Global Taiwan Suzanne Berger, Richard K. Lester, 2015-02-12 Global Taiwan examines the impact of globalization on the industry and economy of Taiwan since the spectacular growth of the 1990s Drawing on hundreds of interviews with firms in Taiwan China the United States Japan Europe and other areas the book analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of Taiwanese firms at a time when they face new competition from powerful global leaders and new producers in China The contributors cover topics of enormous importance for Taiwan as well as the rest of the world including transformations in the international economy technological advances that enabled modularization and fragmentation of the production system contract manufacturers regionalization and links with Chinese industry The book addresses such questions as Can Taiwanese companies be maintained and expanded with the same corporate strategies and public policies as in the past Can these strategies still work for other countries If changes are required what resources can be mobilized in the public and private sectors As massive relocation of manufacturing and services moves plants and jobs to low wage countries like China and India what will remain at home in societies like Taiwan

STARTUP Mike Lam, 2019-11-20 Here is a true story where you can find an author product business knowledge experience and valuable lessons with daily and simple sentences Facets Of Competitiveness: Narratives From Asean Ashish Lall, 2011-04-27 The ten countries in the ASEAN region account for approximately 5% of world gross domestic product and 8% of world population and represent the most diverse group of nations in terms of the level of prosperity political system culture language and history This diversity in ASEAN not only helps us understand the notion of national competitiveness but also provides important policy lessons for both developed and developing countries This book a collection of essays provides insights on competitiveness challenges and policies It provides an excellent overview of competitiveness for a group of countries at various stages of development Written in a simple and accessible manner this book will be of interest to students researchers business executives and government officials

Rent Seeking and Development Christine Ngoc Ngo, 2020-03-25 Rent seeking continues to be a topic of much discussion and debate within the political economy This new study challenges previous assumptions and sets out a new analysis of the dynamics of rent and rent seeking in development using Vietnam as a case study This book provides an alternative approach to the study of economic development and illuminates new perspectives in a contemporary context It argues that not only has there been an incomplete understanding of Vietnam's industrial development over the last three decades but that neoclassical economics do not adequately address many of the issues endangering Vietnam's development A significant observation of the Vietnamese experience is the analytical view that rents can be developmental and growth enhancing if the configuration of rent management incentivizes industrial upgrade and conditions firm performance Underlining the need to reexamine how economic actors and the state collaborate through formal and informal institutions this study fills a gap in the scholarship of the political economy of rent and rent seeking and how rents might be used for developmental purposes Advances in Engineering Research and Application Duy Cuong Nguyen,Ngoc Pi Vu,Banh Tien Long,Horst Puta,Kai-Uwe Sattler,2022-12-01 The International Conference on Engineering Research and Applications ICERA 2022 held on December 1 2 2022 at Thai Nguyen University of Technology in Thai Nguyen Vietnam provided an international forum to disseminate information on latest theories and practices in engineering research and applications The conference focused on original research work in areas including mechanical engineering materials and mechanics of materials mechatronics and micro mechatronics automotive engineering electrical and electronics engineering information and communication technology By disseminating the latest advances in the field the Proceedings of ICERA 2022 Advances in Engineering Research and Application assists academics and professionals alike to reshape their thinking on sustainable development Investment Strategies in Emerging Markets Saul Estrin,Klaus Meyer,2004-01-01 The book investigates foreign direct investment FDI strategies in four important emerging economies Egypt India South Africa and Vietnam These countries liberalized their economies in the 1990s with the intention of attracting greater FDI inflows This book assesses whether they have been successful in achieving this goal The authors adopt a comparative perspective and use a large enterprise survey plus three individual case studies in each country They investigate the strategies of foreign direct investors focusing on the relationship between the investment climate the mode of entry acquisition greenfield or joint venture company performance and spillovers to the host economy The book outlines how the interactions between international businesses and the local policy environment influence the entry strategies of firms Academics and researchers with an interest in international business emerging markets economic development and strategic management will find this book informative and insightful BOOK JACKET Transformation of Japanese Multinational Enterprises and Business Shige Makino,Yasuro Uchida,Tamiko Kasahara,2024-03-30 The purpose of this book is to highlight how current successful Japanese multinational enterprises MNEs and companies have changed their business or business models in the past three decades Japanese MNEs received a lot of attention from academia and industry during the 1980s and the early 1990s and their factors for success have been compared with those of Western MNEs Unfortunately following the collapse of the bubble economy in the early 1990s international business researchers and practitioners attention has turned away from Japan and its MNEs to emerging markets notably the rapidly growing China Japanese MNEs have faced the mature domestic economy and also have had to overcome many new challenges in the twenty first century such as rapid aging depopulation and response to new technologies Japanese MNEs and companies today are being forced to respond to new business environments never seen in the past The prerequisites for business activities have significantly changed from those of former Japanese companies and their management practices Even in such a difficult situation however many Japanese MNEs and emerging companies have achieved steady growth and have succeeded by changing their business models This book provides the reader with new directions for research and lessons by analyzing the challenges of Japanese multinational enterprises and emerging companies The redirection of attention is expected to have a positive impact on the field of international business study and practice Global Production Networking and Technological Change in East Asia Shahid Yusuf,M. Anjum Altaf,Kaoru Nabeshima,2004-07-01 In the coming decades East Asian economies must face the challenges of an increasingly globalized marketplace This book explores the changing parameters of competition in East Asia and argues that success ultimately will depend on the ability of the region s firms to harness the potential of global production networks and to build their own innovative capability Presenting the latest findings on global production networks and the evolution of technological capabilities it provides researchers students and policymakers with in depth information and analysis on key issues related to growth and development in East Asia East Asian firms must not only achieve greater efficiency but also become more innovative offering differentiated products in order to vie with other first tier suppliers of multinational corporations These firms will also need to develop a technological edge if they are to compete with corporations from the leading OECD countries and form their own global production networks Global Production Networking and Technological Change in East Asia argues that a development strategy linked to technological advance will be necessary to foster the growth of innovative national firms that can remain competitive in global markets Fuelling Economic Growth Michael Graham,Jean Woo,2009 The private sector is playing an increasingly important role in the funding of scientific research As public sector research declines in the countries of the north and the south research and development carried out by the private sector becomes more important for innovations that have economic potential In some cases networks between local firms and multinationals can support learning which leads to economic growth What are the policies which support such partnerships and what are the institutional arrangements that foster research Seven case studies from Argentina China Costa Rica El Salvador Tanzania Peru the Philippines and Vietnam examine how policies have been developed and implemented to encourage innovation Multinationals and Economic Growth in East Asia Shujiro Urata,Chia Siow Yue,Fukunari Kimura,2006-11-22 This is a comprehensive examination of the role of foreign direct investment in East Asia before and after the financial crisis of mid 1997 Vietnam Economic News ,2009 Vietnam Economic Times ,2005

An Introduction to International Economics Kenneth A. Reinert,2020-08-27 This book is designed for a one semester course in international economics primarily targeting non economics majors and programs in business international relations public policy and development studies It has been written to make international economics accessible to both students and professionals Assuming a minimal background in economics and mathematics the textbook goes beyond the usual trade finance dichotomy to address international trade international production and international finance and takes a practitioner point of view rather than a standard academic one introducing students to the material needed to become effective analysts in international economic policy This new edition features such additional topics as global production and global capital flows migration the Ricardian model and international organizations like the IMF Examples have been updated to include recent developments Brexit for example and all charts include the latest data The website for the text can be found at <http://ie.gmu.edu>

Far Eastern Economic Review, 2002 Vietnam: Asia's Rising Star Brook Taylor, Sam Korsmoe, 2023-10-15 The drivers behind the world's most exciting growth story For more than 25 years Vietnam has been one of the most dynamic countries in the world in terms of GDP growth trade investment and other business metrics The key question is whether or not the country can continue this growth for another 25 years If it can Vietnam will become a high income country like South Korea and Taiwan the original Tiger Economies of Asia Engaging in conversations about Vietnam's future is challenging Locals are often too focused on the present while foreigners are caught up in legacy and political issues of the past Many observers also focus on the short term a specific economic metric or inevitably Vietnam's political system without considering the big picture or recognizing long term trends The authors researched and analyzed a broad range of drivers to assess a possible future for Vietnam and Vietnam Asia's Rising Star is the result of these efforts What Others Are Saying Vietnam Asia's Rising Star should be read by anyone with an interest in Vietnam and anyone else with an interest in the future of Asia Carlyle A Thayer professor emeritus University of New South Wales Canberra

Exploiting Linkages for Building Technological Capabilities Mai Fujita, 2014-01-10 One of the key ingredients of success in building internationally competitive industries lies in amassing a sizeable pool of competent suppliers of parts components and accessories This monograph examines how in developing countries suppliers of mechanical components at the low end of the technological trajectory build up key capabilities over time The focus is on Vietnam's motorcycle industry which was rapidly transformed from a small highly protected market to the world's fourth largest motorcycle producer This rare success resulted from intense competition between leading Japanese motorcycle manufacturers and local Vietnamese assemblers of imported Chinese components both attempting to gain supremacy in the emerging market In particular the book analyzes how local Vietnamese suppliers of motorcycle components exploited participation in contrasting types of value chains developed by the two groups of leading manufacturing firms referred to here as Japanese and or Vietnamese Chinese chains for accumulating strategic know how On the basis of historical evidence and recent empirical data collected through repeated rounds of in depth fieldwork the analysis finds first those suppliers learning trajectories evolved over time resulting in a divergence in learning performance extending across suppliers in later phases of industrial development In the later stage high performing suppliers amassed basic innovative expertise constituting the bedrock of this fast growing industry Second the analysis finds that the diverging performance can be explained by the combination of roles played by lead firms in inducing and facilitating supplier learning and those of suppliers in mobilizing their own sources of knowledge These conclusions not only provide dynamic insightful accounts of supplier learning in developing country contexts but also make key theoretical and methodological contributions to the research on value chain participation and supplier learning
