement for grassroots centered Black community control and self-determination, inspiring partnership and emulation across the globe.

Comedy and Feminist Interpretation of the Hebrew Bible Melissa Jackson, 2012-07-26 This book explores the Hebrew Bible for evidence of comedy and further asks how reading the Hebrew Bible through a comic lens might positively inform feminist interpretation. The exploration is conducted with a number of Hebrew Bible narratives, all of which prominently involve female characters.

Genesis Redux: When Ya Gotta Go, Ya Gotta Go R. Alan Elder, 2016-07-05 Catastrophic events leave Earth uninhabitable. Two former astronauts lead a group of couples on an adventure to reenact the book of Genesis on Mars. The adventure begins when Earth receives a mysterious message from space warning of the impending entry of an unwanted influence into Earth's solar system. Genesis Redux is an opportunity to start the processes of populating a world all over again. Let's hope they get it right this time.

Fish Eats Lion Redux Jason Erik Lundberg, In 2012 author and editor Jason Erik Lundberg released Fish Eats Lion, the first anthology of literary speculative fiction to be published in Singapore, a groundbreaking work that opened the floodgates of acceptability for the genre in the island nation, forever changing the landscape Now a decade later he returns with Fish Eats Lion Redux proving that SF is still alive and strong in the Lion City and exploring Singapore from the distant past to the far future and many points between as well as alternate versions along the multiverse With original stories by Meihan Boey Ng Yi Sheng Nuraliah Norasid Victor Fernando R Ocampo Suffian Hakim Inez Tan Cyril Wong Daryl Qilin Yam and many more this new collection shows beyond doubt that the realm of the imagination has never been so strange or so local

Regent Redux Steven D. Carter, 1996 Tells the story of a remarkable man who against his will and largely against his knowledge lived through what we now regard as the final decline of the ancient nobility in Japan

The Making, Unmaking and Remaking of Africa's Independence and Post-Independence Constitutions Nicodemus Fru Awasom, Hlengiwe Portia Dlamini, 2024-10-09 This book provides a collection of chapters that critically explore the making and development of Africa's independence constitutions through the different phases in their full generality Since independence various constitutions from African countries have undergone a succession of changes triggered by either the domestic or international environment or both These processes constitute autonomous epochal waves or phases of constitution making which need to be unpacked historicised and explored in a systematic manner This work intended as a distinctive object of positive analysis historicizes the independence constitutions of selected African states on either a country specific or a comparative basis A historical approach to the continental study of constitutions is rare meaning the continental coverage of the book is justified by Africa's rich diversity reflected in its multiple monarchical and colonial backgrounds The book is of interest to academics interested in having a panoramic view of Africa's constitutional development from a historical perspective

Sitcom Queens Michael Karol, 2006-07 Whether it was Lucy and Ethel Lucille Ball and Vivian Vance or Eve Arden as Miss Brooks Gale Storm as her dad's little Margie always interfering but with the best of intentions or the more modern Bea Arthur as Maude flaunting the conventions of how a woman was supposed to behave we all have our favorite funny ladies who brought us laughter every week and for a half hour at least took us away from our daily problems Classic TV expert Michael Karol in a series of original essays examines the roles these Sitcom Queens played on TV and how they became the beloved TV icons of generation after generation of TV fans With a sitcom timeline and a Top 10

The Doubled Life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Diane Reynolds, 2016-03-11 Few twentieth century theologians have had a bigger impact on theology than Dietrich Bonhoeffer a man who lived his faith and died at the hands of the Nazis For Bonhoeffer the theological was the personal life and faith deeply intertwined and to this day the world is inspired by that witness Yet the true story of the women in this remarkable man's life has until now been obscured by a conventional narrative that has distorted their role Using primary source material by the women and even including the first ever photo of alleged first fiancée Elisabeth Zinn this book sees these women fully for the first time A highly readable but scholarly work of narrative nonfiction The Doubled Life places Bonhoeffer's theology of love and sexuality within the context of his struggles with women friendship and the evils of Nazi Germany

Feminism in the United States Alison Dahl Crossley, 2024-08-16

Feminism in the United States A Concise Introduction presents readers with the key debates and ideas central to contemporary US feminism With a focus on intersectionality the book highlights the goals tactics and varieties of feminism This engaging clear and accessible text includes current examples case studies profiles of key figures in the movement and opportunities resources to gather more information The reader will learn how to employ a feminist lens as an informed conversationalist social media user news consumer and if so desired activist Readers will learn about the varieties of contemporary US feminism and how different strands of feminism emerge the heterogeneity of the movement as it endures over generations in both hospitable and inhospitable climates and the inequalities addressed and tactics used by feminists to create lasting social change Feminism in the United States is ideal for undergraduate students particularly those enrolled in introductory classes in feminist gender and sexuality studies and related programs as well as for the anyone seeking to explore feminism for the first time Fiction Catalog H.W. Wilson Company,1976 Gender Brooke Holmes,2012-05-31 Gender has now become a pervasive topic in the humanities and social sciences Yet despite its familiarity within universities and colleges some have argued that the radical debates which first characterized gender studies have become ghettoized or marginalized so that gender no longer makes the impact on creative thinking and ideas that it once did Brooke Holmes here rescues ancient ideas about sex and gender in order precisely to reinvigorate contemporary debate She argues that much writing on gender in the classical age fails to place those ancient ideas within their proper historical contexts As a result the full transformational force of that thinking is often overlooked In this short lively book the author offers a sophisticated and historically rounded reading of gender in antiquity in order to map out the future of contemporary gender studies By re examining ancient notions of sexual difference bodies culture and identity Holmes shows that Plato Aristotle the Stoics Epicureans and others force us to reassess what is at stake in present day discussions about gender The ancient world thus offers a vital resource for modern gender theory Teachers, Teaching, and Media ,2019-06-24 Popular representations of teachers and teaching are easy to take for granted precisely because they are so accessible and pervasive Our lives are intertextual in the way lived experiences overlap with the stories of others presented to us through mass media It is this set of connected narratives that we bring into classrooms and into discussions of educational policy In this day and time with public education under siege by forces eager to deprofessionalize teaching and transfer public funds to benefit private enterprises we ignore the dominant discourse about education and the patterns of representation that typify educator characters at our peril This edited volume offers a fresh take on educator characters in popular culture and also includes important essays about media texts that have not been addressed adequately in the literature previously The 15 chapters cover diverse forms from literary classics to iconic teacher movies to popular television to rock n roll Topics explored include pedagogy through the lenses of gender sexuality race disability politics narrative archetypes curriculum teaching strategies and liberatory praxis The various perspectives represented in this volume come from scholars and practitioners of education at all levels of schooling This book is especially timely in an era when public education in the United States is under assault from conservative political forces and undervalued by the general public Contributors are Steve Benton Naeemah Clark Kristy Liles Crawley Elizabeth Currin Mary M Dalton Jill Ewing Flynn Chad E Harris Gary Kenton Mark A Lewis Ian Parker Renga Stephanie Schroeder Roslin Smith Jeff Spanke and Andrew Wirth
