BlueGhost Reveille John W. Harris,2018-12-27 These are the recollections of a draftee assigned to an infantry platoon in an air cavalry troop BlueGhost Reveille follows me as a twenty two year old as I became a squad leader and then Platoon Sergeant during the war in Vietnam The pieces of this book are as factual as fifty year old memories will allow There is no intentional fiction in this work The stories are about everyday life during this year in a combat unit Some pieces are mundane some are humorous and the parts about going to serious war will get your heart up in your throat I was not a Seal Ranger or Green Beret I was a draftee who turned down OCS because that would have meant extending my service by a year I was chosen to go to NCO school which made me an instant NCO or a shake bake sergeant Reluctant warrior may have described many of us draftees at the time but when you know you are going to war you better get serious I did Friends and family who have read this manuscript say it feels like I am sitting there telling them these stories I hope it feels that way for you

Gunship Pilot Robert F. Hartley,2015-02-24 It was 1968 and Robert Hartley was on his first combat mission in Vietnam as copilot of a helicopter gunship As he and his platoon leader flew over the A Shau Valley a Chinook helicopter engulfed in flames suddenly came into view Hartley noticed tiny black smoking objects exiting the tail ramp of the aircraft Seconds later he realized those objects were men escaping the flames and plunging to their deaths It was in that moment that he silently wondered How the hell did I get here Mr Hartley was still wet behind the ears when he was tossed into the cauldron of Americas most unpopular war as an attack helicopter gunship pilot As he shares a gripping birds eye view of battles that took him from the Demilitarized Zone in the north to the Mekong Delta in the south Mr Hartley compellingly details how he learned to rely on his superior training and equipment to follow through with his mission to kill the enemy and save the lives of his fellow soldiers below Gunship Pilot provides an unforgettable glimpse into two combat tours of duty in Vietnam as a helicopter pilot soaring high above rice paddies and jungles attempts to fulfill his duty of protecting Americas warriors on the ground

Co-ed Combat Kingsley Browne,2007 Browne makes a case against women in combat based on research in anthropology biology history psychology sociology and law as well as military memoirs It asks hard questions that challenge the assumptions of feminists For instance 5 Has warfare really changed so much as to reverse the almost unanimous history of all male armed forces 5 Are men and women really equivalent in combat skills even leaving aside physical strength 5 Do female troops respond to traditional types of motivations 5 Can the bonds of unit cohesion form in a co ed military unit 5 Can an all volunteer military afford to reject women
