Narrative Note For Hospice:

Narrative Medicine in Hospice Care Tara Flanagan, 2019-12-13 Narrative medicine an interdisciplinary field that brings together the studies of literature and medicine offers both a way of understanding patient identity and a method for developing a clinician's responsiveness to patients While recognizing the value of narrative medicine in clinical encounters including the ethical aspects of patient discourse Tara Flanagan examines the limits of narrative practices for patients with cognitive and verbal deficits In Narrative Medicine in Hospice Care Identity Practice and Ethics through the Lens of Paul Ricoeur Flanagan contends that the models of selfhood and care found in the work of Ricoeur can offer a framework for clinicians and caregivers regardless of the verbal and cognitive capabilities of a patient at the end of life In particular Ricoeur's concept of patient identity connects with the narrative method of life review in hospice and offers an opportunity to address the religious and spiritual dimensions of the patient experience

Hospice and Palliative Nursing Care Ann Goben Blues, Joyce Valborg Zerwekh, 1984 End-of-Life-Care: A Practical Guide, Second Edition Barry M. Kinzbrunner, Joel Policzer, 2011-01-07 The most thorough text available on providing patients and families with quality end of life care The study learning questions at the end of each chapter make this book an excellent resource for both faculty who wish to test knowledge and individual learners who wish to assess their own learning The book is well written and easy to read 3 Stars Doody's Review Service End of Life Care A Practical Guide offers solution oriented coverage of the real world issues and challenges that arise daily for clinicians caring for those with life limiting illnesses and conditions End of Life Care A Practical Guide includes specific clinical guidance for pain management and other common end of life symptoms The second edition has been made even more essential with the addition of chapter ending Q A for self assessment and board review new coverage of multicultural medicine an increased number of algorithms to assist decision making on complicated clinical legal and ethical issues Six sections walk you through the complexities of caring for patients who are nearing the end of life Preparing Patients for End of Life Management of Symptoms Diagnostic and Invasive Interventions Ethical Dilemmas Special Populations Diversity No other text better assists physicians and other clinicians in providing patients near the end of life with support guidance and hope in the face of hopelessness than End of Life Care A Practical Guide

Narrative Medicine James Phelan,2022-10-27 Narrative Medicine A Rhetorical Rx rests on the principles that storytelling is central to medical encounters between caregivers and patients and that narrative competence enhances medical competence Thus the book s goal is to develop the narrative competence of its reader Grounded in the rhetorical theory of narrative that Phelan has been constructing over the course of his career this volume utilizes a three step method Offering a jargon free explication of core concepts of narrative such as character progression perspective time and space Demonstrating how to use those concepts to interpret a diverse group of medical narratives including two graphic memoirs

