evaluative account of this evolving area of law Rescue of Business in Europe Gert-Jan Boon, 2020-01-30 This edited volume is based on the European Law Institute's ELI project Rescue of Business in Insolvency Law The project ran from 2013 to 2017 under the auspices of the ELI and was conducted by Bob Wessels and Stephan Madaus who were assisted by Gert-Jan Boon The study sought to design elements of a legal framework that will enable the further development of coherent and functional rules for business rescue in Europe This includes certain statutory procedures that could better enable parties to negotiate solutions where a business becomes financially distressed Such a framework also includes rules to determine in which procedures and under which conditions an enforceable solution can be imposed upon creditors and other stakeholders despite their lack of consent The project had a broad scope and extended to consider frameworks that can be used by non-financial businesses out of court and in a pre-insolvency context Part I of this book the ELI Instrument as approved by the ELI Council and General Assembly features 115 recommendations on a wide variety of themes affected by the rescue of financially distressed businesses such as the legal rules for professions and courts treatment and ranking of creditors claims contract corporate and labour law as well as laws relating to transaction avoidance Part II consists of national reports that sketch the legal landscape in 13 States and of an Inventory Report on International Recommendations from Standard Setting Organisations both of which provided insight for the drafting of the Instrument This volume is designed to assist those involved in a process of law reform and those setting standards for soft law in the business rescue context

Non-Recognized States in the Post-Soviet Region under International Trade Law, Private International Law and International Civil Procedure Alexander Trunk, Anastasiia Rogozina, Marina Trunk-Fedorova, 2025-02-18 Non-recognized States are a widespread and politically sensitive de facto phenomenon in international politics raising numerous questions from both a public international law and private law perspective The present book deals with rarely analysed questions on how States deal with legal issues of private law arising with regard to non-recognized States and what issues of international trade and investment law arise in such cases The book takes the non-recognized States that emerged in the post-Soviet area after 1990-1991 as examples but also makes references to other non-recognized States The book is written from a comparative perspective giving room to authors from various States and non-recognized States state-like entities alike Recent developments have led to the disappearance of three non-recognized States in the region In this regard the book may also be interesting as a source of information that has already disappeared or will probably soon disappear from the Internet Further the book is highly relevant for the remaining non-recognized States in the region while also offering a source of inspiration for private law including civil procedure and investment law aspects concerning non-recognized States in general

Tax, Inequality, and Human Rights Philip Alston, Nikki Reisch, 2019-04-11 In Tax Inequality and Human Rights experts in human rights law and in tax law debate the linkages between the two fields and highlight how each can help to tackle rapidly growing inequality in the economic social and political realms Against a backdrop of systemic corporate tax avoidance widespread use of tax havens persistent pressures to embrace austerity policies and growing gaps between the rich and poor this book encourages readers to understand fiscal policy as human rights policy and thus as having profound consequences for the well being of citizens around the world Prominent scholars and practitioners examine how the foundational principles of tax law and human rights law intersect and diverge discuss the cross border nature and human rights impacts of abusive practices like tax avoidance and evasion question the reluctance of states to bring transparency and accountability to tax policies and practices highlight the responsibility of private sector actors for shaping and misshaping tax laws and critically evaluate domestic tax rules through the lens of equality and nondiscrimination The contributing authors also explore how international human rights obligations should influence the framework for both domestic and international tax reforms They address what human rights law requires of state tax policies and how tax laws and loopholes affect the enjoyment of human rights by people outside a state s borders Because tax and human rights both turn on the relationship between the individual and the state neo liberalism s erosion of the social contract threatens to undermine them both
