Turner,1997 How to Win the War on Truth Samuel C. Spitale,2022-10-25 Made to Stick by Chip Heath meets Thing Explainer by Randall Munroe in this illustrated guide to navigating today's post truth landscape filled with real world examples of disinformation campaigns The average person receives 4 000 to 10 000 media messages a day It's no wonder we struggle to separate the news from the noise and fact from fiction but in these unprecedented times it's essential to democracy that we do For anyone struggling to figure out how to live and vote their values How to Win the War on Truth is here to help You'll learn The history of propaganda from Edward Bernays to Fox News Why simple messages are so powerful How social messaging creates unconscious biases Who profits from propaganda How propaganda is manufactured and delivered directly to you Filled with real world examples of disinformation campaigns that impact every citizen and clever illustration How to Win the War on Truth will help you see the world with clear eyes for the first time Best Practice Guidelines for the Prevention and Mitigation of Conflict Between Humans and Great Apes Kimberley Hockings,2009

Executive summary One of the challenges facing great ape conservation is the rising level of interaction between humans and great apes and the resulting conflicts that emerge As human populations continue to grow and human development makes deeper incursions into forest habitats such conflicts will become more widespread and prevalent in the natural ranges of great apes especially considering that the majority of great apes live outside protected areas It is essential that we develop a comprehensive understanding of existing and potential conflict situations and their current or future impacts on both great apes and humans This will require the integration of quantitative and qualitative data on multiple aspects of human and great ape behaviour and ecology along with a good understanding of local people's perceptions of the situation Such knowledge can then be used to develop effective locally adapted management strategies to prevent or mitigate human great ape conflicts whilst respecting both conservation objectives and socio cultural economic contexts These guidelines outline a sequence of logical steps that should be considered prior to any form of human great ape conflict intervention and propose possible counter measures to be used in the management of human great ape conflicts When Technology Fails Matthew

R. Stein, 2000 Offers advice designed to help people plan and prepare for the possibility of short term or long term disruptions in the flow of goods and services caused by either natural or technological disaster and functions as a guide to sustainable technologies and options Stealing Fire from the Gods James Bonnet, 2006 A revised and expanded sequel to Stealing Fire from the Gods this 2nd edition includes important new revelations concerning the ultimate source of unity the structures of the whole story passage the anti hero s journey the high concept great idea the secrets of charismatic characters and the analyses of many important new stories and successful films Cinematic Storytelling Jennifer Van Sijll, 2005 Dialog is one of the best known and obvious elements in a film But the language of cinema is more subtle and sophisticated than dialog alone From Metropolis to Kill Bill this remarkable reference guide reveals 100 of the most potent storytelling tools of the film medium It demonstrates how master screenwriters and directors depend on cinematic devices to pump up action create characters and energize a motion picture s plot Cinematic Storytelling compresses 100 years of film history outlining the important connection between film technique and storytelling It shows how the purposeful use of film techniques like lighting editing and sound can evoke audience emotions like fear hatred or anger without a word of dialog It demonstrates how character values and themes are expressed cumulatively over time and nonverbally In this the reader is given both the critical tools to better understand modern moviemaking and the creative tools to more fully exploit the dramatic potential of the medium BOOK JACKET The Modern Dilemma Leon Surette, 2008 Leon Surette s new study of T S Eliot and Wallace Stevens The Modern Dilemma challenges the received view that Stevens poetry expresses a Humanist world view and more surprisingly documents Eliot s early Humanist phase when Eliot and his bride shared Bertrand Russell s tiny London flat and later rented a country house together 1914-17 Eliot s poetry of that time up to The Waste Land is seen to reflect his Humanist phase closed by his conversion poetically documented in Ash Wednesday Where Eliot s poetry is dominated by cultural religious and philosophical angst Stevens is bright witty and playful and commonly dismissed as superficial The Modern Dilemma challenges this view demonstrating the seriousness of Stevens life long engagement with the modern dilemma of disbelief and also that like Eliot he rejected the Humanist resolution characterized by Russell in The Free Man s Worship as man worshiping at the shrine that his own hands have built The study proceeds by juxtaposing the two poets responses in poetry and prose to the same texts and events Marianne Moore s poetry the Great War Humanists and anti Humanists the Franco Mexican Humanist Ramon Fernandez Pure Poetry and finally the gathering war clouds in the late thirties The strategy is to put the two men in juxtaposition so as to highlight the differences and similarities of their responses to the same issues or the same works Among the issues under examination is the nature and status of poetry religious belief or disbelief and political engagement or the lack thereof