Pointing to the relevance of those demonstrations for caregiver patient interactions Narrative Medicine A Rhetorical Rx is the ideal volume for undergraduate students interested in pursuing careers in healthcare students in medical and allied health professional schools and graduate students in the health humanities and social sciences Narrative Matters Fitzhugh Mullan, Ellen Ficklen, Kyna Rubin, 2006-09-15 This compelling collection provides important insight into the human dimensions of health care and health policy Scott A Strassels American Journal of Health System Pharmacy Reflexive Narrative Christopher Johns, SAGE Publications, Inc., 2020-03-26 Reflexive Narrative Self Inquiry Toward Self Realization and Its Performance is latest addition to the Qualitative Research Methods series Author Christopher Johns describes this unique method and its developmental approach to research to enable researchers self realization however that might be expressed This method focuses on systematizing the reflective process and providing structure while still remaining flexible to the needs of individual researchers and projects Researchers collect data through reflections on everyday experiences and then selectively use the evidence of researcher s insights The text starts out with a brief introduction to narrative research and reflexivity situating the method within the larger context of organizational practices The next chapters introduce the steps for reflexive narrative research and walk readers through the movements of the reflexive narrative process writing reflection dialogue guidance weaving and audiencing Additional coverage of ethics and research examples provide a foundation for application of the method to individual research A chapter on structuring the method for a doctoral thesis furthers the applied nature of this method Three extracts from studies provide research examples across several social science disciplines including nursing and education For students and researchers alike looking for new approaches to reflexive methods and looking to expand their ideas about self research in a qualitative context Reflexive Narrative provides a starting place for their own examination of self in the context of research Narrative Research in Health and Illness Brian Hurwitz, Trisha Greenhalgh, Vieda Skultans, 2004-10-15 This comprehensive book celebrates the coming of age of narrative in health care It uses narrative to go beyond the patient s story and address social cultural ethical psychological organizational and linguistic issues This book has been written to help health professionals and social scientists to use narrative more effectively in their everyday work and writing The book is split into three comprehensive sections Narratives Counter narratives and Meta narratives The Palliative Care and Hospice Caregiver's Workbook Lura L Pethtel, John D Engel, 2017-11-22 This educational workbook helps people who build compassionate relationships with dying people Accompanied by its trainer s guide it presents a comprehensive sequential learning program for caregivers in non medical capacities covering everything from self understanding to spiritual issues listening skills and expressive activities developing the skills awareness and resilience needed for this privileged and sensitive role The program includes a variety of learning experiences including large and small group activities discussion close reading creative writing self exploration and skill development and practice This is an invaluable resource for small groups of individuals who wish to volunteer in hospice or palliative care settings A copy of the guide for trainers is included in each pack of workbooks and is also freely available online The best resource I have seen to guide teachers and learners in this complex training process I predict that those of you who try it with your staffs and trainees will find that it bears fruit both for your patients and their families but also for the sustenance and personal development of the staff members themselves Timothy Quill M D in his Foreword A Companion to Narrative Theory James Phelan, Peter J. Rabinowitz, 2008-04-15 The 35 original essays in A Companion to Narrative Theory constitute the best available introduction to this vital and contested field of humanistic enquiry Comprises 35 original essays written by leading figures in the field Includes contributions from pioneers in the field such as Wayne C Booth Seymour Chatman J Hillis Miller and Gerald Prince Represents all the major critical approaches to narrative and investigates and debates the relations between them Considers narratives in different disciplines such as law and medicine Features analyses of a variety of media including film music and painting Designed to be of interest to specialists yet accessible to readers with little prior knowledge of the field The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology Nancy A. Pachana, Ken Laidlaw, 2014-11-06 Throughout the world the population of older adults continues to grow The rise in geriatric populations has seen an increase in research on clinical diagnostic assessment and treatment issues aimed at this population Clinical geropsychologists have increased their interest both in providing mental health services as well as developing approaches to improve quality of life for all older adults The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology is a landmark publication in this field providing broad and authoritative coverage of the research and practice issues in clinical geropsychology today as well as innovations expanding the field's horizons Comprising chapters from the foremost scholars in clinical geropsychology from around the world the handbook captures the global proliferation of activity in this field In addition to core sections on topics such as sources of psychological distress assessment diagnosis and intervention the handbook includes valuable chapters devoted to methodological issues such as longitudinal studies and meta analyses in the field as well as new and emerging issues such as technological innovations and social media use in older populations Each chapter offers a review of the most pertinent international literature outlining current issues as well as important cultural implications and key practice issues where relevant and identifying possibilities for future research and policy applications The book is essential to all psychology researchers practitioners educators and students with an interest in the mental health of older adults In addition health professionals including psychiatrists social workers mental health nurses and trainee geriatric mental health workers will find this an invaluable resource Older adults comprise a growing percentage of the population worldwide Clinical psychologists with an interest in older populations have increased the amount of research and applied knowledge about effectively improving mental health later in life and this book captures that information on an international level The book addresses how to diagnose assess and treat mental illness in older persons as well as ways to improve quality of life in all older persons It has a great breadth of coverage of the area including chapters spanning how research is conducted to how new technologies such as virtual reality and social media are used with older people to improve mental health The book would appeal to all psychology researchers practitioners educators and students with an interest in the mental health of older adults It would also appeal to other health professionals including psychiatrists social workers and mental health nurses who work with older people It is a valuable resource for trainee geriatric mental health workers because it highlights key readings and important practice implications in the field      Caring for Life and Death Nelda Samarel,1991

Investigates the ways in which nurses cope with the dying patient and the acute patient who will recover Factors which influence transition between the two types of care are also examined      Religious Understandings of a Good Death in Hospice Palliative Care Harold Coward,Kelli I. Stajduhar,2012-06-13 Winner of the 2012 AJN American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award in the Hospice and Palliative Care category In the 1960s English physician and committed Christian Cicely Saunders introduced a new way of treating the terminally ill that she called hospice care Emphasizing a holistic and compassionate approach her model led to the rapid growth of a worldwide hospice movement Aspects of the early hospice model that stressed attention to the religious dimensions of death and dying while still recognized and practiced have developed outside the purview of academic inquiry and consideration Meanwhile global migration and multicultural diversification in the West have dramatically altered the profile of contemporary hospice care In response to these developments this volume is the first to critically explore how religious understandings of death are manifested and experienced in palliative care settings Contributors discuss how a good death is conceived within the major religious traditions of Christianity Islam Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Chinese religion and Aboriginal spirituality A variety of real world examples are presented in case studies of a Buddhist hospice center in Thailand Ugandan approaches to dying with HIV AIDS Punjabi extended family hospice care and pediatric palliative care The work sheds new light on the significance of religious belief and practice at the end of life at the many forms religious understanding can take and at the spiritual pain that so often accompanies the physical pain of the dying person      Palliative and Serious Illness Patient Management for Physician Assistants Nadya Dimitrov,Kathy Kemle,2021-09-09
