Rhyme The Child's Song Donald Capps,1995-01-01 Theological ideas and biblical injunctions have frequently been employed to legitimate the physical abuse of children Some theological ideas are inherently abusive because they create fear in a child s mind causing a child to feel alone odd and of little worth Donald Capps exposes the abuses that theology and the Bible have inflicted on vast numbers of children In particular he is concerned with the hidden abuses of children by well intentioned adults and the role that religion plays in the legitimation of these abuses Granger's Index to Poetry and its establishment in 1844 Taylor County has known all too well the cycle of growth decline and hard won renewal Industries such as the railroad as well as glass pottery and brick factories once provided employment and opportunity for local families and spurred the development of the region But when these businesses were lost and economic hardship followed local residents fought mightily to revitalize their community and through persistence and heart made Taylor County a welcoming home to new generations of residents Through the ups and downs of over a century Taylor County has struggled and triumphed making its own history in small towns and rural communities Taylor County the location of both of West Virginia s national cemeteries was the site of the first Union casualty during the Civil War The county s railroad heritage played a prominent role and the town of Grafton once served as a railway hub and destination for city travelers Perhaps the county s most influential native was Anna Jarvis who founded Mother s Day when she initiated a church service in Grafton in 1908 This historic church and Jarvis s birthplace are now local landmarks and honor the vision and determination of the woman who created an international holiday The Supervisors Service Bulletin ,1928
