(Title goes here)

I was brutally shoved into a tall stone cold wall, watching everything I saw fade away, I didn't wake up for three days. Going to a baptist school I always felt different, my beliefs were not as strong as the others and I had no interest in learning about god or working in a church. I always felt judge and never comfortable going there. One day after school, a group of older guys came up to me and decided that because I was the smallest I would be the easiest to pick on. I was only in third grade while the rests were sophomores and juniors. It took everything inside me to not say anything because there was no way I could do anything to stop it. I was pushed down to the floor as everyone watched and told me to stay. Instead of anyone standing up for me, they all laughed and encouraged his vendetta against me. Tears came out of my face like a sprinkler watering the lawn, I was paralyzed. Frozen with fear there was nothing I could do especially with him being captain of the basketball team, he could get away with anything, even the adults loved him. Wolf made it his mission to make me suffer. He was the biggest guy in school, not only did he tower over everyone, but he also had a way of manipulating people to do what he wanted. After what had happened, I went home and didn't tell a soul, my grandma at the time was so devoted to the church that she would not of believed me, no one would.

My days began seeming dark, like all the color was sucked through a vacuum, making my surroundings grey and dull. I will never understand why the people of the church were so judgemental or that all they cared about was a ridiculous basketball team. I had finally decided to push back. I was no longer going to take them seriously and stand up for myself. Wolf didn't like that, so he got his friends to all start calling me names and writing on my locker. Each day it got worse, I started feeling like I was nothing, that everything they were saying was true. Every punch or comment felt like a piece of my self breaking. I would sit in school and listen to all the praise they got through the principal and think to myself how a world could be this messed up. I have never felt so lonely and scared of the world like I was an ant trying to avoid being stepped on. I kept on trying to push through, but without anyone helping me it got harder and harder. I didn't have any friends to help me through all the torment and never felt like I was heard. I was just the little kid who annoyed everyone and thought that baptist schools were a ridiculous joke. When I could no longer handle all the stress and pain I would use television to take me to a different place. Each show was a different adventure and all my real-life problems slipped away.

Finally, after all this strife and harm, I made a new friend, luckily he was not a very religious person and didn't care what people think. We soon became best friends, hanging out every day. I did not care as much about what others thought or did to me. I finally had a friend who helped me through it. From day one there was a brotherly bond, we would always go to each other's houses and play video games together. Although, Wolf mainly had it out for me, which I could never understand. It was his mission to make sure I was miserable. I tried so hard to ignore him, but he knew exactly which buttons to push. Throughout my day, Blain and I would find ways to
