International Guide to Student Achievement John Hattie,Eric M. Anderman,2013-01-17 The International Guide to Student Achievement brings together and critically examines the major influences shaping student achievement today There are many often competing claims about how to enhance student achievement raising the questions of What works and What works best World renowned bestselling authors John Hattie and Eric M Anderman have invited an international group of scholars to write brief empirically supported articles that examine predictors of academic achievement across a variety of topics and domains Rather than telling people what to do in their schools and classrooms this guide simply provides the first ever compendium of research that summarizes what is known about the major influences shaping students academic achievement around the world Readers can apply this knowledge base to their own school and classroom settings The 150 entries serve as intellectual building blocks to creatively mix into new or existing educational arrangements and aim for quick easy reference Chapter authors follow a common format that allows readers to more seamlessly compare and contrast information across entries guiding readers to apply this knowledge to their own classrooms their curriculums and teaching strategies and their teacher training programs Whose Education For All? Birgit Brock-Utne,2002-06 This book examines the new donor concept education for all which was coined at a World Bank initiated conference in 1990 in Jomtien Thailand The author uses her experience to examine what is going on in the education sector South African national bibliography ,1998 Classified list with author and title index Annual Report National Programme of Action for the Children of Namibia,1994 Democratic Teacher Education Reforms In Namibia Ken Zeichner,2019-06-03 An analysis of teacher education reforms in Namibia in the post independence era from the perspective of government personnel teacher educators and teachers themselves This book examines post independence teacher education reforms in the southern African country of Namibia from the perspective of various actors in the reform process Ministry Orphan Crops: Breeding and Biotechnology for Sustainable Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Simon E. Bull, Jill Margaret Farrant, Rita Hogan Mumm, Zerihen Tadele, 2024-01-18 Orphan crops play an important role in food and nutrition security especially in growing economies where small holder farmers produce the majority of food Despite their importance in global agriculture and their often remarkable nutrient content and adaptation to challenging environmental conditions orphan crops have received limited attention by the scientific community and industry However the diversity of neglected plant species provides a large genetic resource that could significantly contribute to broadening the biodiversity of trait desired crops for novel value chains sustainable development and food security The uptake of new plant breeding techniques notably genome editing as well as omic tools are now accelerating translation of basic research and facilitating the exploration of orphan crops These advancements also give rise to public and politic engagement discussions to maximize socio economic impact Given that the greatest need for food and nutritional security is in growing economies issues of food sovereignty and sustainability of their food systems become front and centre There is now an exceptional opportunity to tackle some of the major current challenges in agriculture including climate change sustainable cropping systems food quality and nutritional security through broadening research in wild relatives of crops and on orphan species This Research Topic seeks to showcase research on neglected plants using advanced molecular technologies e g genome sequencing omics etc and new plant breeding approaches methods and tools This Research Topic will also discuss the challenges and opportunities arising when modern breeding techniques are applied for translational research Education in Perspective Earle Taylor, 2000 This book focuses on Namibias education since independence The book is developed around 40 articles reflecting the rich cross section and multi cultural diversit of interests opinions values expectations and perspectives and is held together by a common thread of a shared national vision for Namibia that knits freedom peace unity equity and progress into every economic activity forthe sustained well being of all Namibians International Conference on Teacher Education for Namibia , 1991 For All Practical Purposes (Paper) COMAP, 2008-10-31 By the Consortium for Mathematics and Its Applications Owners of Learning Jennifer Hays, 2016 This book describes the Nyae Nyae Village Schools an innovative and unique mother tongue education initiative set in north eastern Namibia Inspired by the optimism of Independence the project was designed in close consultation with the Ju hoansi community in the early 1990s Drawing upon their traditional knowledge transmission strategies and initiated in a supportive political environment the project exemplified best practice During the following two decades the Village Schools have transitioned from a donor supported project to government schools and have received much attention and support from donors civil society organisations researchers and others However the students still do not seem to succeed in the mainstream schools Why is this Based on long term field work in the region including interviews with Nyae Nyae residents over several years and work with involved organisations the book addresses this question Contextualising the Village Schools within post Independence Namibia southern African history and the global indigenous rights movement it examines the enormous paradoxes that schooling presents for the Nyae Nyae community Owners of Learning is the English translation of the Ju hoansi word for teacher and it serves to highlight a fundamental question to whom does education belong
