French and African youth collided with transnational efforts to make young people in Western Europe feel more European. She connects a particular postwar vision for European unity which coded Europe as both white and raceless Christian and secular to crucial decisions about what should be taught in African classrooms and how many scholarships to provide young Africans to study and train in France. That vision of Europe also informed French responses to African student activism for racial and religious equality which ultimately turned many young francophone Africans away from France irrevocably. Black France shows that the interconnected history of colonial and European youth initiatives is key to explaining why despite efforts to strengthen ties with its African colonies in the 1940s and 1950s France became more European during those years.

External Powers and the Gulf Monarchies Jonathan Fulton, Li-Chen Sim, 2018-09-03 The Gulf monarchies have been generally perceived as status quo actors reliant on the USA for their security but in response to regional events particularly the Arab Spring of 2011 they are pursuing more activist foreign policies which has allowed other international powers to play a larger role in regional affairs. This book analyses the changing dynamic in this region with expert contributors providing original empirical case studies that examine the relations between the Gulf monarchies and extra regional powers including the USA, Russia, China, India, Brazil, Turkey, Japan, South Korea, France and the United Kingdom. At the theoretical level these case studies explore the extent to which different international relations and international political economy theories explain change in these relationships as the regional political and security environment shifts. Focusing on how and why external powers approach their relationships with the Gulf monarchies, contributors ask what motivates external powers to pursue deeper involvement in an unstable region that has seen three major conflicts in the past 40 years. Addressing an under-analysed yet important topic, the volume will appeal to scholars in the fields of international relations and international political economy as well as area specialists on the Gulf and those working on the foreign policy issues of the extra regional powers studied.

I'm Buffy and You're History Patricia Pender, 2016-06-28 Buffy the Vampire Slayer gave contemporary TV viewers an exhilarating alternative to the tired cultural trope of a hapless attractive blonde woman victimized by a murderous male villain. With its strong, capable heroine, witty dialogue and a creator, Joss Whedon, who identifies himself as a feminist, the cult show became one of the most widely analysed texts in contemporary popular culture. The last episode broadcast in 2002 did not herald the passing of a fleeting phenomenon. Buffy is a media presence still active on DVD and the internet, alive in the career of Joss Whedon and studied internationally. I'm Buffy and You're History puts the entire series under the microscope, investigating its gender and feminist politics. In this book, Patricia Pender argues that Buffy includes diverse elements of feminism and reconfigures and sometimes revises the ideals of American second wave feminism for a wide third wave audience. She also explores the ways in which the final season's vision of collective feminist activism negotiates racial and class boundaries. Exploring the Slayer's postmodern politics, her position as a third wave feminist icon, her placing of masculinity in extremis and her fandom and legacy in popular culture, this is a fresh and challenging contribution to the growing literature on the pitfalls and pleasures of a great cult TV show Auction catalogue, books of Guglielmo Libri, 25 April to 8 May 1861 S. Leigh Sotheby & John Wilkinson (London), 1861 The Algorithmic Society Marc Schuilenburg, Rik Peeters, 2020-12-29 We live in an algorithmic society Algorithms have become the main mediator through which power is enacted in our society This book brings together three academic fields Public Administration Criminal Justice and Urban Governance into a single conceptual framework and offers a broad cultural political analysis addressing critical and ethical issues of algorithms Governments are increasingly turning towards algorithms to predict criminality deliver public services allocate resources and calculate recidivism rates Mind boggling amounts of data regarding our daily actions are analysed to make decisions that manage control and nudge our behaviour in everyday life The contributions in this book offer a broad analysis of the mechanisms and social implications of algorithmic governance Reporting from the cutting edge of scientific research the result is illuminating and useful for understanding the relations between algorithms and power Topics covered include Algorithmic governmentality Transparency and accountability Fairness in criminal justice and predictive policing Principles of good digital administration Artificial Intelligence AI in the smart city This book is essential reading for students and scholars of Sociology Criminology Public Administration Political Sciences and Cultural Theory interested in the integration of algorithms into the governance of society The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture Tom Brown, Belén Vidal, 2013-12-17 The biographical film or biopic is a staple of film production in all major film industries and yet within film studies its generic aesthetic and cultural significance has remained underexplored The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture fills this gap conceptualizing the biopic with a particular eye toward the life of the genre internationally New theoretical approaches combine with specially commissioned chapters on contemporary biographical film production in India Italy South Korea France Russia Great Britain and the US in order to present a selective but well rounded portrait of the biopic s place in film culture From Marie Antoinette to The Social Network the pieces in this volume critically examine the place of the biopic within ongoing debates about how cinema can and should represent history and real lives Contributors discuss the biopic s grounding in the conventions of the historical film and explore the genre s defining traits as well as its potential for innovation The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture expands the critical boundaries of this evolving versatile genre Genocide in the Ottoman Empire George N. Shirinian, 2017-02-01 The final years of the Ottoman Empire were catastrophic ones for its non Turkish non Muslim minorities From 1913 to 1923 its rulers deported killed or otherwise persecuted staggering numbers of citizens in an attempt to preserve Turkey for the Turks setting a modern precedent for how a regime can commit genocide in pursuit of political ends while largely escaping accountability While this brutal history is most widely known in the case of the Armenian genocide few appreciate the extent to which the Empire s Assyrian and Greek subjects suffered and died under similar policies This comprehensive volume is the first to broadly examine the genocides of the Armenians Assyrians and Greeks in comparative fashion analyzing the similarities and differences among them and giving crucial context to present day calls for recognition

