Geophy Paper Memo March 2014:

Origination Andy Pike, 2015-06-02 Origination The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale Burberry and Apple brands Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places The Legality and Accountability of Autonomous

Weapon Systems Afonso Seixas-Nunes, 2022-05-19 By adopting a multi disciplinary approach this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the legality of the use of autonomous weapons systems under international law It examines different arguments presented by States roboticists and scholars to demonstrate the challenges such systems will create for the laws of war This study examines how technology of warfare seeks to increase the dissociation of risk and communication between weapons and their human operators Furthermore it explains how algorithms might give rise to errors on the battlefield that cannot be directly attributed to human operators Against this backdrop Dr Seixas Nunes examines three distinct legal frameworks the distinction between the legality of weapons and the laws of targeting different mechanisms of individual accountability and the importance of recovering the category of dolus eventualis for programmers and technicians and finally State responsibility for violations of the laws of war caused by weapons software errors The Drone Debate

Avery Plaw, Matthew S. Fricker, Carlos Colon, 2015-12-24 The Drone Debate offers a thorough investigation of the where why how and when of the U S s use of UAVs Beginning with a historical overview of the use of drones in warfare it then addresses whether targeted killing operations are strategically wise whether they are permissible under international law and the related ethical issues It also looks at the political factors behind the use of drones including domestic and global attitudes toward their use and potential issues of proliferation and escalation Finally the use of drones by other countries such as Israel and China is examined Each chapter features a case study that highlights particular incidents and patterns of operation in specific regions including Yemen Somalia Pakistan and Libya and strike types signature strikes personality strikes etc Deepening Neoliberalism, Austerity, and Crisis Julien Mercille, Enda Murphy, 2015-07-07 From bank bailouts to austerity Europe s and Ireland s response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland's crisis resolution The Problem of Social Inequality Scott G. McNall, 2015-12-07 Within and among nations rising levels of social inequality threaten our collective future Currently upwards of 80% of people's life chances are determined by factors over which they have absolutely no control Social inequality threatens the democratic project because it destroys the trust on which governments depend and it gives rise to corrupt political and economic institutions How can we get out of the traps we have created for ourselves We need to reboot capitalism Drawing on diverse examples from a range of countries McNall explains the social economic and ecological traps we have set for ourselves and develops a set of rules of resilience that are necessary conditions for the creation and maintenance of democratic societies and a set of rules essential for creating a sustainable future Handbook on Wealth and the Super-Rich Iain Hay, Jonathan V Beaverstock, 2016-01-29 Fewer than 100 people own and control more wealth than 50 per cent of the world's population The Handbook on Wealth and the Super Rich is a landmark multidisciplinary evaluation of both the lives and lifestyles of the super rich as well as the processes that underpin super wealth generation and its unequal distribution Drawing on international case studies leading experts from across the social sciences offer 22 accessible and coherently organized chapters which critically analyse a range of topics including the legitimacy of extreme wealth from a moral economic perspective biographies of illicit super wealth London's housing markets how the very wealthy fly the environmental consequences of super rich lives crafting immigration policies to attract the rich Students and scholars studying a host of topics such as development studies economics geography history political science and sociology will find this book eminently engaging It will also be of great interest to public commentators charitable organizations and NGOs concerned with wealth and income distributions One Nation Undecided Peter H. Schuck, 2019-08-06 At a time of deep social and political division along comes a much needed book to steer us toward solutions to five very difficult national problems There could be no better guide for this endeavor than Peter Schuck one of the clearest and most thoughtful legal and policy scholars of this or any generation Robert E Litan author of Trillion Dollar Economists's Land Fictions D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W. Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines narratives and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity It interrogates global patterns of property formation the dispossessions property markets enact and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs This collection brings together original research on urban rural and peri urban India rapidly urbanizing China and Southeast Asia resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America and the neoliberal urban landscapes of North America and Europe Through a variety of perspectives Land Fictions finds resonances between local stories of land's fictional powers and global visions of landed property's imagined power to automatically create value and advance national development Editors D Asher Ghertner and Robert W Lake unpack the dynamics of land commodification across a broad range of political spatial and temporal settings exposing its simultaneously contingent and collective nature The essays advance understanding of the politics of land while also contributing to current debates on the intersections of local and global urban and rural and general and particular Contributors Erik Harms Michael Watts Sai Balakrishnan Brett Christophers David Ferring Sarah Knuth Meghan Morris Benjamin Teresa Mi Shih Michael Levien Michael L Dwyer Heather Whiteside Deterrence, Coercion, and Appeasement David French, 2022 A compelling and original survey of British grand strategy in the inter war period underlining the inexorable relationships between foreign policy grand strategy military force intelligence finance and not least domestic politics and public opinion Designing Peace Neophytos Loizides, 2016-01-08 Why do some societies choose to adopt federal settlements in the face of acute ethnic conflict while others do not Neophytos Loizides examines how acrimoniously divided Cyprus could reunify by adopting a federal and consociational arrangement inspiring similar attempts in its region Loizides asserts that institutional innovation is key in designing peace processes Analyzing power sharing in Northern Ireland the return of displaced persons in Bosnia and the preparatory mandate referendum in South Africa he shows how divided societies have implemented novel solutions despite conditions that initially seemed prohibitive Turning to Cyprus he chronicles the breakthrough that led to the exhumations of the missing after 2003 and observes that a society's choice of narratives and institutions can overcome structural constraints While Loizides points to the relative absence of successful federal and consociational arrangements among societies evolving from the post Ottoman space he argues that neither elites nor broader societies in the region must be held hostages to the past To effect lasting and positive change Loizides encourages stakeholders in divided societies to be prepared to identify redesign and implement innovative new institutions Examining successful peace mediations and identifying the shared experience and commonalities between Cyprus and other divided societies promises not only to inform the tackling of the Cyprus problem but also to provide transferable knowledge with broader implications for the fields of peace studies and conflict resolution
