After years of relative boredom and the humdrum of repetitive plodding behind Cullinport's protective security fences, John Duncanson and a selection of his fellow police officers chose to temporarily rid themselves of the adopted tag glorified security guards by volunteering for a United Nations peacekeeping deployment to Kosovo. Little did they know what waited for them as they stepped onto the tarmac at Pristina airport but they were soon to learn as they had to adapt to living on the same planet but a totally different world.

The New Age of Adventure John Rasmus, 2009-09-15 National Geographic Adventure has published the best work by today's finest writers and this tenth anniversary anthology assembles an elite corps of authors that includes Sebastian Junger, Peter Matthiessen, Philip Caputo and two dozen others. These reporters have voyaged to the ends of the earth to bring back the decade's most thrilling, eccentric and extraordinary tales. But the pieces collected here do more than paint a portrait of the world's most extreme and fascinating environments; they also explore important questions about adventure in the 21st century. These stories rocket readers across the roof of the world on the new high speed railway in Tibet, describe the tension between Indian farmers and the sacred elephants besieging their villages and introduce them to a shaman whom some believe can cure the most serious depressions. We meet the great Afghan warlord Ahmed Shah Massoud said to have been the finest guerrilla fighter since Ho Chi Minh, encounter a yeti with legendary mountaineer Reinhold Messner and much more. This is a wide-ranging collection for every road warrior and adventurer, armchair or otherwise, culled from the much acclaimed journal that in its first ten years has won millions of devoted readers and garnered more than a dozen prestigious prizes for excellence in journalism. Gale's Auto Sourcebook, 1992 Guide to information on cars and light trucks.
