tour mates are getting on each other's nerves. They are characters found next door on everyday streets under black eye days and across lost memory nights. The highlights and sights: the posh lunches, the gamy conversation over drinks in the bar, and of course the tour friendships all make their faux camaraderie sometimes combative but never boring. A story rife with modern perils, too much time, too much money, just enough libido, secrets revealed. Max and Greta Ruth don't wait for what the future may bring. Max, the blind guy, is a complex emotional story of art, ego, love, and marriage. Beyer's nuanced story brings to life fictional characters from America and Europe as this group of recalcitrant travelers make their way through lovely cities and desperate thoughts. Precocious, Provocative, Poignant. MAX THE BLIND GUY is built like an intricate mansion of dozens of opulently adorned rooms, secret passageways, and windows that open up to the bright and vibrant world beyond. The story explores the delights, disappointments, disturbances, and distractions of love, lust, and the desire to get to the next place. Language, play, humor, despair, and the engagement of a complicated community of characters. Max brings to mind the work of his literary predecessors such as Nabokov, Marquez, Dickens, and Dostoevsky. Patricia Ann McNair, author THE TEMPLE OF AIR. Max Howard Fast, 2011-12-27. The New York Times bestselling novel of one man's journey from New York's slums to become one of America's first film moguls. From the author of Spartacus, Max tells the story of the rise of Max Britsky, entwined with the film industry's beginnings near the turn of the twentieth century. When he was twelve, Max's father died, leaving him to scrape out a living in Manhattan's Lower East Side slums to provide for his mother and siblings. But Max was a natural entrepreneur, and he followed his business instincts and love of the theater to become one of the first film moguls in the history of American moviemaking. Britsky's life story is tragic and triumphant, and yet another example of the unmatched storytelling prowess of Howard Fast, one of the most prolific and widely read authors of the twentieth century. This ebook features an illustrated biography of Howard Fast, including rare photos from the author's estate. Hours at Home, 1868. Western Japaneseness: Intercultural Translations of Japan in Western Media Frank Jacob, Bruno Surace, 2021-03-02. Our images of non-Western cultures are often based on stereotypes that are replicated over the years. These stereotypes often appear in popular media and are responsible for a pre-set image of otherness. The present book investigates these processes and the media representation of otherness, especially as an artificial construct based on stereotypes and their repetition in the case of Japan. Western Japaneseness thereby illustrates how the Western image of Japan in popular media is rather a construct that in a way replicated itself instead of a more serious encounter with a foreign and different cultural context. This book will be of great value to students and academics who hold interest in media studies, Japanese studies, and cultural studies. It will also appeal to a broader audience with interests in Japan more generally. Max Nordau's Fin-de-siècle Romance of Race Melanie A. Murphy, 2007. Max Nordau 1849-1923 is the author of Degeneration and a founding father of Zionism. This Hungarian-born physician wrote fiction in which romantic and personal relations depicted in miniature the social and ethnic tensions of his day. His family stories metaphorically diagnosed the problems of minorities especially Jewish populations in European countries Close analysis of Nordau's literary work opens new perspectives on his cultural and political efforts and thought
