Listening to the Voices of Boys Krista Griffin,2016-03-01 Motivation to engage in reading is a consistent problem for students in general and boys in particular To solve this problem we often seek answers from everyone but those we are hoping to motivate We read the latest article on motivation and think we have finally come up with the recipe that will motivate all of the boys in our class When it doesn t work for everyone we go back to the drawing board and try something else until we finally understand that all boys are motivated by different things That is the basis of this book nothing will work for ALL boys but there are ways to equip teachers to find out how the boys in their classes are motivated It provides them with a direction to go once they've established the needs of their students and offers suggestions for how to meet individual motivational needs Each chapter addresses a different motivational need providing background information and practical classroom applications

Temporality and Film Analysis Matilda Mroz,2012-08-06 Matilda Mroz argues that cinema provides an ideal opportunity to engage with ideas of temporal flow and change Temporality however remains an underexplored area of film analysis which frequently discusses images as though they were still rather than moving This book traces the operation of duration in cinema and argues that temporality should be a central concern of film scholarship In close readings of Michelangelo Antonioni's L'Avventura Andrei Tarkovsky's Mirror and the ten short films that make up Krzysztof Kieślowski's Decalogue series Mroz highlights how film analysis must consider both particular moments in cinema which are critically significant and the way in which such moments interrelate in temporal flux She explores the concepts of duration and rhythm resonance and uncertainty affect sense and texture to bring a fresh perspective to film analysis and criticism Essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies this engaging study will also be a valuable resource for critical theorists