Social Housing in the Middle East Kivanç Kiliç, Mohammad Gharipour, 2019-03-01 Essays on architecture in Kuwait Iran Israel and other nations in the region and how it can and must address the needs of local residents As oil rich countries in the Middle East are increasingly associated with soaring skyscrapers and modern architecture attention is being diverted away from the pervasive struggles of social housing in those same urban settings Social Housing in the Middle East traces the history of social housing both gleaming postmodern projects and bare bones urban housing structures in an effort to provide a wider understanding of marginalized spaces and their impact on identities communities and class While architects may have envisioned utopian or futuristic experiments these buildings were often constructed with the knowledge and skill sets of local workers and the housing was in turn adapted to suit the modern needs of residents This tension between local needs and national aspirations are linked to issues of global importance including security migration and refugee resettlement The essays collected here consider how culture faith and politics influenced the solutions offered by social housing they provide an insightful look at how social housing has evolved since the nineteenth century and how it will need to adapt to suit the twenty first Essential reading for architectural and social historians planners and policy makers CAA Reviews

The Colonial World Robert Aldrich, Andreas Stucki, 2022-12-29 The Colonial World A History of European Empires 1780s to the Present provides the most authoritative in depth overview on European imperialism available It synthesizes recent developments in the study of European empires and provides new perspectives on European colonialism and the challenges to it With a post 1800 focus and extensive background coverage tracing the subject to the early 1700s the book charts the rise and eclipse of European empires Robert Aldrich and Andreas Stucki integrate innovative approaches and findings from the new imperial history and look at both the colonial era and the legacies it left behind for countries around the world after they gained independence Dividing the text into three complementary sections Aldrich and Stucki offer an original approach to the subject that allows you to explore Different eras of colonisation and decolonisation from early modern European colonialism to the present day Overarching themes in colonial history like land and sea the body and representations of colonialism A global range of snapshot colonial case studies such as Peru 1780 India 1876 The South Pacific 1903 the Dutch East Indies 1938 and the Portuguese empire in Africa 1971 This is the essential text for anyone seeking to understand the nature and complexities of modern European imperialism and its aftermath

The Politics of Crisis in Europe Mai'a K. Davis Cross, 2017-03-02 The Politics of Crisis in Europe explores the resilience of the European Union in the face of repeated crises perceived to threaten its very existence While it is often observed after the fact that these crises serve as opportunities for integration this is the first critical analysis to suggest that we cannot fully understand the nature and severity of these crises without recognising the role of societal reaction to events and the nature of social narratives about crisis especially those advanced by the media Through a close examination of the 2003 Iraq crisis the 2005 constitutional crisis and the 2010 12 Eurozone crisis this book identifies a pattern across these episodes demonstrating how narratives about crises provide the means to openly air underlying societal tensions that would otherwise remain under the surface impeding further integration

