Nigerian English David Jowitt, 2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton s Dialects of English series Women in STEM Education Lisbet Rønningsbakk, Karen Blackmore, 2023-12-05 We are delighted to present the inaugural Women in Education series of article collections At present less than 30% of researchers worldwide are women Long standing biases and gender stereotypes are discouraging girls and women away from science related fields and from pursuing a career in academia and in different professional environments especially when linked to STEM fields Science and gender equality are however essential to ensure sustainable development in all disciplines In order to change traditional mindsets gender equality must be promoted stereotypes defeated and girls and women should be encouraged to pursue academic careers Therefore Frontiers in Education is proud to offer this platform to promote the work of women scientists educators and professionals across all fields of STEM Education Female representation still needs to be improved in key roles in the field and the way in which an equitable education contributes to fairer and less biased academic and professional environments worldwide should be more investigated The work presented here highlights the diversity of research performed across the entire breadth of STEM Education research and presents advances in theory experiment and methodology with applications to compelling problems
