Dear (Kindergarten Teacher's Name),

We hope this letter finds you well. As our child's time in your kindergarten class comes to an end, we wanted to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude for the wonderful experience our child has had under your guidance and care.

From the very first day of kindergarten, you created a warm and nurturing environment that made our child feel safe, comfortable, and excited to come to school each day. Your dedication to fostering a love of learning and exploration has been evident in every activity and lesson you've planned. It's been truly heartwarming to see our child's growth and development over the past year, and we credit much of that progress to your skillful teaching and dedication.

Your patience, kindness, and ability to connect with each child on an individual level have made a lasting impact on our child's educational journey. We've been amazed by the stories our child has shared about the fun and educational experiences they've had in your class, whether it's exploring new books, engaging in creative projects, or participating in interactive group activities.

Your unwavering support and effective communication have also been greatly appreciated. You've always been approachable and willing to address any concerns or questions we've had, and your regular updates on our child's progress have kept us well-informed and involved in their learning process.

194 High-Impact Letters for Busy Principals Marilyn L. Grady, 2006-07-21 Grady's book encourages principals who are perpetually pressed for time to get to correspondence that languishes at the bottom of their to do lists. My own correspondence has doubled since getting my hands on this book. Cathie West, Principal, Mountain Way Elementary School, Granite Falls, WA. The letters cover a wide variety of topics and give administrators ideas on what kind of letters to write. After going through the letters, I realize that I need to send more letters of appreciation to parents and organizations. Gina Segobiano, Principal, Superintendent, Signal Hill School District, 181 Belleville, IL. Build a culture of care with positive communication. As the key communicators for schools, principals write a wide range of correspondence from thank you letters and congratulations to best wishes and other personal notes. Yet this critical responsibility can easily fall victim to every administrator's busy schedule. Marilyn Grady's updated and expanded collection of letters is truly a time-saving starter kit with user-friendly and easy-to-personalize templates to revitalize every busy administrator's communications repertoire. This practical resource provides jargon-free templates useful for improving communication with parents, teachers, and other school stakeholders. Initiating a letter a day plan to improve school culture. Advancing parent education, health, and wellness and safety initiatives among others. Reminding you to communicate with all stakeholders. 124 High-Impact Letters for Busy Principals Marilyn L. Grady, 2000-08-16 The letters that can make a difference in the principalship often are the letters that principals have no time to prepare. Often must write negative letters consume the principal's letter writing energies. This collection of letters is primarily focused on the letters that principals have no time to prepare. Clearly, principals know how to write letters. They simply have incredible time constraints. The letters in this manual are not a substitute for the personalized letters that principals will craft. IR by contextualising the case of a woman spy in Korea in the Cold War Fictional imagination and feminist IR encourage one to go beyond conventional or standard ways of thinking it reshapes taken for granted interpretations and assumptions This takes the view that a dominant narrative of events might be reconstructed as a different kind of story once events are placed within a wider temporal approach The case of the woman Korean secret agent who reportedly bombed a South Korean plane Korean Airlines KAL Flight 858 under the instruction from the North Korean leadership to disrupt the Seoul Olympic Games is chosen to serve as an effective example of fictional IR and feminist IR scholarship which can be investigated through the research puzzles concerning gender pain and truth Fictional International Relations has three main objectives First it investigates the way in which fiction writing can become a method for dealing with data problems and contingency in IR Second the book examines how gender pain and truth operate or interact in the case of the Korean spy and how this observation can strengthen feminist IR in terms of intersectionality Finally the author goes on to explore why this case has been so difficult to study openly and thoroughly The aim of the book is not to refute the official findings the point is to unpack complex dynamics surrounding truth more specifically how the official account has been executed as the truth based on a feminist informed investigation This book will be of interest to students of IR theory critical security studies Cold War studies gender studies and Asian studies
