American Machinist, 1912 Like Fire Theodore Schwartz, Michael French Smith, 2021-07-01 Like Fire chronicles an indigenous movement for radical change in Papua New Guinea from 1946 to the present The movement's founder Paliau Maloat promoted a program for step by step social change in which many of his followers also found hope for a miraculous millenarian transformation Drawing on data collected over several decades Theodore Schwartz and Michael French Smith describe the movement's history Paliau's transformation from secular reformer and politician to Melanesian Jesus and the development of the current incarnation of the movement as Wind Nation a fully millenarian endeavour Their analysis casts doubt on common ways of understanding a characteristically Melanesian form of millenarianism the cargo cult and questions widely accepted ways of interpreting millenarianism in general They show that to understand the human proclivity for millenarianism we must scrutinise more closely two near universal human tendencies difficulty accepting the role of chance or impersonal forces in shaping events that is the tendency to personify causation and a tendency to imagine that one or one's group is the focus of the malign or benign attention of purposeful entities from the local to the cosmic Schwartz and Smith discuss the prevalence of millenarianism and warn against romanticising it because the millenarian mind can subvert rationality and nourish rage and fear even as it seeks transcendence Like Fire consummates remarkable longitudinal ethnographic research on the Paliau Movement in Papua New Guinea pursued from the 1950s into the 1990s by Theodore Schwartz with Michael French Smith as his sometime assistant and updated by Smith in 2015 The theoretical arguments are highly provocative and the book is well written and fascinating throughout Like Fire poses important questions about the driving forces and contours of Pacific Island history and the place in it of cargo cults and other millenarian movements Aletta Biersack Professor Emerita University of Oregon Like Fire synthesises old but inaccessible and new material on an important and long lasting indigenous Melanesian movement while making extensive use of the wider literature on cargo cults and millenarianism I find the theorising in this book both very original and an important contribution to the debates on Melanesian religion cargo cults and millenarianism more generally As the authors state the topic of millenarianism has great relevance because of its ubiquity in the contemporary world Ton Otto Professor of Anthropology Aarhus University Denmark and James Cook University Australia     Report of the Department of Mines of Pennsylvania Pennsylvania. Department of Mines, 1906     Chamber's Cyclopædia of English Literature Robert Chambers, 1902     Reluctant Spy Iris Collier, 2015-05-07 When Nicholas Peverell is urgently summoned to court by a messenger from King Henry VIII he suspects that the King will want him to investigate a crime for Nicholas lord of the Manor of Dean Peverell in Sussex has done so before Reluctant to leave home though he is he will at least see his beloved Jane Warrener now a lady in waiting to Queen Jane once more But the crime the murder of a wool merchant in the back streets of Portsmouth hardly seems to warrant such attention after all Portsmouth has its own sheriff to deal with such matters Could there be more to this than meets the eye Nicholas starts to delve into the death only to find that the dead merchant's box of papers is stolen from the inn where Nicholas is lodging which confirms his suspicions that this is no ordinary murder He has also been instructed to report on the condition of the coastal defences at Porchester castle his stay there becomes awkward after the governor's predatory wife attempts to seduce him Then disaster strikes Nicholas is suddenly arrested on a charge of treason and taken to London to be imprisoned in the Tower For reasons beyond his understanding the hunter has become the hunted     Plain Words for Christ,