Canadian Multiculturalism @50 Augie Fleras, 2021-07-26 Choice Award 2022 Outstanding Academic Title The multiculturalization of Canada has catapulted it into the front ranks of countries in advancing a principled diversity governance Fifty years after the inception of a multicultural governance model that seemingly works and is relatively popular Canada remains one of the few countries in the world to believe in multiculturalism Yet the irony is inescapable Notwithstanding its lofty status as a Canadian icon and an aspirational ideal an official multiculturalism remains misunderstood both in Canada and abroad in terms of what it means how it works and for whom and why it endures If anything as the book explains the idea of multiculturalism remains shrouded in the conceptual fog of a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma An interplay of polite fictions that mask inconvenient truths puts the onus on deconstructing Canadian multiculturalism by conceptualizing strengths including a probe into why multiculturalism ostensibly works in Canada but rarely elsewhere analyzing weaknesses critically assessing its worth and envisioning its future in responding to the new realities and demands of a post multicultural world That Canada s multiculturalism remains a work in progress albeit one with innovative possibilities provides a fitting tribute The Commercial & Financial Chronicle, Bankers' Gazette, Commercial Times, Railway Monitor, and Insurance Journal , 1868 Urban Agriculture for Growing City Regions Undine Giseke, Maria Gerster-Bentaya, Frank Helten, Matthias Kraume, Dieter Scherer, Guido Spars, Fouad Amraoui, Abdelaziz Adidi, Said Berdouz, Mohamed Chlaida, Majid Mansour, Mohamed Mdafai, 2015-09-07 This book demonstrates how agriculture can play a determining role in integrated climate optimised urban development Agriculture within urban growth centres today is more than an economic or social left over or a niche practice It is instead a complex system that offers multiple potentials for interaction with the urban system Urban open space and agriculture can be linked to a productive green infrastructure this forms new urban rural linkages in the urbanizing region and helps shape the city But in order to do this agriculture has to be seen as an integral part of the urban fabric and it has to be put on the local agenda Urban Agriculture for Growing City Regions takes the example of Casablanca one of the fastest growing cities in North Africa to investigate this approach The creation of synergies between the urban and rural in an emerging megacity is demonstrated through pilot projects design solutions and multifunctional modules These synergies assure greater resource efficiency particularly regarding the use and reuse of water and they strengthen regional food security and the social integration of multiple spheres A transdisciplinary research approach brings together different scientific disciplines and local actors into a process of integrated knowledge production The book will have a long lasting legacy and is essential reading for researchers planners practitioners and policy makers who are working on urban development and urban agricultural strategies

Ethical Trade, Gender and Sustainable Livelihoods Kiah Smith, 2014-03-21 Fair and ethical trade is often criticized for being highly gendered and for institutionalizing the ethical values of consumers the priorities of NGOs and governments and most of all food retailers But little is known about how women smallholder farmers experience diverse ethical standards or whether and how standards reflect their values local cultural and environmental contexts or priorities for achieving sustainable livelihoods Linking gender smallholder livelihoods and global ethical trade regulations this book reveals that multiple understandings of social justice environmental sustainability and well being or ethicality exist in parallel to those institutionalized in ethical trade schemes Through an in depth case study of smallholder subsistence and French bean farming in Kenya the book grounds the analysis of livelihoods gender and ethical trade in women smallholders perspectives links the macro level of markets with the micro level of livelihoods and engenders relations of power structure and agency in food networks It brings together disparate bodies of theory to illustrate the knowledge strategies and values of women smallholder farmers that are often beyond the scope of ethical trade regulations It also provides a challenging new vision for doing food systems research

Neutrality and Vulnerable States Nasir Andisha, 2020-10-08 This book offers a timely and concise academic and historical background to the concept and practice of neutrality a relatively new phenomenon in foreign and security policy It approaches two key questions under what circumstances can permanent neutrality be applied and what are the main ingredients of success and the causes of failure in applying permanent neutrality By evaluating comparing and contrasting the two successful European case studies of Austria and Switzerland and the two challenging Asian case studies of Afghanistan and Laos the author creates a new framework of analysis to explore the feasibility of reframing adopting and applying a policy of neutrality and jump start debates on the feasibility of the idea of new neutrality He opens the debate by asking whether as neutrality successfully functioned as a conflict resolution tool during the Cold War a reframed and adopted version of neutrality could also serve the needs of the twenty first century world order This is an insightful book for all scholars students and policymakers working in international relations security studies the history of neutrality and Afghanistan studies

Mathematics and Social Utopias in France Simon Altmann, Eduardo L. Ortiz, 2013-03-30 A mathematician a social reformer within Saint Simon's utopian socialist movement and later a prosperous banker Olinde Rodrigues is a fascinating figure of the city of Paris in the first half of the nineteenth century Since archival resources on Rodrigues are not abundant and since they are scattered throughout a variety of archives studying him presents difficult historiographic challenges These are met for the first time in this book written by a team of mathematicians historians of mathematics and historians of culture and society for people interested in any of these fields
