

Memories of the Heart

*Feel no guilt in laughter,
She knows how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile
That she's not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever,
She would not want you to.
She'd hope that you would carry on
The way you always do.
So talk about the good times
And the ways you showed you cared.
The days you spent together,
All the happiness you shared.
Let the memories surround you,
A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture
A time, an hour, a day.
That bring her back as clearly
As though she were still there.
And fills you with the feelings
That she is always near.
For if you keep those memories
You will never be apart
And she will live forever
Locked safe within your heart.*

Rooms in Our Heart Randall Carpenter, 2019-02-13 Life is about finding that spark that motivates you. It's seeking your purpose and pursuing it relentlessly. Every day you want to be a little better than you were yesterday. Rooms in Our Heart is a collection of insightful inspirational writings and thoughts about life, love, and other circumstances we all deal with in life. It is a collection of thought provoking words written from the heart and mind of the author whose view of life goes beyond life's superficial surface. Life is not always about what we accomplish but what we overcome to get through every day. Having someone in your life who cares enough to want to help but expects nothing in return can be inspiring, motivating, and uplifting. Sometimes wisdom doesn't come from age or even experiences. It comes from someone who cares enough to open the rooms in their heart and let what's within help inspire you in life. The Rooms in Our Heart are there in each of us. The key to unlocking each of them is but a moment away, waiting in life to be experienced and opened widely to bring to life yet again a memory we need today.

The Heart of Grief Thomas Attig, 2002-07-15 In The Heart of Grief Attig gives us an inspiring and profoundly insightful meditation on the meaning of grief, showing how it can be the path toward a lasting love of those who have died. Recounting dozens of stories of people who have struggled with deaths in their lives, he describes grieving as a transition from loving in presence to loving in separation. The thing we long for most, the return of the one who is missing, is the very thing that we can never have. Kindling the intense pain of our loss. But Attig argues that we can, in fact, build an enduring, even reciprocal love, a love that tempers our pain. He tells stories for instance of a young girl taking some of her dead sister's practical advice as she enters high school, a widower realizing how much intimate life with his wife has colored his character, and an athlete drawing inspiration from his dead brother and achieving what they had dreamed of together. Far from forgetting our loved ones, Attig urges us to explore ways in which our memories of the departed can be sustained, our understanding of them enhanced, and their legacies embraced so they continue to play active roles in our everyday and inner lives. Groundbreaking and original, inspiring and compassionate, The Heart of Grief offers guidance, comfort, and a new understanding of how we grieve.
