Social Housing in Performance Katie Beswick,2019-02-07 This book explores the ways that council estates have been represented in England across a range of performance forms Drawing on examples from mainstream site specific and resident led performance works it considers the political potential of contemporary performance practices concerned with the council estate Depictions of the council estate are brought into dialogue with global representations of what Chris Richardson and Hans Skott Myhre call the hood to tease out the specific features of the British context and situate the work globally Katie Beswick s study provides a timely contribution to the ongoing national and global interest in social housing As the housing market grows ever more insecure and estates are charged with political rhetoric theatre and socially engaged art set or taking place on estates takes on a new potency Mainstream theatre works examined include Rita Sue and Bob Too and A State Affair at the Soho Theatre Port at the National Theatre and DenMarked at the Battersea Arts Centre The book also explores the National Youth Theatre s Slick and Roger Hiorns Seizure as well as community based and resident led performances by Fourthland Jordan McKenzie Fugitive Images and Jane English

T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett,Imogen Adkins,2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality
