Four Perfect Pebbles Lila Perl, Marion Blumenthal Lazan, 2016-10-18 The twentieth anniversary edition of Marion Blumenthal Lazan's acclaimed Holocaust memoir features new material by the author a reading group guide a map and additional photographs The writing is direct devastating with no rhetoric or exploitation The truth is in what's said and in what is left out ALA Booklist starred review Marion Blumenthal Lazan's unforgettable and acclaimed memoir recalls the devastating years that shaped her childhood Following Hitler's rise to power the Blumenthal family father mother Marion and her brother Albert were trapped in Nazi Germany They managed eventually to get to Holland but soon thereafter it was occupied by the Nazis For the next six and a half years the Blumenthals were forced to live in refugee transit and prison camps including Westerbork in Holland and Bergen Belsen in Germany before finally making it to the United States Their story is one of horror and hardship but it is also a story of courage hope and the will to survive Four Perfect Pebbles features forty archival photographs including several new to this edition an epilogue a bibliography a map a reading group guide an index and a new afterword by the author First published in 1996 the book was an ALA Notable Book an ALA Quick Pick for Reluctant Readers and IRA Young Adults Choice and a Notable Trade Book in the Field of Social Studies and the recipient of many other honors A harrowing and often moving account School Library Journal Four Perfect Pebbles: Lila Perl, Marion Blumenthal Lazan, 1999-11-03 If she could find four perfect pebbles of almost exactly the same size and shape it meant that her family would remain whole Mama and papa and she and Albert would survive Bergen Belsen The four of them might even survive the Nazis attempt to destroy every last Jew in Europe Four Perfect Pebbles-CC , Four Perfect Pebbles Mattoon Middle School (Mattoon, Ill.), 2002 Holocaust Memories Claudia Moscovici, 2019-05-16 Nearly eighty years have passed since the Holocaust There have been hundreds of memoirs histories and novels written about it yet many fear that this important event may fall into oblivion As Holocaust survivors pass away their legacy of suffering tenacity and courage could be forgotten It is up to each generation to commemorate the victims preserve their life stories and hopefully help prevent such catastrophes These were my main motivations in writing this book Holocaust Memories which includes reviews of memoirs histories biographies novels and films about the Holocaust It was difficult to choose among the multitude of books on the subject that deserve our attention I made my selections based partly on the works that are considered to be the most important on the subject partly on wishing to offer some historical background about the Holocaust in different countries and regions that were occupied by or allied themselves with Nazi Germany and partly on my personal preferences interests and knowledge The Nazis targeted European Jews as their main victims so my book focuses primarily on them At the same time since the Nazis also targeted other groups they considered dangerous and inferior I also review books about the sufferings of the Gypsies the Poles and other groups that fell victim to the Nazi regimes In the last part I review books that discuss other genocides and crimes against humanity including the Stalinist mass purges the Cambodian massacres by the Pol Pot regime and the Rwandan genocide I want to emphasize that history can indeed repeat itself even if in different forms and contexts Just as the Jews of Europe were not the only targets of genocide Fascist regimes were not its only perpetrators Gotcha! Kathleen A. Baxter, Marcia Agness Kochel, 1999-12-15 Thousands of children's books are published each year some are outstanding while others are not This book makes it easier for you to find the best in children's nonfiction books and it offers concrete classroom tested ideas for presenting them to students in irresistible ways Booktalks for more than 350 nonfiction titles appropriate for elementary and middle school students are organized according to topics popular with young readers Great Disasters Unsolved Mysteries Fascinating People Science and Fun Experiments to Do In addition there are tips on booktalking an outline for a booktalk program and a bibliography that can be used for collection development Appropriate grade levels for each book are cited Library Media Specialists will find this guide essential The thematic approach helps teachers search for titles that correlate to curriculum areas or specific units of study Parents can use the book with their children as a reading selection tool Anyone who works with young children will find this book an invaluable resource 100

Because We Can Change the World Mara Sapon-Shevin, 2010-06-28 Because We Can Change the World is a powerful antidote to the bullying intolerance and exclusion that are all too commonplace in our schools. Through helpful insights, practical strategies, and a powerful vision grounded in social justice, this book gives teachers the inspiration and hope they need to carry on. Sonia Nieto, Professor Emerita of Language, Literacy, and Culture, University of Massachusetts Amherst. I have personally seen classroom cultures completely transformed as a result of using the techniques in this book. If you don't already use this book to promote community collaboration and inclusion in your school, do it immediately so students can learn that inclusion is more than a place or a policy; it is a commitment to acceptance and honoring of difference, and as Sapon-Shevin so eloquently reminds us, a belief that we just might change the world. Paula Kluth, Educational Consultant. Change the world, one classroom at a time. It is impossible for most students to achieve academically if they do not feel safe, supported, welcomed, and accepted. By structuring democratic classrooms as models of diversity, cooperation, and inclusion, teachers can help children learn skills and values that lay a foundation for good citizenship and will make a difference in their lives now and in the future. Mara Sapon-Shevin provides a unique vision of elementary classrooms that allow all children to experience academic success. This long-awaited new edition of a highly acclaimed book calls on all educators to create diverse, inclusive classrooms and promote social justice. Discusses the barriers to creating cooperative classrooms and how they can be overcome. Includes activities, songs, and children's literature that promote acceptance and understanding. Includes new Reframing Our Work sections with reflective questions that help readers examine their own beliefs and teaching practices. With updated resources and a stronger emphasis on differentiated instruction, Because We Can Change the World gives teachers the vision, courage, and strategies to make the world a better place, starting with their own classrooms. Genocide in Contemporary Children's and Young Adult Literature Jane Gangi, 2014-03-14 This book studies children's and young adult literature of genocide since 1945, considering issues of representation and using postcolonial theory to provide both literary analysis and implications for educating the young. Many of the authors visited accurately and authentically portray the genocide about which they write; others perpetuate stereotypes or otherwise distort, demean, or oversimplify. In this focus on young people's literature of specific genocides, Gangi profiles and critiques works on the Cambodian genocide (1975-1979), the Iraqi Kurds (1988), the Maya of Guatemala (1981-1983), Bosnia, Kosovo, and Srebrenica (1990s), Rwanda (1994), and Darfur (2003-present). In addition to critical analysis, each chapter also provides historical background based on the work of prominent genocide scholars. To conduct research for the book, Gangi traveled to Bosnia, engaged in conversation with young people from Rwanda, and spoke with scholars who had traveled to or lived in Guatemala and Cambodia. This book analyzes the ways contemporary children, typically ages ten and up, are engaged in the study of genocide and addresses the ways in which child survivors who have witnessed genocide are helped by literature that mirrors their experiences. Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-07-05 The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers
