Stafford,2011-11-21 The year was 1970 when Misty was born The children in our family ranged in age from sixteen down to two and a half There were seven boys and one girl We lived in a two story house with a very large yard The back porch or hall as we called it was enclosed with a window looking out over the yard Our first and oldest child was Steve He was sixteen Second was Larry who was fifteen Third was Alan who was fourteen Next in line the fourth child and only daughter was Annette She was thirteen years old Fifth in line was David who was nine years old at the time Sixth in line was Kelly He was close to his seventh birthday Seventh in line was Todd and he was close to his sixth birthday Their birthdays were in April same time we got Misty Then the eighth child and youngest was Rick He was two and a half years old at the time Dad worked at his job at the V A Hospital and I Mom was a full time homemaker The children were all close in age and we were a very close knit family We cared about and helped each other We did things together Two of the older boys Larry and Alan were constantly into projects What one wouldnt think of to do the other one would The last and smallest family member was a white and black cat He had been rescued from an animal trap He had several names by our family One was Pickles because he was always being rescued another was Puddy some just preferred cat He didnt care As long as he was petted and loved and fed Surrender (But Don't Give Yourself Away) Spike Gillespie,2010-02-22 Spike Gillespie tells it like it is Whether she s writing about men mothering or money she cuts to the chase unabashedly recounting the exhilaration and uncertainty she is forever encountering along the odd path that is her life Gillespie approaches her subjects with a keen eye for curious details and a readiness to ask hard questions and give honest even brutal answers Her willingness to put it all down the painful the funny the mundane the embarrassing has won legions of readers for her print and online columns Surrender But Don t Give Yourself Away collects forty six essays which initially appeared in such publications as the Washington Post Austin Chronicle Dallas Morning News Bust Gargoyle and thecommonsplace org As Gillespie describes them There are odes to my good days and bad to trips I ve taken both real and metaphorical to holiness found in unexpected places to men I have not slept with to learning to live sober Too there are miscellaneous ruminations on my alter ego my inner teen the floor mat in my car a dead squirrel in the road Binding these pieces is the thread of hope there are moments the thread slips out of view only to resurface in some unexpected location Sometimes it takes awhile but Gillespie always relocates hope discovering even in her darkest times that life is full of an embarrassment of riches Angel Flight of '82 Dean Doudna,2020-06-08 This true story took place in 1982 At the time Dean was a W1 and stationed in Korea He had only been graduated from the army s flight program ten months and did not yet possess the flight experience befitting the multiple flight decisions required of this flight. Not only did Dean need to deal with the flight environment but had to come to terms with the unfortunate decision matrix that he used to fly in the first place. Dean quickly realized that he had first to understand his flight conditions before he could modify emergency procedures designed to save his life. To his horror, Dean had never come to grips with the plane crash that killed his father, twin and two additional passengers fourteen years earlier. That traumatic event was haunting him this day while dealing with the environmental conditions that were trying to kill them all on this flight. The two flights parallel is uncanny. There is enough background provided to allow the reader a glimpse into the unique and sometimes disastrous Doudna early years. The author does his best to remind the readers that God is the real hero. At every turn the Holy Spirit whispers solutions guiding Dean with decisions decades ahead of his ten month flight experience. There are plenty of human interest stories scattered throughout the novel to give the reader a rest bit from the life threatening drama that plays out in the cockpit. Dean continued his career where he served thirty five years active duty in the army. Upon retirement from the army as a CW5 was selected to be the Government Flight Representative where he served for another eleven years risk mitigating and approving the maintenance procedures and flights for all of Fort Rucker's 650 helicopters. He retired in 2015 and felt compelled to tell this story.

Starting Over Carla Freeman, 2008-01-02 Sara and Sam Moore raised two beautiful children Andrew and Angela in spite of being the head of the mob underworld. Now the family is legit and has diversified into other businesses. Andrew and Angela have taken over the business to give Mom and Dad a chance to retire. But still memories are forever and grudges eat away until one day their whole world crashes down around them. Sam's sudden and tragic death has put Sara into a deep and depressive grieving period. This hit on the family might be just the cure to get her back into life again. Andrew and Angela have run the family for sometime and now must go encourage Sara to take back the helm. But Sara must teach her children how to stay alive. How to fight to win. And most important how to keep their perspective while doing so. The final book in this trilogy Sara is retired and the children are running the business. Yet there is still someone out there that think that the Moores owe them. The family must strap on their thinking caps as well as their guns and once again go to work.
