empirical study focuses on the different quality dimensions of the Madrasa education system in Kerala southwestern India Madrasa education is one of the largest networks of non governmental organisations NGOs in the world Despite originating several centuries ago in a vastly different social and cultural context it continues to address the educational needs of a large section of the Muslim population in India Although the Madrasa system has seen many significant developments over time academia has not paid much attention to its functions strengths and contributions This study fills this lacuna and is grounded in detailed empirical investigation based on ethnographic surveys and interviews with various stakeholders from the field comprising students teachers parents management committees Madrasa boards and educationists It critically examines the existing Madrasa education system in terms of different quality dimensions including curriculum planning and designing curriculum transaction assessment and evaluation institutional management and infra structure While appreciating the contributions of Madrasas in promoting education among the Muslim minority of India the book also identifies their problems and suggests creative modalities A timely contribution to a subject with great international appeal it will be of great interest to policy planners researchers educators students and scholars of formal and informal education minority studies political Islam Middle East and Asian studies sociology history and contemporary studies Indian Muslims and Citizenship Julten Abdelhalim, 2015-10-05 Through the creation of post colonial citizenship India adopted a hybridisation of specific secular and western conception of citizenship In this democratic framework Indian Muslims are observed on how they make use of the spaces and channels to accommodate their Islamic identity within a secular one This book analyses how the socio political context shapes citizens perceptions of multiple variables such as their sense of political efficacy agency conception of citizenship rights and belief in democracy Based on extensive surveys and interviews and through presenting and investigating the various meanings of jih d the author explores the usage of non Eurocentric conceptual approaches to the study of postcolonial and Muslim societies in particular the meaning it carries in the psyche of the Muslim community She argues that through means of argumentative and spiritual jih d Indian Muslims fight their battle towards a realisation of citizenship ideals despite the unfavourable conditions of intra and inter community conflicts Presenting new examinations of Islamic identity and citizenship in contemporary India this book will be a useful contribution to the study of South Asian Studies Religion Islam and Race and Ethnicity      Muslims in India Qamar Hasan, 1987 The work is unique in the sense that it has not only delved into historical antecedents of the contemporary attitudes of the new generation of Indian Muslims but has also brought out their adjustment mechanisms and reactions to the demands which are made upon them from a section of the majority For the understanding of different aspects of behaviour of the minority vis a vis the majority the author has liberally drawn upon the relevant literature of three branches of social sciences viz Psychology Sociology and Political Science The studies of minority majority relations elsewhere are referred to for making the reader aware that to a very large extent minorities wherever they are found behave in the similar way Reviews The perspective offered by the author in the present study augurs well for the cause of nation building in the specific context of the persisting and ever elusive communal problem in India Prof Iqbal Narain The publication is so fascinating that I read more than half by the time I reached Lucknow Prof H S Asthana The first full length study of the mass psychology of the Muslim mind after Mujib s The Indian Muslims Qamar Hasan has used the tools of academic research to study the Muslim factor in Indian Politics read it because it is a same voice in the madness all around Tapan Basu Sunday The book clearly brings out reactions indicative of fear of domination and urge to dominate the book has made a definite contribution in the understanding of inter and intra group relationships Pramod Kumar The author must be complimented for his bold and frank revelations about the attitudes of Muslims and Hindus towards each other their self appraisals and their assessment Dr K Ravichandra Review Projector Vol VIII Nos 10 12 The causes and cures of the serious problems bedevilling relations between the Muslim minority in India and the Hindu majority badly need studying within a socio psychological framework Qamar Hasan is on the right track for a social scientist to throw light on the problems of his people but he needs to settle on just one frame of reference and typology and then test some bolder hypotheses      Concise Guide of Basic Islamic Teaching in Shafi'i School of Thought
