beginning to be used in schools across the country and suggest policies directions and cost considerations for implementing technology based learning in physical activity and physical education settings   Beating Bureaucracy in Special Educational Needs Jean Gross,2013-01-25 Are you overwhelmed by the amount of paperwork that SEN generates in your school Would you like to spend more time actually improving the quality of teaching and learning for pupils with SEN or disabilities If so this is an essential book for you Government are asking schools to identify fewer children with SEN and place less reliance on Individual Education Plans but at the same time ensure that children get the help they need This and the new Ofsted framework challenge schools to find new ways of enabling all children to make progress those with true SEN and those who may just be lower achieving or needing help with behaviour problems Fully revised and updated the new edition of this best selling practical text contains helpful and achievable strategies to meet these policy challenges It will provide support for school leaders SENCOs and anyone undertaking the national SENCO award Through school case studies Beating Bureaucracy in Special Educational Needs shows how to increase pupil progress by using existing systems for class and subject teacher target setting tracking and planning It lists the intervention programmes that really work and describes successful partnership with parents A toolkit of ready to use pro formas also available online includes a model policy to give to Ofsted curriculum planning formats and provision maps strategy sheets for all the main types of SEN proformas to help you plan monitor and evaluate your provision The book shows how to put responsibility for supporting children with most types of additional need firmly back where it belongs with class and subject teachers It will help you in the words of one SENCO get your life back   Damasus of Rome Dennis E. Trout,2015 Damasus of Rome makes available in English the epigraphic poetry of Damasus bishop of Rome from 366 to 384 The translations are accompanied by the Latin text as well as by commentary on the literary topographic and archaeological features of Damasus inscribed epigrams Antonio Ferrua published the last critical edition of Damasus poetry in 1942 Since Ferrua s ground breaking edition however much has changed Recent scholarship has challenged the Damasan authorship of several epigrams other pieces have been reinstated as Damasan and archaeology has added fragments that were not known in 1942 Moreover in recent years new ways of appreciating Late Latin poetry have revolutionized thinking about many poets contemporary with Damasus Damasus of Rome therefore not only offers new translations but updates the corpus and criticism of Damasus poetry A full introduction situates Damasus in his times by considering his troubled election and the issues that dominated Rome and his papacy The introduction also sets the poems within the broader sweep of the history of epigraphic poetry at Rome and relates them both to the development of the Christian catacombs and to the emergence of the cults of the Roman saints Modern scholarship readily acknowledges that the years of Damasus episcopacy were pivotal ones in the transformation of Rome into a late antique Christian city His poetry much of it inscribed at the suburban tombs of the Roman saints and martyrs played an incalculable but significant role in the redefinition of both Roman and Christian identity in this remarkable age Damasus of

Rome now makes that poetry more readily available to scholars and students alike
