L'union Fait La Force:

« L'Union fait la force! » Pierrick Labbé, 2012-09-19 En 1863 un groupe de travailleurs originaires du Québec et domiciliés à Ottawa décident de fonder une association de prvoyance pour aider leurs prochains dans le besoin En s'inspirant de leurs expériences respectives au sein d'associations de prvoyance qu'aboies les fondateurs tablissent une première société de secours mutuels canadienne française Ottawa l'Union Saint Joseph d'Ottawa Malgré une naissance et des débuts modestes cette association connaitra une grande histoire Elle deviendra l'une des plus grandes sociétés fraternelles nationales avec des ramifications dans plus de 600 communautés canadiennes françaises du Canada et des États Unis Cet ouvrage analyse la fondation de l'Union Saint Joseph d'Ottawa et son évolution entre 1863 et 1920 Durant cette période cette petite association locale dont les activités visent essentiellement le secours de la classe populaire vouée pour devenir une grande société fraternelle nationale voue la sauvegarde des intérêts des Canadiens français L'essentiel de ces mutations survient la fin du XIXe siècle alors qu'une petite ligue entreprend des réformes administratives qui changent la manière de gérer la mutualité Cette ligue en profite galement pour reformuler le projet social de l'association et ses objectifs afin de transformer l'Union Saint Joseph en un instrument de lutte pour la survivance canadienne française Publié en français L'Union fait la force par René Basset,... René Basset, 1907 L'Union fait la force, von Humanus, etc. [Being letters addressed to M. Casimir Perier, etc.]. Otto HUMANUS (pseud.), 1895 Dye's Coin Encyclopædia John S. Dye, 1883 , Wanted! A Nation! Claire Bourhis-Mariotti, 2023-12-15 Covering the whole of the nineteenth century Wanted A Nation reveals how Haiti remained a focus of attention for white as well as Black Americans before during and even after the Civil War Before the Civil War Claire Bourhis Mariotti argues the Black republic was considered by free Black Americans as a place where full citizenship was at hand Haiti was essentially viewed and concretely experienced as a refuge during moments when free Black Americans lost hope of obtaining rights in the United States Haiti is also at the heart of this book as Haitian leaders supported the American emigration to Haiti in the 1820s and early 1860s opposed the American geostrategic and diplomatic diktats in the 1870s and 1880s and finally offered an international platform to Frederick Douglass at the 1893 Columbian World's Fair thus helping Black people who faced discrimination at home to fight first against slavery and the slave trade and then for equal rights By spanning the entire nineteenth century Wanted A Nation presents a complex panorama of the emergence of African American identity and argues that Haiti should be considered as an essential prism to understand how African Americans forged their identity in the nineteenth century Drawing on a variety of sources Wanted A Nation goes far beyond the usual framework of national American history and contributes to the writing of an Atlantic and global history of the struggle for equal rights EU External Relations and the Power of Law Kenneth A Armstrong, Joanne Scott, Anne Thies, 2024-08-22 The breadth and depth of the scholarship of Marise Cremona is honoured in this collection of essays written by her colleagues and friends Taking Cremona's field defining research as a point of reference this collection of research articles examines the power of law in EU external relations Echoing the expansive scope of Cremona's intellectual enquiries across the growing and diversifying field of external relations law this volume offers new insights into the principles and procedures that underlie this area of law the role and responsibilities of the EU as an international actor and the strategies and instruments through which the Union pursues its external agenda Spanning the analysis of foundational concepts and more contemporary interventions in respect of the environment human rights foreign direct investment and even Brexit what emerges from this collection is a richly conceptualised and clear examination of the multiple ways in which the power of law captures or eludes the EU's construction of a domain of external relations a domain in which the EU interacts not only with its Member States but also other subjects of the international legal order
